FOOTBALL STRUGGLES ON

Western Maryland Makes A Game
Fight Against Dickinson.

FINAL SCORE IS 5 POINTS TO 0

Home Team Wins The Battle On A
Sultry Day And Both Elevate
Drum—Southerners' Defense.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]
Carlisle, Pa., Sept. 26.—Dickinson's football season was opened here today with a game with Western Maryland's strong gridiron athletes. The score of 5 to 0, the first half ending 0 to 0, is hardly a fair indication of the comparative work of the two teams. The platoon was for the greater part of the time in Western Maryland's territory, although the Southerners blocked many Dickinson gains.

Dickinson won the toss and their opponents kicked off to Bonisteel. The feature of the first half was Lampard's dash and runs. Western Maryland had difficulty in holding the local team's punts throughout the game. In the first half Spencer missed a goal from the field.

Both sides were penalized several times.
For Dickinson the work of Richmond, Muen, Peterson, McWhinny, Bonisteel and Hess was exceptionally good, Hess making fine line plunges to score.

The warm weather seriously inconvenienced the players, who changed their plays noticeably. For Western Maryland Gill, Todd, Thomas, Gibson and Turner did great work. The visitors had made up their minds to win a victory, and deserved credit for their stubborn struggles against a superior team.

Coach Paul Davis was much pleased by Dickinson's work and has secured a good line-up on his material. Visiting Coach Ashmore expressed himself as being satisfied with his team's efforts. The line-up and summary:

A big delegation from the Rhode Island Avenue Church, in Washington, came over this morning, roused by the rumor that Dr. J. M. So enthusiastic were they and such good logic did they put up as to why he should be retained that the president granted their request.

WINTER WEATHER FOR FALL TRACK TRYOUTS

The annual fall track tryout for other than "V" men was held last Saturday on Lambert Field at 3 o'clock. A high, cutting wind was blowing across the field and made even the most warmly clad shiver. Owing to this one unfavorable condition, the results in the time for the events were not entirely the same as would have been expected had the weather been warmer.

Most of the events were exciting and hotly contested; and showed that the new men have plenty of fighting spirit in them.

The hundred was the feature of the afternoon. Ward and Gill had won their respective heats with comparative ease. In the finals they came across the tape, Gill leading by only a few feet.

In the 220-yards, Gill won the event with some what more comfortable margin than in the hundred.

Wallerstein in the quarter showed surprising form. He runs a strong race with a long, steady stride. Blackford pushed him hard in the first of the race but he slowly drew away with his steady gait. He finished well ahead of his nearest opponent, and although not with any burst of speed showed that he had plenty of energy left to make a strong finish if necessary. He should prove a strong candidate for the relay team.

Cooke Ran Good Half Mile.

In the half mile Wiley Cooke and Sloan had pulled around the track one and a half times keeping well together. Then Cooke, with a strong sprint, lengthened out his stride and drew slowly but consistently away, finishing well ahead of his opponent.

Brigham won both distance events, the mile and two mile, without over-exertion. In the mile he finished ahead of Wilcox, who ran a plucky race. He won handily the two mile, with Carr second. Brigham also placed in two other events, winning first in the high hurdles and second in the high jump.

"Harry" Spratt, of baseball and basketball fame, made his initial appearance on the local field in the shot put, with a throw of 34 feet, 3 inches. Ward, besides winning handily the high and broad jump, won a close second in the hundred.

Y F A VIRGINIA QUINT.

Up 34 Points to 8 for the Randolph-Macon Team.

to The Washington Post.
 Richmond, Va., Jan. 21.—The score of 34 to 8 indicates pretty well the nature of Virginia's victory over Randolph-Macon last night.
 The game was the briskest of the season, and the college team made up in snap what it lacked in ability at shooting. Virginia was never a let-up in the one-sidedness of the contest, and both teams from them were worth.
 Virginia made the first score in the first half, and ran ten points in quick succession. Jordan threw a pretty pass followed by one from Stridles on the run. Jones tossed the ball well in this second half. Kearns and a Virginia team, were against Randolph-Macon scored only.

Robert J. Gill, of Washington, is captain of the team, while F. Thomas Smith, of Denton, Md., is the acting manager. Captain Gill was end on 1908 team. Although not playing in all the games, was steady while at work. Captain Gill was very much pleased with the football team that returned for early practice. He is under the direction of a former back.

Coach Cathell, of Colgate, a former player of that institution, at Western Maryland, is making well as a Maryland coach. He intends to start a new system of coaching at the college which will give the players a more prominent part in the development of the football team. # MOUNTAINEERS WILL MEET A GOOD TEAM

Clash With Western Maryland College Tomorrow Afternoon.

The Western Maryland College eleven will again be seen in action here when it clashes with the Mount Washington team tomorrow afternoon at the Mount Washington grounds. Western Maryland has one of the best teams that ever represented the Carroll county institution, its playing being both fast and aggressive. In pitting his team against the Westminster lads, Manager "Doc" Patterson has stacked his proteges against a tough proposition. The Mountaineers, however, feel that they are well qualified to solve the puzzle of the visitors and beat them at their own game.

The Mountaineers have improved a thousand per cent. over their last showing, and they are "coming strong" for the Walbrook set-to. The absence of Quarterback Hank from the team in Wednesday's fray will be keenly felt, but Watsonschmidt, who has been holding down one of the end positions, has been displaying rare judgment in running the team. He will take Hank's place in tomorrow's game. Although Western Maryland came within a fence-18 to 0, eleven, Mount Washington is undeterred to pull out a victory.

The line-up of the two teams:
Mount Washington—Warner and West, I. E.; W. LaMotte and Albert, I. T.; Bryan and F. LaMotte, I. E.; Freeman, C.; Solley and Anderson, J. E.; Warner, J. T.; Dulaney and MacCraw, T. E.; Watsonschmidt, A. H.; Hendrick, I. H.; Menly (captain), T. H.; C. LaMotte, I. H.; Dulley, I. T.; Twigg and Wright, C.; Leary and Peckert, J. E.; Sprague, J. E.; Grise, T. T.; Smith, I. T.; Bissell, I. H.; Thomas, T. H.; Turner, T. B.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 8.—Miss Georgia Isabel Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Donaldson of Hereford, Howard county, and C. Webster Donaldson of Frederick were married in Hereford last evening. The ceremony took place in the Hereford Methodist Church.

Athletics

The foot-ball season is well under way and a few words regarding the team of 1909 may be very fitting at this time.

At the opening of the season many difficulties confronted those most interested in the team's welfare. Among those was the lack of strong and experienced men to fill the places made vacant by graduation of the class of 1909. About eight men returned early for preliminary practice and at the opening of college the squad was minus Gibson, Dudley, Turner, Birdsall, Hummell, Coe, Longfield and Carver of last year's varsity team. Later Turner, Dudley and Birdsall returned to college and have been a vast help.

The one thing necessary in turning out a winning team is spirit. This has been evidenced by the large number of men who have turned out for practice. As many as forty men in uniform have reported for practice and done all in their power to develop a team of which every student of Western Maryland may justly be proud. The first game was with the Waverly A.C. of Baltimore. In many ways this game was a disappointment but it showed the faults and weak places as nothing else could have done. Captain Gill had his shoulder broken and will be out of the game till October 23. Mr. Gill has done all in his power, both on the field and off, to bring out a strong team. He was putting up a splendid exhibition of foot-ball and his injury was a great misfortune. Waverly was defeated 11 to 0. Lineup was as follows:—

The particular stars of the game were Thomas, Turner, Sprague and Stultz. On September 25 the team journeyed to Carlisle to meet the strong Dickinson Eleven and were defeated by the score of 5 to 0. The score does in no way show the respective playing merits of the two teams. Western Maryland put up a class of foot-ball which should have won the game, but costly fumbles at critical moments prevented scoring. W. M. gained two or three times as much ground as did Dickinson, but Mt. Pleasant's fine kicking and running back of punts kept the ball from crossing the Dickinson line. Western Maryland's work on end runs and forward passes was far superior to that of their heavier opponents but their line was too heavy for our backs to make any great gains there. Dickinson scored their only touchdown early in the first half when a recovered block kick put the ball close to Western Maryland line and Mann was shoved over for the touchdown. Mt. Pleasant failed to kick goal. After this the Gold and Green line was never in danger. The lineup follows:

On Saturday October 2, the 'Varsity defeated Mercersburg on the latter's field by the score of five to nothing. The game was fast and hard fought throughout. Mercersburg won the toss and chose to receive. Thomas kicked off and the ball was downed on Mercersburg 20 yard line. Mercersburg could not gain and was forced to punt. W. M. made first down twice and were held but an outside kick was recovered by Dooley and carried to Mer. 12 yard line. In two plays Turner carried the ball through the line for the touchdown. Twigg failed at goal. Again in the first half W. M. had a chance to score but a dropped ball on the five yard line prevented. The forward pass was used but twice in the entire game. Once for a ten yard gain and the other time a 15 yard penalty was the result. Mercersburg put in substitute after substitute in the effort to stop Turner going through the line but the star full back could not be stopped. The team played a hard, steady game throughout. ## Athletics

Since the last issue of the monthly four foot ball games have been played and but one resulted in defeat. Hopkins heavy team winning by the close score of 18-16.

Western Maryland O. George Wash. Univ. O.

On October 9, the "Varsity" team met the strong George Washington team at American League Park, Washington, and after two halves of twenty minutes each, neither team had been able to cross the goal line.

Geo. Washington remembering the easy time they had in defeating W. M. last year by the score of 18-0 came out on the field in the first half full of confidence which was soon to be dispelled. The W. M. team though outweighed twenty pounds to the man from end to end in the line started in with a rush which carried the ball the entire length of the field in the first four minutes of play. G. W. kicked off to Birdsall behind W. M.'s goal line, Birdsall running the ball out ten yards. A forward pass, Twigg to Stultz advanced the ball seventy yards to G. W. U.'s thirty yard line. A few line plays and end runs followed by an outside kick advanced the ball to G. W. two yard line on first down. A touchdown seemed assured but here the Washington line braced and three tries failed to gain the much desired two yards. G. W. kicked out of danger and during the remainder of the half the ball changed hands frequently but with the play entirely in Geo. Wash. territory. The second half started with the Wash. boys making a rapid rush toward the West. Md. goal. The ball was on the one yard line in Geo. Wash. possession and first down. At this critical moment the team from Carroll County braced in grand style and held for three downs. In the last down the ball was within a few inches of the last chalk mark. West. Md. kicked out of danger and the game was saved. The work of the ends and of Twigg, Thomas and Dudley was especially noticeable. The lineup was as follows:

W. M. C

Sprague
Dudley
Wheaton
Twigg

Leary (Graefe)
Stultz
Thomas
Turner (Graefe)

Western Maryland 40. Davis and Elkins Univ. 0

On October 15, the Varsity met the team of Davis and Elkins Univ. of Elkins, W. Va., at Cumberland, Md., and had a very easy time in scoring forty points to their opponents nothing. West. Md. averaged about ten pounds heavier than D. and E. and gained ground at will. They started the game with a rush that carried the lighter team off their feet and scored three touchdowns in the first eight minutes. One of these came on a forward pass in the first play in which Stultz carried the ball the length of the field for a touchdown. After scoring 34 points in the first half the team slowed down and contented themselves with six in the last half. Turner's line bucking was the particular feature of the game. Line up

Western Maryland, 12—Washington College, 5.

On October 23 Washington College came to Westminster expecting to take back a twenty to nothing victory but when the smoke had cleared away and the whistle had blown for the last time they fully realized they were beaten and very fortunate to escape with nothing worse than a 12 to 5 defeat. An eighteen or twenty-four to nothing score would better show the respective playing abilities of the two teams. The game was fast and hard fought from start to finish, but entirely devoid of unnecessary roughness. The Eastern Shore boys played a fast, clean article of ball throughout the game but were outclassed at every point. Their end runs and forward passes failed to gain consistently and they could do nothing with the Western Maryland line. Their only touchdown was the result of an illegal forward pass which crosses the scrimmage line directly over center which the referee failed to detect. Captain Gill got into the game for the first time since the first game when he was injured in the shoulder, and played a good game. Stultz played his first game at quarter and with a little more experience should make a good general. The line showed up the best form of the year. Turner, Thomas and Birdsall each played a star game. Lineup:

Western Md.—16. Hopkins—18.

October 30, Western Maryland played Hopkins on Homewood Field, Baltimore. At the end of the first half the score stood W. M. C., 10—J. H. U.—nothing. Hopkins braced in the second half and nosed out a victory. Two of Hopkins touchdowns were the result of flukes: one from a fumble and the last from a blocked punt close to the West. Md. goal. Hopkins line was exceedingly strong and averaged over two hundred pounds to the man, outweighing the Varsity line by some thirty odd pounds to the man.

Athletics

Three games of foot-ball have been played since the last issue of the Monthly and three victories have been scored by the green and the gold.

Western Maryland 47—Mt. St. Mary's 0

On November 6 the Mt. St. Mary's team was played on the home ground and was completely outplayed and defeated by the score of 47-0. West. Md. started in with a rush that carried the opponents off their feet and never slackened the pace until the last whistle had blown. The particular feature of the game was the brilliant long forward pass from Twigg to Gill and Sprague. This was used many times and netted gains of from thirty to seventy yards. Every man on the team was in the game every minute. Thomas, Turner and Birdsall all made long and steady gains through the line and outside tackle. Stultz displayed fine headwork in running the team and kept them continually on the jump. This is the largest score made by a West. Md. team in the last five years and after the game the Mt. St. Mary's constituents said that West. Md. was in the same class as Villanova.

W. M. C. Defeats Delaware 11 to 6.

On November 13 the team went to Newark to play the Delaware College team and in one of the hardest games of the season, nosed out a victory in the last five minutes by forward passes. Delaware put up the snappiest exhibition of the game of football which West. Md. has met with this season. The first half ended 6 to 0 in Delaware's favor with the ball in their possession on W. M. 2 yd. line. In the second half Western Maryland took a brace and displayed their fighting ability by scoring two touchdowns in the last five minutes by real foot ball. The team and the coach wish to express their appreciation of the courteous and gentlemanly treatment received. Line up:

West. Md. 17 Mt. Washington 6.

For the first time Western Maryland defeated the Mt. Washington Athletic Club of Baltimore. Mt. Washington were a few pounds lighter than W. M. C. but put up a game fight and succeeded in scoring. The game was slow and uninteresting, and the varsity had an easy time in making three touchdowns. Several of the regulars were out of the game but their places were well filled by the substitutes. Thomas, our star halfback, went into the game the last two minutes and scored a touchdown after a run of 45 yds. through the line on the first play. Lamotte of Mt. Washington made a pretty run of 70 yds for their touchdown. Turner hit the line in Coy fashion and Dudley carried the ball for good gains.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

The season just closed has been one of the most successful Western Maryland ever played. While two teams defeated them the eleven men who made up the team never knew what it was to be against a better team and both of the defeats deserved to be victories. Opposite to this are seven victories and one tie. Mercersburg and Mt. Washington were defeated for the first time. The team scored 160 points to their opponents 40 and this record is one which not only the men on the team but every student and alumnus of Western Maryland may justly be proud. Next years team should be better and we have every reason to believe that such will be the case. The team will lose the services of Capt. Gill and Whealton. Gill altho having his shoulder badly broken at the beginning of the season played the last five games and very few were the gains any team made around his end. He has made an excellent captain and his loss will be greatly regretted both by the members of the team and Coach Cotrell.

Whealton, at left guard is an old and experienced player and has played a strong and steady game throughout the season. Never spectacular but always in the game, the team will lose a valuable player in Clarence. With the other men back in College and the substitutes of this year and new men who may be expected to enter college next fall, Western Maryland's prospects for a championship team are most bright.

WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE, WESTMINSTER, MD.

12—Varsity A.C. 9	40—Davis Elkins Tm. 9	47—Mt. St. Mary's C. 0
6—Dickinson Coll. 5	12—Washington Coll. 5	11—Indiana Coll. 6
6—Mercersburg 0	16—Johns Hopkins U. 15	17—Mt. Washington A.C. 6
9—C. Washington U. 0

The Maryland colleges showed some development, but they are not yet up to the form of the Pennsylvania eleven. But still there is the greatest rivalry among them. Johns Hopkins, by defeating Western Maryland, seems to be entitled to first rank, though on the showing of the two teams for the season, there is not much to choose. Washington College, St. John's and the Maryland Agricultural College should follow in this order, according to their respective showings.

THE CELEBRATION

On the evening of Friday, November 26, a very enjoyable celebration of the successful season was held in the gymnasium. The whole building was decorated with the college colors and pennants and the trophies of the season's victories—even the dummy was not absent. A large and enthusiastic crowd was present and college spirit ran higher than for years. A number of excellent speeches were made and were liberally applauded. Among the speakers may be mentioned Vice-President McDaniel, Dr. Tiffany, Judge Forsythe, Mr. Clemson, ex-Capt. Gibson, Coe and Carver of the class of 1909, Capt. Gill and the newly elected captain. The general opinion of all who spoke was that the team was the best that ever represented Western Maryland on the gridiron, and with the loss of only two regulars, next year's team gives promise of being even better. To Coach Cotrell the most of the credit must be given. His hard work and unflinching interest have been appreciated by all. He is the best foot ball coach Western Maryland ever had. Manager Smith also deserves much credit for his work and his excellent arrangement of trips. Capt Gill's enthusiasm and spirit in playing with an unhealed broken shoulder was mentioned.

The feature of the evening was the announcement of the newly-elected captain, Carl C. Twigg, of Twiggstown, Md. Twigg has played center for three years, and is one of the mainstays of the team. He is easily the best center in Maryland. Good luck to him and his team.

TRYOUTS THIS AFTERNOON

Fall Track Meet Beginning at 3 O'Clock Will Give "Pop" Lannigan Posters on New Material---No Admission Price.

The annual Fall Track Meet will be begun on Lambeth Field at 3 o'clock this afternoon. For over six weeks the track men have been training faithfully and from the present outlook good time is likely to be made. Time trials were held Monday afternoon and although the time was not extremely fast on account of the slow track, it is expected that it will be much faster in the meet this afternoon.

The cross country men stopped their runs preparatory to the coming meet and they have been working out lightly during the last few days. Ribbons will be given to the winners of the various events, a blue ribbon going to the winner, a red one to second place, and a white one to third.

When seen by a Topics reporter, Trainer Lannigan said that the track would be in first-class condition. The present meet will be the first and last contest for the track men during the Fall, except the cross country run, which will be held the Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Order of Events.

No "V" men will be entered in any of the events, as the main object of the meet will be to show up the new material in college. The track events will be run in the following order:

100 yard dash—Richardson, Church, Ward, Fite, Cooke, Durr, Plunkett, Gill, Hammer, Gross, Nelson, Anderson and Crockett.

120 yard hurdles—Cason and Lane.

HOLD ANNUAL FALL MEET.

Virginia's New Track Candidates Show Up in Fine Style.

Special to The Washington Post.
Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 23.—In a biting wind and a slight flurry of snow which was Virginia's annual fall track meet was held this afternoon on Lambeth field. No "V" men and very few old men were entered in any of the events, as the main object of the meet was to show up the new material in college.

Gill showed up well in the short-distance events, winning both the 100 and the 220. Lane won the low hurdles in easy style, but was defeated in the high hurdles by Brigham, who captured both long-distance events. The pole vault had no competition in the pole vault, and Ward found little difficulty in annexing both the high and broad jump. Spratt, the baseball and basketball star, in his initial appearance in the shot-put landed first place, while Jack Wellford, of the football squad, won second place in the hammer throw. Summaries:

100-yard dash—Gill first, Ward second, Fite third. Time, 18.54 seconds.
120-yard hurdles—Brigham first, Lane second, Cason third. Time, 19.53 seconds.

HOLLADAY TO CAPTAIN A PROMISING TEAM

Star Hurdler and High Jumper Elected by "V" Track Men.
New Material Includes
Fast Candidates.

"Ed." Holladay, fourth year medical student and for the last three years a member of the track team, was elected to captain the team this year at a meeting of the "V" men Thursday afternoon.

Although Holladay does the high jump, his specialty is the low and high hurdles. Last year in the spring meets he showed up especially well, and in the meet with Pennsylvania he ran a beautiful race in the hurdles, losing to Haydock, the Pennsylvania star, by a close margin.

In the two-twenty hurdles in the intercollegiate last year, Holladay won easily from a large field. He does five-ten in the high jump and he is expected to go even higher this year.

At present Captain Holladay is out for the football team, where he is playing a steady game at tackle. Not only is he a good athlete, but he is a hard worker and has the knack of being able also to make his men work as well.

Practice on the track Thursday afternoon continued to follow out the regular preliminary work. A large squad was out, numbering about thirty. Practicing starts took up the greater part of the afternoon and during the latter part each new man was put in charge of an old man to be coached.

Hurdle practice has been started and it is understood that Larry Martin will be out in a few days. Trainer Lannigan, when interviewed yesterday afternoon, seemed very optimistic about the new material. Gill, captain of the Western Maryland University football team, is out for the half mile. Gill had intended going out for the football team but unfortunately broke his collar bone shortly before the end of the last season. McMorris, a fast man from Mississippi College, is out for both the baseball and the track team. Trainer Lannigan says that he regards him as one of the fastest outfielders ever on Lanthorn Field. He is out for both the hundred and the quarter mile. The following men also seem promising. Grady of Tome, Hildreth of Shenandoah Valley Military Academy; Payne of Washington Tech. High; Siabert of New York Military Academy; Ramboough of Leesburg High.

Cross country starts Monday, October 3d. The runs will start from the Gymnasium at 5:10 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. All men in the distances will report to Lucian Carr at that time.

Fast Runners Reporting.

Among the men for the short distances are: Boyle of Western Military Academy, Gravalt of Shenandoah Military Academy, Cason of Richmond College, Kearfoot of Richmond College, and Gill of Western Maryland University.

union. The committee on official relations reported that the Board of Home Missionaries wished the loan of Rev. J. M. Gill, pastor of Rhode Island Avenue Church, in Washington, for work in Seattle, Washington state. While denoting his loss to the Maryland Conference, they acceded to the request.

FALL TRACK TRYOUT NEXT SATURDAY

Everything in track circles is being prepared for the fall tryout which will take place next Saturday. The track candidates, already in the pink of condition with many weeks of hard practice behind them, are now at work putting on the finishing touches.

Monday afternoon "Pop" Lannigan put every one of the candidates through his time trials. The afternoon was crisp and invigorating and the track fast. No time results were given out by "Pop" but fast time was made.

The distance men, those out for the half, mile and two-mile, have discontinued the cross country work and at present are doing speed work on the track. Among the distance men who have been out for cross country are Carr, Sloan, Bierne, Plunkett, Toulmin, Hart, Wilcox and Wheeler.

The new men are showing in much better form at each practice. They are slowly mastering the fine points of the start, and are getting down to the easy swing and stride which comes only with careful coaching and constant practice. Among these new men who are showing up well are Gill, Hamner, Hildreth, Boyle, Lane, and Groner.

W. W. Douglas has been doing some sprinting lately to increase his speed in the quarter and half. He ran a first-rate hundred in the trial on Monday. In the field events, Worthington is plugging away at the pole vault. W. R. Ward has been doing good work at the high and broad jump and is also showing good form in the hurdles. It has been learned with much regret that Bob Burke has withdrawn from the University on the advice of his physician. His loss will be sorely felt as he was one of the best sprinters in college. In the sprints the work of Ashby, Gill and Fite will be depended upon to win points.

KEARNS ELECTED CAPTAIN.

E. W. Kearns, left forward on the Varsity basketball team, has been elected to captain the basketball quint of next year. Kearns has played a hard and consistent game for the last two years, winning his monogram both seasons. During the first part of the last season he played right guard but on account of his accurate goal shooting, was shifted to right forward.

Gill, H. E. Jones, Bertram, Neff, Campbell, Rixey and Churchman will constitute the squad of old men back, and with these as a nucleus, Captain Kearns should lead a winning team.

Basketball Monograms.
The General Athletic Association of the University of Virginia has awarded basketball monograms to the following players: Herbert E. Jones, of Oak Hill, W. Va.; William B. Bertram, of Monticello, Ky.; B. Russell Cecil, of Kansas City, Mo.; W. N. Neff, of Chilhowie; James G. Driver, Jr., of Beaver Dam; J. Lile Campbell, of Charlottesville; Robert J. Gill, of Seattle, Wash.; Epas Rixey, Jr., of Charlottesville; Charles J. Churchman, of Staunton; Edward W. Kearns, of Taunton, Mass. The monogram remains a large V, with a smaller B on both sides.

VIRGINIA QUINT DEFEATS TRINITY

Contest Is Fastest and Roughest
Ever Played on Home
Team's Floor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Durham, N. C., February 23.—In the fastest, fiercest and by far the roughest game of basketball ever seen on the home floor, Trinity was to-night defeated by the University of Virginia by the close score of 18 to 24. From the first the Methodists surprised their visitors by their phenomenal shots at the goal, and at the end of the first half the score stood 13 to 4 in favor of the home team, but by reinforcing wards, Kearnes and Gill, who were put in to fill the places of Driver and Churchman, the Virginians began their dribbling, and succeeded in scoring 15 points to Trinity's 5, making the final score 24 to 18.

RANDOLPH-MACON LOSES BY LARGE SCORE

In defeating the quintet from Randolph-Macon Saturday night by the score of 34 to 8, the Virginia five has started out to equal if not surpass the high scores made during last season. The team has settled down to working together and their fast team work swept the visitors off their feet.

During the first half Virginia had everything her own way and was enabled by quick passing to push the ball under the basket for numerous shots. Neff started the scoring for Virginia after two minutes of play by a neat toss from the side and from then on it was Virginia's game. Beville and Jordan for the visitors did some fine playing and succeeded in getting a couple of baskets, but the Virginia guards were too fast for them and prevented them from getting many tries for goal.

Substitutes Play Well.

Virginia entered an entirely new team in the second half and, though Randolph-Macon played them hard, they rolled up four goals to the Ashlanders' one. At all times the playing was a little ragged but the team is beginning to pass the ball with greater accuracy and to work together with far better results.

Captain Cecil, the star guard, was not in the line-up, as he is ill with grip and the team felt his loss very much.

VIRGINIA SWAMPS HAMPDEN-SIDNEY FIVE

In Listless Game, Virginia Never Found It Necessary to Exert Herself—Attendance Poor.

In a poor exhibition of basketball, witnessed by several dozen people, Virginia defeated Hampden-Sidney 53 to 5 Saturday night. Although the home team nearly equalled the score by which Washington and Lee was defeated last year, there were not the same encouraging prospects shown, and failures of the Virginia players to throw easy goals that would have swelled the score were frequent throughout the game. The explanation lies in the poor attendance given the team, and the inequality of the teams, the quint never having its ardor aroused further than the wish to maintain a safe lead over the collegians. Hampden-Sidney was tired out from her defeat of Jefferson School in the afternoon, and Captain Blanton was the only player to make points.

Improvement in Team Work.

"Pop" Lannigan put in to start the game the string of players that started things with Pennsylvania, and this five did not find it necessary to exert itself at all. Gill was the most accurate in throwing goals, but considering the fact that the ball was always at the Virginia end of the floor, the score should have been much larger, many unhampered throws going wide of their mark. An improvement in team work was seen, and Cecil cut a wide swath through the opposition when it temporarily got its hands on the ball. The first quint rolled up 28 points to 3 in the first half.

In the second half an entirely new team put up a better article of ball. Neff, Campbell, and Churchman never letting up in their work, although Hampden-Sidney was already hopelessly beaten.

VIRGINIA QUINT BADLY BEATEN

Midshipmen Claim Southern Basketball Championship—Last Of Season.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.
Annapolis, Md., Feb. 18.—To make this season an even more glorious one the midshipmen basketball team smothered the University of Virginia, 50 to 10, on the armory court this afternoon.

It was the closing game of the season for the middies. They met some of the strongest teams in the East. The only defeat sustained was at the hands of the New York University, and that by the scant margin of two points. That was several weeks ago. The sailor lads have improved since then and the knowing ones believe that if these teams could come together again the middies would tuck the game under their wing by a safe score.

Among the teams that fell before the fast sailor boys were the University of Pennsylvania, Baltimore Medical College and Georgetown, and all by decisive scores. Though the Navy belongs to no intercollegiate association by virtue of Government restrictions, the middies are undoubtedly entitled to the Southern championship this year. Today's game and the victory over Georgetown last week clinched this title for them.

In today's setto the middies had things all their way from the opening until the final whistle. When the first half was over the middies had rolled up the big score of 33, to 9 for Virginia, and in the second half the Southerners managed to score only a single point, which was the result of a goal thrown from the foul line by GILL.

Virginia presented an almost entirely new team at the opening of the second period, and the freshmen succeeded in holding their opponents in check to some extent, particularly during the first few minutes, which developed a scrappy engagement, before the middies managed to get their scoring machine working. Toward the end of the game Navy sent in a substitute team and in the five minutes of play there was only one tally, a finely thrown goal by McClung.

Wenzell, at right forward, who is decidedly the crack of the Navy quint, but who has been somewhat off color in the last few games, came back strong in the final appearance and chalked up 10 field goals and added 5 more points by as many made from the foul line.

Douglas played his usual strong game at centre. There was just a bit of roughing it at the start of hostilities, when Jones, centre of Virginia, mixed things up in lively style with Douglas, his opponent. For committing four personal fouls Jones was disqualified and Bertram took his place. The line-up:

Navy.	Position.	Virginia.
Wensell, McClung.	Right forward.	Kearns, G.
Hill, Abbott.	Left forward.	Rixey, C.
Douglas, Blachoff.	Centre.	Jones, B.
Jacob, Comstock.	Right guard.	Ed.
Goals from field—Wensell (16), Hill (3), Douglas (4), Eitz (3), Jacob (2), McClung.
Goals from fouls—Wensell (4), Rixey, GUL. Referee—Mr. Colliflower, of George town. Time of halves—25 minutes each.

WHEN THE CHURCH CHOIR SINGS THEN THE ROBBER ROBS

For He Knows Good People
Are Not at Home, and Takes His Time

AT IT THREE WEEKS NOW

First Methodist Protestant Pastor
Says Police Have Been Apathetic
While Houses in the Neighborhood
Are Looted Almost Nightly

Operating whenever the peal of the organ and the singing of the choir in the First Methodist Protestant church, sixteenth avenue and John street, assure him that the people are safely engaged, a robber, supposed to be alone, has been looting houses in the vicinity. The police have been notified, but are declared so far to have done nothing. The neighborhood is almost a vigilante committee now as a result, but still the housebreaking goes merrily on.

The robber has shown no partiality or fear, come places he has visited twice. He has confessed his attack on the Rev. Dr. J. M. Gill, pastor of the church. On Sunday night, July 17, he looted Dr. Gill's parsonage of jewels valued at $400.

Detective Makes Hangle

Among the articles taken was a valuable gold watch taken that Dr. Gill had given to his son, who has just been graduated from college. The watch, Dr. Gill told the police, was engraved with his name, as the donor to his son. The parsonage was ransacked and trunks pried open. All the silver was wrapped up, but for some reason was not taken away. After several days Dr. Gill complained again to the police. On July 25 a detective called at his home, and with a smile said:

"Well, we've done pretty good work, I guess. Here's the watch you gave your son."

"Why, that isn't the watch," said Dr. Gill. "That watch is engraved 'T. G. McGane'."

"Ain't that your name?" asked the detective, in great surprise.

ONLY LOOT OF ROBBERS IS GROWING

Thieves Are Having an Easy Time Tearing the Town Wide Open Without Danger of Arrest.

Daylight robbers who for weeks past have been looting houses and getting away with large quantities of jewelry and silverware without the police being able to get any clue as to their identity or where they were disposing of their loot, entered the home of J. M. Gill, 128 16th av. N., between 6:30 and 9 o'clock yesterday evening, and secured more than a thousand dollars' worth of jewelry.

No one was at home at the time of the robbery, and the thieves gained entrance to the house through a rear window. After getting inside they "tumbled" the house from cellar to garret, but took only the valuable pieces of jewelry that they found. Among the articles stolen was a solid gold, 16-jewel watch, worth $100, two lady's gold watches worth $50 each, a diamond stud worth $200, a stickpin set with a diamond and 13 pearls, worth $150, two stickpins, two medals, a pair of solid gold cuff buttons worth $50, and several other small pieces of jewelry.

And Then Some.

In addition to this robbery several other daylight thefts are reported at police headquarters this morning.

W. P. Snallin, 1512 Barrett st., reports that a solid gold ring, set with an amethyst, and other jewelry was stolen from his home while the family was away.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR NAVAL ACADEMY MEET

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March 27.—Prospects are now bright for the track meet between Virginia and the Naval Academy on May 4 at Annapolis. The intercollegiate and Johns Hopkins meets are assured. The former will be held on April 11 on Lambeth Field and the latter on the same track on May 11. Already entries have been received from North Carolina, Clemson, Johns Hopkins, Georgetown, Washington and Lee and William and Mary for the intercollegiate, thus insuring a larger meet than ever before for this annual affair.

The Southern interscholastic meet, that has been formerly held at the same time as the intercollegiate, will this year be held on Saturday or Easter week, April 12. Entries are already coming in for this meet, but have not yet been listed.

Hard work every day is the order of the second week of outdoor track training. With the first meet, little more than two weeks distant, "Pop" Lamson realizes the necessity of pushing the men this week, and there will be no let up in the amount of hard work. It is too soon to pick the team definitely. A number of men are out for every event and very few of the places are yet secured by any one man. The team promises to be a well-balanced one; indeed, individual stars will not be greatly in evidence. Among the men showing up well in the various events are:

100-yard dash—Todd, Walters, Roddy, Thornhill, Harris, Hawkins, Stacy.
200-yard dash—Hawkins, Todd, Holcombe, Gill and Stacy.
440-yard dash—Cooke, Todd, Fite, Briggs, Guy, Tolle, Mann, Holcomb, Felton, Walker and Mason.
Half-mile—Cooke, Beckett, Sloan, Hart, Miller, Barton and Diebold.
One and two-mile—Humbouch, Jones, Allen, Davidson, Harris, G. W. Diebold.
Weight events—Bischoff, Jones, W. A. Cooke, Farrow and Meyer.
Pole vault—Cochran, Walters and McDonald.
High jump—Ward, Walters, Cochran and Rixey.
Broad jump—Ward, Gooch, Walters and Holcomb.

28 FROM OLD COLLEGE

Western Maryland Has Ended Its Fortieth Session.

L. I. POLLITT HEADS ALUMNI

Many Marylanders in Classes That Have Completed Courses At Westminster.

Westminster, June 15.—The fortieth commencement of Western Maryland College took place this morning. During its forty years the college has graduated 1,000 students and other thousands have taken partial courses of instruction. From a very small beginning it has become one of the principal institutions of education in the State.

The exercises began with a processional and prayer, offered by Rev. Dr. Sheridan, president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Eighteen men and five girls students were graduated with the degree of bachelor of arts. The salutatorians were Miss Cecile George Munroe Taylor, of New Windsor, and Miss Laura Belle Ford, of Forest Hill, and the valedictorians. Those who had completed parts were: Florence Elise Israel, Baltimore; Campbell Hill, Chantanooga; Ethel Dorothea Welch, Hovos; Russell Vinton Lewis, Westfield; John William Geringer, Elm, N. C.; and Thomas Shepherd Kasper, Meador.

The other members of the class are: James Mitchell Benedict, of Ellicott; Harry Bain, of Westminster; Chauncey Carl Day, of New Freedom, Pa.; John Vincent Dabney, of Baltimore; William Augustus Ladd, of N. C.; Francis Philip Phelps, of Cambridge; Thomas Thompson, of North East; William Doby Tipton, of Chantanooga; Clarence William Whelan, of Jarrattville; Charles Perry Wright, of Federalburg; Miss Mamie Jean Hall, of Linton, Va.; Helen Elizabeth Hogue, of Easton; Mary Ethel Joy, of Leesylvania; Vera Irene Kieker, of Williamsport; Missan Miller, of Cherry Hill.

All the girls were graduated in pedagogy and also Messrs. Edmott, Darley, Lewis, Moser, Phelps, Smith, Thompson and Will.

The degree of master of arts was conferred on Mrs. Fannie Grove Stover, class of 1888, now preceptress at Key Mar College.

The trustees conferred the degree of doctor of divinity upon Rev. John M. Gill, of Seattle, Wash. They also elected Thomas W. Mather, Sr., of Westminster, a member of the board, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Francis L. Hering, a brother of Dr. J. W. Hering, of the Public Utilities Commission.

The alumni association of the college, now numbering 800 members, at its annual business meeting received the graduating class into membership and elected officers for the coming year, as follows:

Webster; Baltimore vice-president, Mrs. Fannie Grove Stover; Washington vice-president, Miss Carrie Moser; secretary, Miss Mollie L. Butler, of Westminster; treasurer, Prof. W. B. ## VIRGINIA QUINT VICTOR

Has Easy Time Beating Jefferson School, 35 to 3.

START OFF WITH A RUSH

Gill, for Winner, Tosses Basket Early in Game, First Half Ending 20 to 3. Losers Show Defensive Strength in Final Period, but Are Unable to Score. Orange and Blue Shows Strength.

Special to The Washington Post. Charlottesville, Va., Dec. 16.—The local basketball season was opened tonight when the Virginia team defeated the 247 person school quint of this city, 35 to 3, in 20 minutes of play. The collectors started off with a rush, Gill tossing the first ball in the first few seconds of play. Afterwards the tussle had hardly settled in the hands of W. had hardly settled in the hands of a waiting crowd, than it was switched to a waiting man under the net for many a two point. The score at the end of the first period was 29 to 3, Sinclair having landed a goal for the school boys and Noonan, goal for the Orange and Blue. The Jefferson players showed marked improvement on the defensive in the second half, but were unable to score during the period. Indeed, they had few chances to land a goal as the Orange and Blue work of Christian and Neff. Virginia added 15 points to her total.

No Rough Work. For Virginia, the best work was done by Epke River, Gill and Kearnes, each tossing four goals. Little spectacular work was done. The contest was clean throughout, there being an utter absence of rough work. Boykin and Sinclair put up a steady game for Jefferson. The former told his opponent to one goal. Virginia opens her collegiate schedule on January 15, with Emory and Henry on January 15. Tonight's lineup: Johnson, Virginia; Kearnes, Orange and Blue; Gill, Orange and Blue; River, Orange and Blue; Sinclair, Orange and Blue; Neff, Orange and Blue; Christian, Orange and Blue; Noonan, Orange and Blue; Boykin, Jefferson; Epke, Jefferson; Hering, Jefferson; Mather, Jefferson; Stover, Jefferson; Moser, Jefferson; Butler, Jefferson; Lewis, Jefferson; Corman, Jefferson; McDaniel, Jefferson; Phelps, Jefferson; Dabney, Jefferson; Day, Jefferson; Bain, Jefferson; Benedict, Jefferson; Kasper, Jefferson; Geringer, Jefferson; Welch, Jefferson; Israel, Jefferson; Hill, Jefferson; Tipton, Jefferson; Whelan, Jefferson; Wright, Jefferson; Hogue, Jefferson; Joy, Jefferson; Kieker, Jefferson; Miller, Jefferson; Munroe, Jefferson; Taylor, Jefferson; Ford, Jefferson; and the rest of the team.

VIRGINIA WINS GAME BY LARGE SCORE

Orange and Blue Quint Rolls Up
Fifty-Five Points, Holding
Opponents to Twelve.
Team Plays Well.

Virginia will play Maryland Agricultural College Friday night in Fayerweather Gym. The Aggies are reported to have a strong team and have made a good record this season. Game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Boxing and wrestling between the halves.

Virginia's basketball team came back strong Saturday night and signally defeated Randolph-Macon College by the score of 55 to 12. The collegians presented a strong, fast team and put up a hard fight at all stages of the game, but were completely outclassed by the speedy Orange and Blue quint.

In the first half, Virginia scored a total of twenty-one points, holding their opponents to one field goal and three goals from foul. The team appeared to better advantage in the second period and ran away from the Methodists, scoring thirty-four points, all on goals from the field.

Rixey, the big center, failed to show his usual form in the first half, but started the second period with a rush and tossed five baskets in rapid succession. He was ably seconded by Campbell, who not only played a strong game at guard but covered a wide amount of territory, and caged five goals from the field. Churchman and Campbell gave the collegians few opportunities to try for goals and kept the ball away from the Virginia basket, play being almost entirely in Randolph-Macon's territory.

Gill and Stickley played brilliantly at the forward positions and showed great accuracy in goal shooting. Each man scored ten points, many of the shots being from difficult angles. Toward the end of the game Pop Lannigan withdrew the first team and sent in the second string. The substitutes kept up the fast pace set by the Varsity and scored almost at will. Strickling, who relieved Rixey at center, made a good impression by his steady work. Lyman, the speedy little Texan, featured the final minutes of play with two brilliant shots after dribbling the ball nearly the length of the floor.

Line-up and summary:

LOSES TO W. & L. IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Quint Fights Hard All Way but Goes Down before Superior
Teamwork of Generals.
Score Is 43 to 28.

Virginia's heretofore undefeated basketball team went down before the Washington and Lee quint Saturday night at the Auditorium in Lynchburg by the score of 43 to 28. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd that has ever attended a basketball game in the state, over eleven hundred people being present. A large number of Washington and Lee students attended the game and enlivened the scene with their songs and yells. Virginia sent a delegation of about eighty students.

The Orange and Blue five fought desperately from start to finish but were smothered by the powerful Blue and White team. The Virginians looked like piggies beside their opponents, and were unable to make consistent headway against them. The teamwork of the Lexingtonians was of the highest order, their passing and goal shooting being especially fine. Miles, the big center, proved to be the star of the game and scored seventeen points for his team. He was ably assisted by the Washington and Lee forwards, Bear and McCain, this trio scoring thirty-seven of their team's points.

Gill and Stickley did the best work on the offensive for Virginia, each man scoring four field goals. Campbell and Churchman played their usual reliable games at the guard positions and prevented many possible scores by their fine defensive playing. Campbell scored one of the feature shots of the contest in the second half on a long toss from the sidelines. Lyman, who relieved Gill at right forward, played well and added a field goal and two free tosses to Virginia's total. The work of Rixey was not up to the usual standard, the tall center failing to tally from the field. He showed great accuracy in tossing foul goals, scoring six times in nine tries.

The first point was scored by Washington and Lee in the first minute of play on a foul goal by Miles. Rixey duplicated this a minute later, and Virginia forged to the front when Gill scored a pretty shot over his shoulder. After this the teams fought along evenly until a spurt by Washington and Lee toward the end of the first half gave them the lead, this period ending 22 to 18. The work of the Orange and Blue quint during the next period was not so good, ten points being scored to twenty-one for the Lexingtonians.

Toward the close of the game Lyman and Captain Burke of Washington and Lee had a slight mixup, but were separated before any damage occurred.

The lineup and summary:

Virginia	Positions	W. & L.
Gill, Lyman.....	r. f.....	McCain
Stickley.....	l. f.....	Bear
Rixey.....	c.....	Miles

Goals—Miles 7, Bear 5, McCain 5, Burke 3, Gill 4, Stickley 4, Lyman, Campbell. Foul goals—Miles 3, Rixey 6, Lyman 2. Referees—Messrs. Rice and Thorpe. Time of halves—20 minutes.

This week he received a telegram asking him to take the presidency of the Conference of Maryland.

Both of these offers Dr. Gill has declined, giving as among his principal reasons the fact that he is in love with Seattle and its opportunities.

VIRGINIA BRACED IN SECOND HALF

In First Division Penn. Rushed Matters but a New Team Caused a Standstill.

RESULT PLEASED LANNIGAN

In her first game of the season Virginia made a creditable showing against Pennsylvania last night by holding the fast Northern quint to a score of 32 to 11. Penn. started off with a rush by scoring ten points in the first few minutes of play and although the first half closed with the points 21 to 5, Virginia had an entirely new team in during the second half and played the Red and Blue to a standstill. Virginia had had only a few days of practice, while the Northerners were in fine trim from a month's work, and Trainer Lannigan was much pleased with the result. Penn. has this year defeated Princeton, who had the intercollegiate championship team last year.

The game started off mildly but when Virginia braced in the second half, each side began to rough things and good interference and interception of passes awoke the spectators to a lively struggle. Virginia lacked team work because of lack of practice, but Kearns and Rixey in the first half covered much territory, and "Bill" Neff, who was substituted for Cecil in the second half, threw two pretty goals. Pennsylvania was adept in keeping the ball in her territory, and Pearce threw several goals from difficult angles. Turner was skillful in throwing goals from foul.

The next game is with Woodberry Forest next Wednesday night.

The line-up:

VIRGINIA	POSITION	PENN.
Kearns.....	L. G.....	Walton

W. AND L. BEATS VIRGINIA QUINT

Takes State Title by Playing Better All-Round Game—Score

Is 43 to 28.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 8.—Virginia basketball team fell before Washington and Lee here tonight in a hard-fought game, in which the State collegiate championship was settled, the Lexingtonians winning by better all-round work, 43 to 28. The game was witnessed by 1,100 persons, this being the largest crowd that has ever paid to see a basketball game in Virginia.

Miles, the tall center for Washington and Lee, outplayed Rixey, who started the same position for Virginia. Rixey retired when half the second half was played, giving way to Strickland, who held Miles far better than Rixey was able to do.

The game was rough, but not as rough as might have been expected, a condition due largely to the excellent work of the two officials.

Washington and Lee was easily the better on goal shooting, the Virginia team being somewhat off with the exception of Strickley, who played the best game for the Orange and Blue. Gill did good work in the first half, but he was replaced in the second by Lyman, who was very speedy.

Virginia's great handicap was the weight of the Washington and Lee guards against the small men at forward.

Lyman, of Virginia, and Burke, of Washington and Lee, became involved in a mix-up in the second half, but order was restored speedily. The line-up:

W. AND L.	POSITION	VIRGINIA

Blue and Gray Guards Play Im-

at the Arcade.

Georgetown again humbled Virginia. This time it was at basket-ball, and the count now stands one each, as the Hilltoppers landed last night's encounter at the Arcade by a nifty score of 26 to 23. Playing whitewind basket-ball, and flurry sweeping the Virginia guards off the floor, the lads from the West End institution went after the game from the start and lost no time in putting it to bed. The Virginia quint did manage to draw first blood, but it availed them little, as the locals came back strong and took the lead after two minutes of play.

Wetzell and Foley, that pair of sturdy defensive men of the Hilltop five, played the stellar game of the evening. These lads were all over the floor, shooting baskets and passing the ball. The Virginia forwards were practically left unguarded.

Gill and Strickley put up the best game for the visitors, those boys being in the game all the time. Gill would have shot many more goals had it not been for the great work of the Hilltop guards.

CAROLINA AGGIES GO DOWN BY 53-10 SCORE

Quint Fails to Show Usual Form but Wins Easily from Tar-heels—Gill Does Great Goal Shooting.

Virginia will play V. M. I. tomorrow night in Fayerweather Gym. The cadets have a strong team and recently downed the Carolina Aggies by a large score. Game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Georgetown will play here Friday night. The game will begin at 8 o'clock. Boxing and wrestling between the halves.

Virginia maintained her unbroken string of victories Monday night by overwhelming the North Carolina Aggies by the score of 53 to 10. In view of the decisive defeats administered the Carolinians by V. M. I. and Washington and Lee, a larger score was hoped for and the showing of the team was somewhat of a disappointment to its followers. The Tarheels displayed great aggressiveness at all times and excelled on defensive work. This fact, coupled with unusually poor goal shooting by the Orange and Blue team, prevented a much larger score.

Virginia lost many easy chances to score through poor goal shooting. Gill alone displaying his usual efficiency in this department. The big forward played his best game of the season, being strong on defense and caging eleven baskets. Many of his shots were extremely difficult ones and were scored from all angles of the floor.

Carolina took the lead in the first two minutes of play by scoring on a foul. Gill followed this a minute later with a pretty shot from the sidelines, putting Virginia in the lead. After this the team was never headed, the first half ending 27 to 3. The Carolinians repeatedly attempted to advance the ball by short passes but were stopped by the fine work of the Virginia guards. Campbell and Churchman gave their opponents few chances to try for goals and kept the ball away from the Virginia basket. Captain Sumner and Terry scored all the points for the collegians, each man getting two field goals, the former also scoring twice on foul tosses. Rixey gave a great exhibition of foul goal shooting, caging the ball five times out of six tries.

Wash. and Lee Ready.

Virginia's work during the next two weeks will be watched with great interest because of the crucial battle with Washington and Lee. The Lexington collegians are reported to have the best team in years and are bending every effort to prepare for the game on February 8. Their team is composed largely of veterans and has not suffered a defeat this year, winning most of the contests by overwhelming scores.

Washington and Lee will send nearly six hundred students to witness the game. Special trains will be run from Lexington. It is reported that a large majority of the students will be expected to see a decisive

VIRGINIA QUINT DEFEATS TRINITY

Contest Is Fastest and Roughest
Ever Played on Home
Team's Floor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Durham, N. C., February 12.—In the fastest, fiercest and by far the roughest game of basketball ever seen on the home floor, Trinity was to-night defeated by the University of Virginia by the close score of 15 to 24. From the first the Methodists surprised their visitors by their phenomenal shots at the goal, and at the end of the first half the score stood 12 to 6 in favor of the home team, but by reinforcing their team with their two great forwards, Kearnes and Gill, who were put in to fill the places of Oliver and Churchman, the Virginians began their drubbing, and succeeded in scoring 13 points to Trinity's 5, making the final score 24 to 15.

MANAGER DULANEY PRESENTS
SCHEDULE.

A. Christian and Meredith; the Blues, Kearns, Jones, Campbell, Rixey and Gill. They were evenly matched and the game was hard fought. Goal shooting and team work, however, were rare, there being a strong tendency for every man to play the whole game. The finer points are worth more than weight, and the material must be developed along this line, if a list of victories is to follow through the schedule. Spratt, as usual, played well at forward, and it looks as if he will hold his old position.

Accurate Shooting Needed.

Goal shooters seem to be much in demand, the men now on hand being rather more heavy than quick and accurate in putting the ball through the net. Ex-Captain Ashby has not yet put in his appearance, but his presence will remedy this difficulty, greatly.

To sum up the prospects, it seems certain that the basketball team will this year be heavy and well proportioned. Whether it will develop skill and knowledge of the game is a question that will be answered later.

Schedule Nearly Completed.

Manager Dulaney has nearly completed the schedule, and though some of the arrangements are still uncertain, owing to the difficulty of securing proper guarantees, he has done exceedingly well, and the Northern trip, to be taken after the home games have been played, is the best possible, considering the jumps to be made from day to day.

Penn. Game Arranged.

The star-at-home attraction will be University of Pennsylvania, which comes here on January 6th. Another good game will be Emory and Henry, which is strong in basketball, for a small college.

Old students will remember the overwhelming size of Washington and Lee last year, and will look forward to this game here on January 30th.

On February 4th, Georgetown will battle with the varsity and they will put up their customary scrap.

The following is the schedule as arranged by Manager Dulaney, and while it is still uncertain and subject to possible changes, it will give a good idea of what can be looked forward to in this branch of winter sports:

VIRGINIA WINS FROM
HAMPDEN-SIDNEY 35-4

Orange and Blue Quint Leads All
the Way and Holds College Team Safe—Rixey Plays in Great Form.

Virginia will play Randolph-Macon College tonight in Fayerweather Gymnasium. Game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

In a fast and interesting game of basketball in Fayerweather Gymnasium last night, Virginia downed Hampden-Sidney by the score of 35 to 4. During the first half, the Orange and Blue quint swept their opponents off their feet and scored almost at will, rolling up 27 points to Hampden-Sidney's one. Rixey, at center, showed up especially well and proved a tower of strength both on offense and defense. He did great work in breaking up the collegians' plays and in addition scored twelve points on goals from the field, many of his shots being difficult ones. Hampden-Sidney appeared to be lamentably weak in passing and goal shooting and was unable to get the ball within striking distance of the Virginia goal. Their only score during this period came on a goal from foul by McClung.

The work of the Orange and Blue guards, Campbell and Churchman, was of the highest order and these men give promise of being the best pair of defensive players developed at the University in years. Hampden-Sidney was unable to break down their defense and get within shooting distance of the Virginia basket, play being almost entirely in the collegians' territory. In addition to his defensive work, Campbell scored two field goals.

Soon after the opening of the second half Pop Lannigan withdrew the regulars and put the second team on the floor. The substitutes failed to hold the pace set by the Varsity and scored only two goals, Hampden-Sidney making their remaining points on a field goal and goal from foul by Corke.

Gill and Stickley started at the forwards and both men played their positions well, Gill scoring nine points and Stickley six. For the visitors Corke and McClung played well.

FAST QUINTET IS CERTAIN

Many New Men Strengthen Last Year's Squad, Which Remains Intact—Lively Scrimmages.

With football now but a memory, the student body will naturally look to the indoor sports as a source of recreation for the coming winter months. Each year has seen the University teams in basketball growing stronger and stronger until the G. A. A. has decided that this sport is to be recognized as an important factor in the upholding of Virginia's excellent record for athletic as well as scholastic ability.

Fast Quint Promised.

For the past few weeks Coach Lannigan has been devoting his spare time to the preliminary work of the basketball men and he predicts that the team of this year will be a crack one.

Kearns, who did some stellar work last season at guard, is out again and he is doing even better than last year. Andy Christian is showing up well and the new men attracting attention are Gill from Alabama, and Betz, who was the star of the Hampton Y. M. C. A.

Monday's Practice.

The basketball practice Monday afternoon brought out only fifteen candidates although Trainer Lannigan has the names of thirty-six more who intend to try for the team. This is probably the result of the Thanksgiving holiday, and a larger number will be on the floor within the next few days.

Football men as a rule have not yet put in their appearance and the addition from this source will make the squad look better. Among these men are Cecil of last year's team, Dulane, and Driver. The last named comes with quite a reputation, having captained the William and Mary quint last year. During the football season he showed enough headwork and speed to assure his being an asset to the basketball team. Cecil last year played an excellent game and was the mainstay of the team. His additional experience will make him very valuable.

Two teams of Varsity calibre were lined up against each other for a twenty-minute term Monday. The Whites were Spratt, Keating, Towles,

Brookland Basket-ball Five Captures Fast Game,

HORAN AND GILL STAR

Orange and Blue Quint Lose in the Last Few Minutes of Play.

Ten points separated the Catholic University and Virginia basket-ball teams last night when the whistle blew announcing the close of the best basket-ball game that has been witnessed on any of the local courts this season—for a matter of fact the best that has been seen for many moons. Packed to the extreme by frenzied rosters, a more fitful scene could not have been found than that presented at the National Guard gymnasium last night. While not the cleanest played game that may have been witnessed on local courts, the teams made up for this respect in the matter of speed and excitement. Spectacular shots for the basket from almost impossible positions and the closeness of the game kept the spectators on their feet throughout the contest. The final score was 41 to 31 and only in the last few minutes of play did the Red and Black team forge to the front with a lead of over three points. Nip and tuck went the contest, with first one team in the lead and then the other. Virginia at the end of the first half held the lead by one point, the score being 17 to 16.

Speed won for the Brooklanders. Although "Pop" Lanigan infected fresh men in the game, the Virginia team could not stop the boys from Brookland. Horan and Gill were the men in the limelight, the former caging the ball eight times from the floor, while the latter led his team in the scoring department of the game, making nine goals from the floor and sending the ball through the basket five times from the foul line.

Gill, of Virginia, was the first to start the ball rolling, caging one from the side lines soon after the start of the game. Not until the Orange and Blue team had a total of seven points did the Brooklanders register a point, McDouell scoring on an easy shot. After that it was a matter of time as to which would be leading when the first half closed. The second half proved the Waterloo for the Virginia quint, Catholic University going after the boys wearing the Orange and Blue with hammer and tongs, overtaking and passing them in the last few minutes of play. Teamwork played a brilliant part in last night's contest, both quints showing that they were very adept in the passing game. Line-up and summary:

CAROLINA LOSES TO VIRGINIA TEAM 30-19

Game Is Closely Fought during
First Half but Quint Runs Away from Tarheels in the Final Period.

University of North Carolina was unable to stand before the Orange and Blue basketball team Monday night and lost to Captain Churchman's men by the score of 30 to 19. The game was played in Raleigh, N. C., and was witnessed by a crowd of over eight hundred people, including many students from Chapel Hill. Virginia went into the game minus the services of Campbell, whose work has been a feature of all the season's contests, his place at right guard being taken by Lyman. Pop Lannigan was also unable to accompany the team, as he could not leave the track squad, the absence of player and coach making Virginia's victory all the more notable.

Carolina made a fine showing during the first half, this period being closely contested. Carolina scored first on a foul goal but the Orange and Blue soon topped this lead and held it nearly to the end of the first period, when a brief rally put the teams on even terms. The first half ended 13 to 13. Virginia came back strong after the intermission and goals by Rixey, Gill and Stickley put the quint far in the lead, Gill aiding materially with six foul tosses.

The team work of the Orange and Blue was greatly superior to that of the Carolinians and only the good work of the Tarheel guards prevented a much larger score. Tillett, last year's football captain, played well at forward, as did Long. Toward the end of the game Redmond was disqualified for slugging Gill, his place at right guard being taken by Homewood.

Virginia will not play another game on the home floor until Feb. 21, when the team meets Franklin and Marshall College. St. John's will end the season here on Feb. 28. The men will leave Friday on the northern trip, playing Catholic University, Georgetown, George Washington and St. John's. Three of the games will be played in Washington and the fourth at Annapolis.

Indoor track has taken its usual prominent place in Virginia's winter athletics. So far Virginia has captured two meets and has one more to try for. In the George Washington meet at Washington, D. C., Virginia led by a large margin and at Richmond she won out by one point. The third meet is with Georgetown University at Washington. Spring baseball practice has started under the captaincy of T. C. Carter. The outlook for a winning team is most promising. McMorries is shelving a place for himself in the outfield by his fast work. The Washington nationals arrive here March 3d for a workout. They will play the local team a series of games.

So far the organizations that have announced their spring games have honored the following brothers: T. I. L. K. A. (Tilka), T. C. Carter and E. McMorries; J. K. Society, E. McMorries, R. J. Gill and H. R. Miller, Jr.; Phi Delta Phi, J. T. Sloan, H. R. Miller, Jr., and H. G. Cochran; Skull and Keys, Bernard Meredith.

VA. TAKES HARD GAME FROM CADETS, 39-15

Great Offensive Work of Virginia
Forwards Features Game.
Cadets' Close Guarding
Keeps Down Score.

Virginia Military Institute went down before the fast going Orange and Blue quint Thursday night in Fayetteweather Gym. by the score of 39 to 15, this making six straight victories for the Virginia team. The Cadets presented a fast, well-balanced quint, and fought desperately to overcome the early lead taken by the Virginians, but were held to five field goals and five goals from foul, while Captain Churchman's men scored twenty points in the first half and nineteen in the second.

The work of Stickley at left forward was distinctly the feature of the game. The speedy little forward played all over the floor and did great work on defense. In addition he proved to be Virginia's most consistent scorer and caged the ball for seven field goals in addition to a free toss. Stickley was ably assisted by Gill and Rixey, the former scoring four goals from the field and twice on foul shots, while Rixey added eight points. Lyman relieved Gill toward the end of the game and made a fine showing, being strong on defense and scoring three times from the field.

V. M. I. appeared to be especially strong on defense and by close guarding gave few opportunities to score. They advanced the ball well but were unable to break through the almost impenetrable defense put up by Campbell and Churchman. Leech, at left forward, played the best game for the Cadets, guarding well and scoring two goals. Stroud, who relieved Hardaway at center, also played well and added to V. M. I.'s score with two pretty shots, while Ewing featured with five successive foul goals.

UP-STATE ELEVEN
IN FINE CONDITION

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]
Westminster, Md., Sept. 16.—With the arrival of the squad from the training camp at Betterson Monday hard practice will begin on college field in preparation for the opening of the Western Maryland football season Saturday. Besides the members of the training squad a large number of candidates are expected to report in Westminster on that date, and the fight for positions on the team will begin in earnest.

The following men will arrive from Bettemton: Captian Sprague, Twigg, Leary, Graefe, Taylor, Bowers, Triester, Husung, Adkins, Dukes, Blakeney, Blingsden and Murray.

All these men are in first-class condition, and the daily bath in the Chesapeake has hardened them into almost mid-season form. Several graduates were on hand to assist in the coaching, among whom were Gill, captain of the 1909 team, and Wiley, also of 1909.

During the preliminary practice special attention was paid to the development of the forward pass, in which Western Maryland excelled last season. The official rule book attributed to the Westminster team the best development of this play in the South, and no pains are to be spared to bring this season's eleven up to the standard of that of last year in that respect.

The incoming football material has thus far been very encouraging. In Taylor, a new man from Rising Sun, the Western Maryland coaches believe they have a half-back of considerable promise. Taylor has had several years' experience in preparatory school and handles himself both on offense and defense in a manner which seems to prove him a fitting running mate for Birdsall, the star halfback of the past three years.

The latter was unable to get to the camp, but is expected to report in Westminster Monday. Other promising candidates are Blakeney, a substitute on last year's eleven; Howard, a tackle from Salisbury, and Blair, another line man from Hagerstown High School.

It was expected that Captain Sprague might have to play quarterback during the season, but the fine showing made by Bowers, last year's sub-quarter at the camp, renders it likely that he may be intrusted with the position, leaving Sprague free for his old position at end.

The season starts this year with a practice game at home with Frederick Y. M. C. A. All the new plays will be tried out in this game and all logical candidates will be given a thorough workout. On the following Saturday the season begins in earnest with the annual Lehigh game, and from then on the hardest schedule ever attempted by one of the smaller Maryland colleges will be played through. Dickinson, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and Ursinus follow each other in quick succession, and after a number of less important games the season will close with the annual contest with Johns Hopkins University Thanksgiving Day.

This game will be played at Homewood, and it is expected to bring out the large crowd which has always attended a game between the institutions.

When Campbell battled the Blue to victory, and retiring across the field, he was hit again and scored while on the run. Kelly started in for the second half and was simply a revelation to his many friends. The big fellow brought the ball up the floor and passed to one of his teammates. Campbell, who thought he had fear shots before Virginia's stop him. Foley made a magnificent looking shot and the one to go to. The work of Foley and Campbell decided the game. It was wonderful if it had not been for their great Georgetown would never have been so close. Campbell was pressed by Granger and Blue in the last half. Campbell was a real making field goals in quick succession. Virginia's Campbell, who scored two goals just as the timer's whistle rang, was the first to score the game. The Virginia five showed its spirit in the last half. Campbell and Giff appeared to be ill in after their bruising work against Catholic University.

GALLAUDET FIVE BADLY BEATEN

Kendall Green Team No Match for Charlotteville Collegians,
Who Win by 40 to 12.

Special to The Washington Post.

Charlotteville, Va., Jan. 11.—Outplaying their opponents at every stage of the game, Virginia's basketball five avenged Gallaudet in the Payerweather gymnasium tonight, before a big crowd, by the lopsided score of 40 to 12.

Gallaudet came to town with the advantage of having played several games, and the locals were taking part in their first collegiate match game of the season. Virginia, however, showed marked superiority right off the reel, and it was not long before their lullies began to come with remarkable frequency.

Gallaudet resorted to defensive style of play, and showed some proficiency in blocking the ball, but their attack was rather weak. Short, snappy passing was abated them to gain possession of the ball at intervals, but this did not avail anything on account of the alert guarding of Churchman and Campbell.

Virginia Players Pesa Well.

The long passing executed by the Orange and Blue players was a noteworthy feature, and the ability of the giants, Hixey and Malden, to intercept the ball when passed by the visitors impaired the few chances which they had to get the sphere sufficiently near the baskets to register an occasional two points. Malden, the foot-ball star, missed several long shots, but proved himself an adept in tossing free throws at all times. He has clinched his place on the team, and bids fair to be one of the most powerful players seen here for some time. He was succeeded in the second period by Gill, who tossed a total of five goals, tying the teammate, Walton Hixey. Campbell gave a pretty exhibition of dribbling.

The failure of the Gallaudet players to register a single field goal in the first period was due to the fact that they seemed to prefer to take long shots at the basket. In the second half, Battiste was substituted for Driggs. The Indian, though shooting a difficult goal near the middle of the period. He finally gave way to Foltz. Rasmussen was loudly applauded when he tossed a goal from near mid-floor. He and Durlan were a shade the better players, though Clasen led in the number of goals tossed. After Virginia had run up over 20 points Coach Lammigan ran in a bunch of second-string men, who did well, especially Todd and Christian.

Heaven halves the spectators enjoyed a wrestling match, catch-as-catch-can, between Diebolt, a track star, and Jones, a Washington boy. The bout resulted in a draw, each securing a fall. Line-ups:

G. J. SHOULD WIN HOPKINS' MEET

Chances Favor Blue and Gray to Carry Off Point Trophy in

Common Tangled de new's
Let me, en passant, refer once more to the accidental use of chairs and benches instead of sitting on one's legs.
The Japanese had been accustomed to benches in roadside tea houses and other out-of-door places, but the word "chairs" was applied only to the sitting a la française, while the pseudo-sitting was designated "koshi wo hakuru," or to suit one's waist.

Georgetown stands an excellent chance to win the point trophy in the Johns Hopkins University-sixth Regiment track meet tonight. In fact, if a prediction were to be made, it might be safely ventured that the Blue and Gray has a better opportunity to finish first than any other institution, and if it does not do so it will be the occasion of much surprise.

There is only one factor that may stand in the way of Georgetown winning, and that is that the men on whom it depends for the greater number of its points may be handicapped so heavily that it will be impossible for them to finish in front. If only fair handicaps are given the men who are not in a class with the Blue and Gray stars, there is hardly any doubt that several of them will win in their events.

In the 440-yard dash Georgetown has an advantage that is more capable than any that has ever been placed in any one event by a southern school. The Blue and Gray entrants in the race are such capable performers that it would not be at all surprising to have them finish one, two, three.

Besides Horter, Terwilliger and Stebbins, there are Mahoney, Davis, Young and Chapman, an imposing array of talent in one event, to say the least. Horter, Terwilliger or Stebbins will be most liable to win, and it is safe to predict that one of that trio will get away with the victory.

Johnny Gallagher, if he is not handicapped too heavily, will probably win in the half, but will have to go extraordinarily well to come first in the mile, as he will start from scratch with one of the fastest mile runners in the world, one who has a record of 4 minutes 21 seconds on an indoor track.

Killer should, at least, get places in the hurdle events, and he may figure in the dashes also. The Blue and Gray should also score heavily in the field events, as Weidmann and Low are both very capable performers in the pole vault and high jump, respectively.

Georgetown will not run the first relay team in the race against Richmond College. The men who compose the first four will be sent in to run the open races in order that the points may be secured toward the winning of the point trophy. The second quartet will be lifted against the four from Richmond College, it being certain that Mahoney, Davis, Van Dyne and Chapman will be used.

If the Georgetown men live anywhere near up to expectations it is almost a certainty that the Blue and Gray institution will get away with the greater trophy.

It is a fact that the Blue and Gray institution has a reputation for being a "strong" team, and it is no wonder that it is so. The Blue and Gray has a reputation for being a "strong" team, and it is no wonder that it is so. The Blue and Gray has a reputation for being a "strong" team, and it is no wonder that it is so.

Campbell, Georgetown, center.

In a recent issue of the Washington Star, the above quintet is presented as the best in the South-Atlantic division. Virginia is given two men, Gill at right forward and Campbell at right guard. The remainder of the team is selected from Georgetown and Catholic University. In speaking of the Washington team Lee states, "The Star critic declared that, although Miles is one of the best centers in the South, his effectiveness is materially decreased by his rough work, this costing his team many penalties. Bear, the big Washington and Lee forward, was also said to rank among the best but was considered too slow to be given a place.

Virginia's Record.

In spite of the fact that the most important game played by the Orange and Blue team, that with Washington and Lee, was lost, the season can justly be considered a most successful one. A total of fifteen games were played, eleven being returned as victories and four defeats. All four contests lost were played on foreign floors, the defeats by St. Johns and Georgetown occurring after the men were worn out from hard battles on previous days.

While Washington and Lee is clearly entitled to the championship of the South-Atlantic Division, Virginia deserves next ranking together with Georgetown, Catholic and St. Johns. The Blue and Gray team was beaten in the game played at the University, and it is extremely probable that the other teams would have shared likewise had return games been scheduled here.

Individual Records.

During the season, Virginia easily doubled the scores made by her opponents, scoring 568 points to 284 for her adversaries. Gill led the team in field goals, having 78 to his credit. He was closely followed by Stickley with 68. Rixey was third with 48, while Lyman topped Campbell 17 to 15. Captain Churchman scored six times. The greatest number of baskets tossed in one game during the season was made by Stickley, the speedy little forward scoring twelve times. Gill nearly equalled this record in the game with A. and M., when he shot eleven baskets. Gill also takes third place with nine goals against Catholic University.

The floor record for Fayerweather Gymnasium was placed several notches higher, in a game between Aggie and break-

VIRGINIA QUINT WINS BY 39-14

Easily Beats George Washington,
Taking Early Lead and Never
Being in Danger.

Virginia's basketball team had little trouble in defeating George Washington last night at the Arcade rink by the score of 39 to 14, in a contest that was none too fast or interesting.

Going into the lead almost at the first jump off, Virginia kept gradually drawing away to the finish, and was never forced to extend itself to gain the first victory. It has scored on a trip that included four games.

In all departments of the sport the visitors excelled, and until enjoying a safe margin of points they showed an aggressiveness that would have made their total much larger had they felt disposed to keep up the pace.

Virginia's Passing Is Good.

Virginia's passing in particular was brilliant. Lyman and Churchman working the ball down the floor, then shooting it to stickley, who in turn would feed to Gill for the basket toss. This gave the latter many opportunities to score, and he made good on most of his tries, leading in the scoring for the night.

Now and then the George Washington players would take a spurt, or Virginia would let up, as the case might be, but at no time did they show anything that could be called out of the ordinary.

Virginia placed six points to its credit before the locals got under way. Then Kuen made the only goal from the floor that was registered by the Hatchettes. The first half ended, 24 to 6, all of the other points of the Capitals coming from free losses, the invaders also profiting in this line.

Both Teams Offend Often.

The second half was practically a repetition of the opening period, although somewhat slower, if anything. Virginia had a safe lead to work on, and the home basketekers played like they knew they didn't have a chance.

There was a wholesale infringement of the rules, the Hatchettes offending more frequently than the Virginians. Gill, of the visitors, tossed twelve out of fifteen attempts from the foul line, while Noonan got a half dozen out of about double this number of chances.

The shooting by Gill, the defensive work of Lyman, and the clever handling of the ball by the entire Virginia outfit were the pleasing features of the fray. Noonan and Regis did the bulk of work for the natives. The line-up:

Virginia. Postliss. Geo. Wash.

had a good team and had she not played under intercollegiate rules, to which she was unaccustomed, the score might have been different. Virginia was weak on easy baskets and missed any number of easy shots. Both sides played a hard, rough game. Rixey suffered an injury to his nose. The treatment at the hands of Wake Forest was the best that any one could wish, as everything was done that could make the stay enjoyable. A reception was given after the game, at which the fair ones of the Carolina college were present in numbers.

From Wake Forest the team went to Durham, and beat Trinity, the strongest quint in Carolina, by the score of 24 to 18. The collegians surprised Virginia by their accuracy in shooting goals, and at the end of the first half the score was 13 to 6 in favor of Trinity. This first half was furiously fought and at the end both sides were pretty well exhausted. Kearns was slightly hurt in the Wake Forest game and did not start against Trinity, but, in the second half, he and Gill were substituted for Churchman and Driver. Good dribbling by Jones, Cecil, and Bertram turned the tide in the second half, and in the last ten minutes, Virginia took a comfortable lead that was steadily maintained. Driver was injured in this half, and the team left for Chapel Hill in a rather crippled condition.

"Pop" Lannigan said yesterday that he was agreeably surprised at the showing of the Virginia team in spite of difficulties, and that if the men were not badly hurt, they would win the next two games with ease. After the Carolina game last night, Guilford is on the schedule tonight, after which the last basketball trip is over.

The line-up was:

Virginia—Bertram, center; Neff, left guard; Cecil, right guard; Rixey, left forward; Kearns, right forward.

Referee, Harry May. Timekeepers, Carter and Turner. Scorers, Wellford, of Virginia, and Combs.

In the Trinity game, the line-up was as follows:

The Browning and Irving Literary societies gave two plays as is usual on Thanksgiving evening. Both plays were much appreciated since they were interesting and were so well rendered. The synopses are as follows:

GRINGOIRE

Part I

Synopsis:—Louis XI, King of France, is visiting his old friend, Simon, a wealthy draper of Paris. The King informs Simon of his intention to make him ambassador, but the latter replies that his daughter must be married before he can accept the post. They are discussing the chances of the marriage when a voice in the street calls their attention to Gringoire, a poor but gifted poet of the people.

Gringoire is brought before the King, and not knowing in whose presence he stands, recites a treasonable ballad entitled "The Rhyme of the Rope." He is cunningly led into this by Oliver, the King's lieutenant, who hates Gringoire. The King at first forgives Gringoire but later becomes angry, on hearing of treason in his army, and commands Gringoire to win the love of Jeanette, Simon's daughter, in an hour on pain of death. Gringoire succeeds in doing this and is forgiven by the King, who then gains the consent of Simon to the marriage of his daughter and the poet.

Georgetown basketball team takes on Virginia tonight at the Arcade in the second engagement between these five this year. At their last meeting at Charlottesville, Georgetown dropped the Virginia, lost last night to Catholic University, score, 31 to 41, and is today linewoman for tonight's set-to. Coach Calkins will hold a light practice in Ryan gymnasium just before he takes his proteges to the Arcade. The Hilltoppers have been undergoing constant practice since last Wednesday, when they made so mediocre a showing against Maryland Agriculture College. As a result of having defeated Virginia, one of the most formidable basketball teams in the South, Catholic University is today being touted as the fastest quint ever developed at the Brookland institution, and one of the speediest five that has ever been played on any Washington floor. Certainly, no game played here this season has approached last night's conflict in cleanliness and so much display of basketball talent.

Best He Has Seen.

After the game "Pop" Lannigan, coach of the Old Dominion quint, said: "I have ever seen in this section. I figure that my team is as good as has ever run to those Brooklanders. The best I hope to do now is to win from Georgetown tonight."

Rarely in the largest colleges of New England has such superior teamwork asserted itself as when the Brooklanders battled against Virginia at the Army gymnasium last night. But, as seen, and both players who figured in this instance apologized profusely.

Late in the first quarter, Virginia advanced ahead of their opponents, but this C. U. went ahead at about the middle of the second half and held that lead throughout the remainder of the contest.

Right-forward Gill, of Virginia, was instrumental in taking his quint to the top in the early part of the game. Gill played many difficult passes, and showed the way into the basket all the time. At the expense of the initial work of Virginia's offense, the attention of the crowd was attracted to the play of the quint.

DEATH ANNIVERSARY OF SYSTEMS' VICTIM

First Death Under New York
Police Graft Rule Died Eleven
Years Ago Today.

The first victim of the police "system" which has grown up in New York city was James McAuliffe, a plasterer, who brought death on himself by prosecuting a police grafter. Eleven years ago today McAuliffe, who was sober and industrious, left his home to visit a sister the following morning he was found in a hospital soon afterward. His slaying accused almost as much excitement as the murder of Herman Rosenthal by the agents of Becker.

A short time before his death, McAuliffe had been the principal witness against E. C. Glennon, a leader in the police graft system, and his testimony resulted in Glennon's conviction. Thus he was marked.

The police records show that McAuliffe had been arrested on a charge of drunkenness on February 12, 1902. Prisoners near the cell into which McAuliffe had been thrown testified to having heard sound of blows, groans, and cries. Newspaper investigators declared the unfortunate had been beaten almost to death in his cell and thrown into the street to die. The assassins of McAuliffe never were punished.

Colored Schools Honor Memory of Douglas

Exercises commemorating the life of Frederick Douglas were held in the colored schools of the District yesterday, this being his birthday.

At the Summer and Briggs schools Mrs. Caroline W. Harris, of the office of Education, made ten-minute addresses in several rooms. The general exercises at the Summer School were in charge of Miss Corinne Martin. Mrs. Harris told of the life of Douglas and drew the example of self-dependence from his successful struggle. She told her auditors of his old home in Anacostia and advised a pilgrimage to it.

"Bugs" Baer Drops in to See George Washington Quint Defeated

G. W. QUINT FALLS BEFORE VIRGINIA

Charlottesville Five Takes the Fourth Game of Its Disastrous Trip North.

After three successive defeats on its present trip, Virginia's basketball quint won last night from George Washington, 39 to 14. The Hatchettes really were the weakest contenders which the Charlottesvilleans have met for some weeks. Had Virginia shown the same consistency and aggressiveness which characterized her play last night, then it seems only probable that her present invasion would have been more successful.

Virginia, off to a quick start, assumed the lead and never relinquished it, making the difference in scores greater as the play progressed. In every partment of the game, Virginia demonstrated that she was better than her opponent. Only toward the end of the contests when victory had been assured, did the visitors show any signs of coming up. Of all the good work done by the Orange and Blue, the passing stood out as the most brilliant part of her play.

There were other bright features about the game. Lomax, Churchman, Gill, and Stickley formed a combination with such perfect team work as completely baffled the Georgia Varsity defense. Gill was particularly accurate in shooting baskets both from the floor and from the foul line. He raged twelve out of the possible fifteen throws offered.

Orange and Blue Forward Plays a Sensational Game at Charlottesville, Va.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 31.—In a game which dragged in favor of the team and the other until the last few minutes of play, Virginia defeated Georgetown here to-night, 22 to 16. Only the clever goal tossing of Gill, of Virginia, saved the Orange and Blue from defeat. The teams struggled on practically even terms, the whole way, following the ball closely, and fighting every inch of the ground, while the teams at no time showed bad feeling. Referee Fred Rice called no less than fourteen personal fouls. Virginia started off to make a walkaway rolling up four field goals to two free tosses by Waldron in the first few minutes. Clever passing by the Georgetown five coupled with a couple of long shots by Campbell, the Georgetown center, soon placed the Blue and Gray in the lead, 19 to 3. A free toss by Gill and two pretty baskets by the same player toward the end of the half, put Virginia in the lead, 14 to 12.

The second half opened with a rush Waldron caging a free shot for Georgetown, Gill a goal for Virginia, and Campbell bringing the Blue and Gray to within one point of the Virginians' 16-15 right at the reel. At this point the two quintets struggled for fully eight minutes without a score on either side. Gill now became the whole show by tossing two difficult shots in succession, thus putting the game decidedly in his team's favor. As a last resort Coach Colliflower sent Marum and Kelly into the battle, but the game was soon finished—22-16 in favor of Virginia.

Campbell, Georgetown, center.
Wetzel, Georgetown, left guard.

In a recent issue of the Washington Star, the above quint is presented as the best in the South-Atlantic division. Virginia is given two men, Gill at right forward and Campbell at right guard. The remainder of the team is selected from Georgetown and Catholic University. In speaking of the Washington and Lee team, the Star critic declared that, although Miles is one of the best centers in the South, his effectiveness is materially decreased by his rough work, this costing his team many penalties. Bear, the big Washington and Lee forward, was also said to rank among the best but was considered too slow to be given a place.

Virginia's Record.

In spite of the fact that the most important game played by the Orange and Blue team, that with Washington and Lee, was lost, the season can justly be considered a most successful one. A total of fifteen games were played, eleven being returned as victories and four defeats. All four contests lost were played on foreign floors, the defeats by St. Johns and Georgetown occurring after the men were worn out from hard battles on previous days.

HAYES STARTS TO GRILL MRS. SNYDER

Says She Took Dinner With Doctor Kieffer At Towson On Two Occasions.

REFERS TO DEERING GIRLS

Asserts Husband Left Her With Doctor While He Went To Play Tennis At Carroll Park.

The direct examination of Mrs. Ada L. Snyder was concluded and her cross-examination began today in the trial before Judge Dobler, in the Circuit Court, of the cross suits of her and her husband, the Rev. J. Edward Snyder, each of whom asks an absolute divorce on statutory grounds.

The conclusion of her direct testimony was rambling, being directed to supplying omissions in what she had said during the four days she has been on the witness stand.

She said that her husband often left her and Dr. Kieffer at the parsonage while he went home with the Deering girls. She denied that she ever said that she did not care for public opinion. What had been misconstrued into that statement, she said, was her remark that many couples who were unhappily married continued to live together because of public opinion.

That the Rev. Mr. Snyder was very untruthful was another declaration of his wife. She believed little that came out of his mouth, she said.

Had Dinner At Towson.

Mrs. Snyder admitted that she took dinner twice with Dr. Kieffer in the public dining room of the Sandeys House at Towson. Her husband knew it both times, she said. Once her husband accompanied her and the Doctor as far as Carroll Park, where he stopped to play tennis with the Deering girls.

Mrs. Snyder also said that she had even her husband cry and sob as he did in court. They were the occasions when he made confessions and went on his knees in asking Dr. Kieffer to stay away from their home at Elkton City. The cross-examination by Attorney Thomas G. Hayes then began.

Asked Why She Didn't Confess.

Mr. Hayes began by asking Mrs. Snyder about her early married life, and dwelt upon the revival at the church of Mr. Snyder's adopted father, when she said her husband made a confession of misconduct before his marriage. Asked why she did not make a confession also, she said she had nothing to confess. Excitement, she said, always attended the meetings at the church of her husband's adopted father.

While she was sick, she also said, her husband, when they were out driving, picked out the roughest places in the roads to drive over.

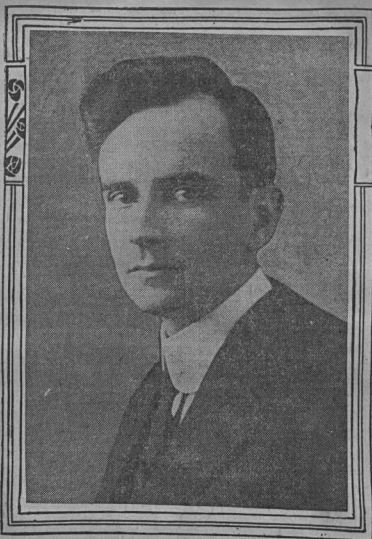

Just before the midday recess Mrs. Hayes began questioning Mrs. Snyder about her statements with reference to the Koons, of Good Intent, near Union Ridge.

SNYDER TO END TESTIMONY

Minister's Side Of Divorce Hearing May Close Today.

It is expected that the testimony for the Rev. J. Edward Snyder will be concluded today in the trial of the suits of him and his wife, Mrs. Ada L. Snyder, each of whom asks an absolute divorce on statutory grounds. After having been suspended since Friday, the trial will be resumed this morning before Judge Dobler in the Circuit Court in chambers. Mrs. Lillian M. Koons is the wife of her husband, of Union Bridge, and Charles Mayo, a private detective, it is understood, will be called for Mr. Snyder today. Mrs. Koons was named by Mrs. Snyder as co-respondent in her bill for divorce. Mr. Snyder denied in his testimony that he had been ordered out of the Koons home by Mr. Koons at the point of a pistol.

ONE SAW WIFE KISS DR. KIEFFER

Mrs. Snyder Told Her, She Said, That Minister Approved Of Her Relations With The Physician.

Three good-looking young women who were members of his church and Sunday-school while he was stationed at Morrell Park yesterday testified for the Rev. J. Edward Snyder in the cross-suits brought by him and his wife in the Circuit Court, each asking an absolute divorce on statutory grounds.

The young women were called as witnesses in the afternoon, after Mr. Snyder had left the witness stand. They were among the favored ones who were admitted to the trial, which is being held by Judge Dobler in chambers. They heard the statements made by the clergyman as to his wife's relations with Dr. George S. M. Kieffer.

They were Miss Anna May Carter, Miss Grace Deering and Miss Helen Diefendaf, and were called in the order named by Thomas G. Hayes and Robert J. Gill, attorneys for Mr. Snyder.

Saw Their Faces Come Together.

Miss Carter said she was sitting on the porch in front of the house of Mr. Snyder at Morrell Park one evening in the spring of 1913 watching girls dancing on the sidewalk, when her attention was attracted by the shadows of two persons on the curtain of the front door. The door was half glass. When the persons came out the witness recognized them as Dr. Kieffer and Mrs. Snyder. The witness said she saw the doctor slip his arm around Mrs. Snyder, she put her head on his shoulder and their faces came together.

A vigorous cross-examination by Attorney James J. Lindsey, of counsel for Mrs. Snyder, did not shake the witness' story.

Letters From Dr. Kieffer.

Miss Deering testified that she went to Atlantic City with Mrs. Snyder for a few days in July, 1913. She saw Mrs. Kieffer, and also saw Mrs. Snyder receive letters, which she said were from the Doctor.

SNYDER TRIAL TOMORROW

Minister And Wife Accuse Each Other In Divorce Suit.

Much interest has been aroused in church and social circles in this city and Baltimore county by the cross-divorce suits of the Rev. J. Edward Snyder and his wife, Mrs. Ada L. Snyder, which are assigned for trial tomorrow in the Circuit Court. Mr. Snyder is a Methodist Episcopal clergyman and was formerly stationed at Elkton City, after having a charge in this city. He has no charge now.

The original bill in the case was filed by Mr. Snyder for an absolute divorce on statutory grounds. His suit was brought through Robert J. Gill, attorney, but former Mayor Thomas G. Hayes later entered his appearance for him also.

In her answer Mrs. Snyder denied her husband's charges, and made the same charges against him, but giving the names. Mrs. Snyder charges her husband with attempting to force her to sign an admission of wrongdoing of which she was innocent. Former Senator James J. Lindsey is her attorney.

SAW HIS OTHER MAN

Witnesses Testify As to Her Appearances in Dr. Kieffer's Company.

DECLARES SHE WAS NOT JEALOUS OF HUSBAND

Story of Party Where She Appeared in Costume As Martha Washington.

That Mrs. Ada Snyder, wife of the Morrell Park and Elliott City clergyman, was not jealous of her husband, and that she had asserted that she went around with Dr. George M. Kieffer, of Morrell Park, was stated upon the stand today by Mrs. Jacob M. Hart, of Morrell Park, in the Circuit Court before Judge Dobler, where the hearing of the cross-bills for divorce is being held in star-chamber sessions by order of the court.

Witnesses were put upon the stand today to testify how many times they saw Mrs. Snyder in company with Dr. Kieffer, either walking or riding. Mrs. Hart told in an interesting way of how she and another woman watched Mrs. Snyder at a Morrell Park kaffeklatch and discussed her rumored association with Dr. Kieffer. She said they saw then go out of the church together that night. On this occasion Mrs. Snyder was dressed to represent Martha Washington, having on a red cape and other effects which Mrs. Hart noticed carefully on account of her attention being specially drawn to Mrs. Snyder because of the rumors that had been circulated.

Playing Tennis.

Mrs. Snyder had stated to Mrs. Hart that she was not jealous of Rev. Mr. Snyder and that she had heard him to play tennis with the Dearing girls. Mrs. Hart said she had seen Mrs. Snyder and Dr. Kieffer together on about 10 or 11 o'clock M. Snyder had gotten off a car at Morrell Park at which point Dr. Kieffer was waiting for her. She had never heard anything definite, however, about Dr. Kieffer in relation with Mrs. Snyder, and she had told Rev. Mr. Snyder that she did not know anything against Mrs. Snyder, as Mrs. Hart did not believe in carrying such tales to a husband.

Dr. William N. Cassaway said he had seen Dr. Kieffer's automobile standing in front of the Snyder home 30 or 40 times. William B. Gamble, of Elliott City, said he had seen the car in front of the Snyder's about five times. George W. Lowman, of Mount Vernon, said he had seen Mrs. Snyder and Dr. Kieffer on a North avenue car in the summer of 1914, and William T. Harrison, one of the trustees of Rev. Snyder's church, said he had seen their riding in a buggy.

Rev. Joseph C. Sinclair, a young man with a sanctified voice who lives at 311 North Payson street, told how he played eavesdropper to his brother minister to testify to a conversation between Mr. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder. He said that on June 11, 1914, while riding with Mr. Snyder, the latter told him of this "ridiculous thing" which had come into his life. He asked Mr. Sinclair to come a few evenings later and to stand on the lower kitchen steps and to overhear Dr. Snyder ask his wife some questions. The following questions were then asked:

"Do you want to see the doctor?" To this Mrs. Snyder answered "Yes."

Question About Kiss.

"Do you want to kiss him?" "Why do you ask?" replied Mrs. Snyder. "Why did you carry on so last night?" said Mr. Snyder, referring to a fit of anger on his wife's part. "The devil was in me. We cannot start life over again. We have agreed to separate," said Mrs. Snyder. "Were all the doctor's visits professional ones?"

"No. The last one was social." Rev. Sinclair also told of being in the telephone booth when Rev. Snyder telephoned to his mother-in-law that if Mrs. Snyder was coming home to live it was "now or never." Mrs. Snyder did not return.

SAYS PASTOR SEEKS MONEY FROM DOCTOR

Lawyer Asserts Rev. J. E. Snyder Would "Shake Down" Dr. Kieffer.

Denouncing Rev. J. Edward Snyder, the Methodist Episcopal minister of Elliott City, as promoting his divorce suit against his wife with the desire of extorting money from Dr. George S. M. Kieffer, whom the clergyman named as correspondent, Attorney James J. Lindsay, for the defense, argued on the testimony in the case before Judge Dobler in the Circuit Court today.

Mr. Lindsay referred to the testimony of Rev. Mr. Snyder, where the latter said he was anxious to get a photograph of the physician and his wife together and also to the statement that the minister had caused his lawyer to write a letter to Dr. Kieffer threatening to sue him for alienating the affections of Mrs. Snyder. Mr. Lindsay said that Rev. Mr. Snyder's main thought was to "shake down" Dr. Kieffer and get his money.

Mr. Lindsay also spoke to the activities of William Harrison, a trustee of Morrell Park Church, and referred to him as the "general" who collected evidence. He also said the plaintiff must have been desperately in need of evidence if, as was shown in the testimony, a roll book was stolen from the church to be later used in the trial, when the book could have been obtained through other means.

There was a ripple of excitement among the spectators when Rev. Joseph C. Sinclair, who went to the parsonage to watch Mrs. Snyder, walked over to Attorney Eugene J. Cronin, for the defense, and in an excited manner shook his finger in his face and said: "I want you to know that I told nothing but the truth."

Mr. Cronin stood his ground and those present looked for a physical clash, but at this point the parties passed out of the room, as it was after the recess had been declared, and there was no further trouble.

Mr. Cronin had offered Mr. Sinclair when he referred to his statements on the witness stand. He prefaced his remarks by stating that when Rev. Mr. Snyder wished Mr. Sinclair to act as eavesdropper he desired a man of unquestioned veracity. "Thereby," said Mr. Cronin, "Rev. Mr. Sinclair laid a caveat to the claim of George Washington, the father of his country."

Former Mayor Thomas G. Hayes, for the plaintiff, closed the arguments for his side, Attorney Robert J. Gill having argued legal points yesterday.

SAYS WIFE KISSED DOCTOR MANY TIMES

Rev. J. E. Snyder Gives More Racy Testimony In Divorce Suit.

Under cross-examination today in the trial of his suit against his wife for divorce, which is being conducted behind closed doors by Judge Dobler in the Circuit Court, Rev. J. E. Snyder, the Methodist Episcopal Minister, told in detail how he observed the actions of Dr. George S. M. Kieffer and Mrs. Snyder through a hole in the kitchen door.

According to the manner in which he described the furniture in the room, the chair on which sat the physician and minister's wife, was directly opposite to a gas stove which threw over them a glow somewhat similar to a spot-light.

He said that, knowing they were together in the room, he removed his shoes upstairs and in order not to disturb them went through the cellar and up a back staircase to the door in which he had previously bored a hole.

He claims to have seen Mrs. Snyder, attired in a kimono, decorated with pink ribbons, seated on the lap of Dr. Kieffer. They were hugging and kissing, he stated.

In answer to questions put by James J. Lindsay and Eugene J. Cronin, attorneys for his wife, as to why he, as a husband and minister of the gospel, did not call them to account for their actions when he claims to have seen them in the compromising position, he answered that he was overcome with emotion, his hands were tied, and that he departed in silence.

Later, he testified, he called upon Dr. Kieffer to arrange for an operation upon his wife for an ailment, and Dr. Kieffer performed the operation. He also said that he never spoke to the physician about his alleged familiarity with his wife, and instead went automobile with him, visited his home and took dinner.

He said that he visited a detective agency and tried to get an instrument by which he could take a photograph of the two while they were together, as he had read of such an instrument being used by a woman in a blackmailing scheme.

"Was it your intention to use the photograph for the same purpose?" asked Mr. Lindsay.

"No," answered the minister, and he added that he simply wanted to Kieffer with positive evidence so that he could order the physician to "get out."

He stated that while knowing of the intimacy of his wife with the physician, he retained him as one of the trustees of his church, and one of his last acts before leaving Morrell Park to move to Elliott City was to name the doctor on the board.

In reference to the cigarettes and whiskey which were brought out among numerous allegations, he denied that he smoked, and when a question concerning his lying in bed and smoking cigarettes was directed at him said the accusation was false. Regarding the whiskey he also said that he did not ask Dr. Kieffer to bring a bottle of his brandy, although this is the contention of the defense.

He stated that upon advice of his counsel, Robert J. Gill, he secreted Rev. Mr. Sinclair in his house in order that he might corroborate the questions which he had prepared to ask his wife. Among these questions was one as to whether or not she loved Dr. Kieffer, and that he testified that she would not answer "yes" or "no."

Park. Mrs. Snyder told that she had an apocryphal dinner with Dr. Kieffer at her store. She and a Miss G. car at Lexington street. Mrs. Snyder told that she was going to the doctor's office. Mrs. Snyder told that she was going to the doctor's office. Mrs. Snyder told that she was going to the doctor's office.

Miss Diefendaff testified the present trial began as Snyder and Miss Carter told Snyder asked Miss Carter to go to testify to. Miss Snyder would testify that she never kissed Mrs. Snyder.

"That's very nice," Mrs. Snyder testified that she was told according to the witness Snyder knew it and encouraged frequently gone to the Snyder home to help Mrs. Snyder with the work. Mrs. Snyder was driving with Dr. Kieffer.

Miss Telle of White said Snyder said, in concluding his testimony, he found the doors of the house open. On one of the doors he said, he got in by the back door. He was in the house finding Mrs. Snyder and Dr. Kieffer together. He wanted his wife to leave him. He wanted his wife to leave him.

On five days later, July 15, he said, the next day, Mr. Snyder went after his wife. He wanted her to return, but she would not. The time he discovered his wife was with Dr. Kieffer. Mrs. Snyder said, she attended to hold duties as usual.

Girls To Angel Wife. It developed earlier in the day that Snyder had consulted his lawyer, Robert J. Gill, with reference to Dr. Kieffer for alienating the affections of Mrs. Snyder. This was the anniversary of the day of the Snyder, when he came more and bought Mrs. Snyder's dress. Last year he bought it for her on the anniversary and parcel. With the parcel was a note calling Mrs. Snyder "Angel Wife."

Doctor's Picture In Church. Two exhibits were introduced. One was a pistol which Snyder said, Dr. Kieffer threw away. The other was a picture of Dr. Kieffer, which was the doctor's picture, which Snyder said, he found in his box and secreted in the church.

Turning to Attorney Lindsay, the point in the cross-examination was: "Why don't you ask me if I ever saw Dr. Kieffer?" "You would have asked me else," The Attorney did not suggest.

Detectives Under Bed. When Charles Mayo, a detective, and his operators secreted in the house of Mr. Elliott City last July for the purpose of obtaining evidence for Mr. Snyder, they had an exciting but uneventful experience. Mrs. Snyder and Dr. Kieffer discovered the presence of the detectives and drove them out.

The two operators, who were secreted under Mr. Snyder's parsonage, were the only ones of the house in their stockpile order that their identity might remain a secret. The next morning, What they learned did not call upon to testify for Mr.

Pastor Says Wife Refused To Sign Paper To Give Up Dr. Kieffer.

Despite the fact that all doors leading to the rooms in which the divorce suit of Rev. J. Edward Snyder, the Methodist Episcopal minister, against his wife, Mrs. Ade L. Snyder, are locked and Balliff Ely, who stands 6 feet in his socks and is on guard to keep out the public, and especially newspaper reporters, it was learned today that the proceedings are sensational.

CHURCH MEMBER SAW PEEPHOLE
Former Mayor Hayes Reveals That The Measure Of Holding Hands

The indignation that he did not know of the holding hands of the parties yesterday by the church member who saw a peephole in the door of the room in which the parties were held, was revealed today by the former mayor of Baltimore, Thomas G. Hayes, who said that he had seen the parties in the room in which they were held, and that he had seen them holding hands.

Rev. Snyder said his wife would sign a divorce paper, but she would give him a divorce on any ground except one, and he to alleged agreement which he and his wife had prepared, but neither signed.

This agreement, according to witness, was to the effect that the wife, who was living away from him at the time, was to return and act as his housekeeper. She was to do as she pleased and receive a share of his annual salary and he was to treat her in a brutal manner.

Witness said he objected to the fast clause and that he never treated his wife in a brutal manner and always acted as a gentleman.

Failed To Agree.

The agreement, said the minister, also provided that the wife was to accompany him wherever he was sent by the Conference, but she objected to going to the West. He wanted a clause added which would require the wife to refrain from having any kind of communications with Dr. Kieffer, but they could not come to a settlement and the matter ended when she said she would not live with him again.

He also testified to having purchased a parol as a present to his wife on their wedding anniversary, in which he wrote a note which began, "To my angel wife." Other presents he bought for her on similar occasions were, he said, a handbag and necktie.

Attorney Hayes, for the defense offered as evidence a revolver, which Rev. Snyder said belonged to Dr. Kieffer, who, he said, threw it away on the night Snyder took detectives to his home. The witness said that he found the revolver on the lawn the next morning.

The photograph of Dr. Kieffer, which Rev. Snyder said usually hung in his wife's bedroom and which he hid in the pipe rack at the church, was also offered as an exhibit.

SNYDER ARGUMENT BEGINS

Wife's Counsel Calls Minister A "Pussy-Footed Provoker."

The testimony was concluded and argument began yesterday afternoon before Judge Doherty in the Circuit Court, in the cross-suits of the Rev. J. Edward Snyder and his wife, Mrs. Ade L. Snyder, each of whom asks an absolute divorce on statutory grounds.

Attorney Robert J. Gill, of counsel for Mr. Snyder, opened the discussion, speaking for an hour and 20 minutes. He was followed by Attorney Eugene J. Cronin, of counsel for Mrs. Snyder, who spoke for 20 minutes and will conclude this morning. He will be followed by Attorney James J. Lindsay on the same side, and the former Mayor Thomas G. Hayes, of counsel for Mr. Snyder, will make the final argument.

The cross-examination will then be submitted to Judge Doherty for his decision as to whether Mr. Snyder or his wife shall be granted a divorce. It may be that bill of complaint will be dismissed.

Mr. Gill reviewed the testimony, contending that the allegations of Mr. Snyder as to the conduct of Mrs. Snyder and Dr. George S. M. Kieffer, whom he named as corespondent, had been sustained.

Mr. Cronin upbraided Mr. Snyder for his conduct as shown by his own admissions. He said the clergyman was a moral pervert and "a pussy-footed provoker of the night." Referring to Mr. Snyder's statement that he turned and went away after seeing Mrs. Snyder and Dr. Kieffer in a compromising situation, the attorney compared the clergyman to Enoch Arden.

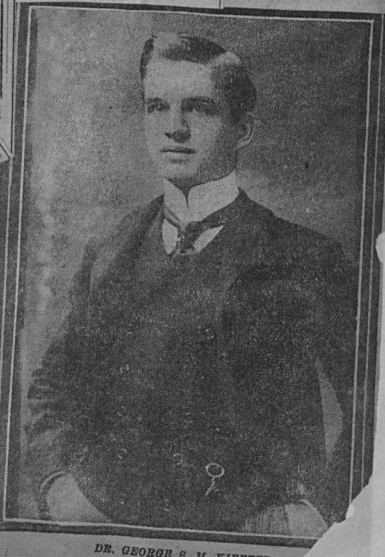

Mrs. Snyder was the last witness. She denied that she told her husband's foster-father that she would stop leading a double life. She also denied that her husband's foster-mother visited the parsonage at Elliott Court on May 25 last. Thelmer Mrs. Snyder, the young one said, was always accompanied by some one when she left the parsonage.

Other witnesses yesterday corroborated Mrs. Snyder's statement that her husband went to the altar during a revival conducted by a Mrs. Mumford at his foster-father's church and was taken into an adjoining room when he said he had a confession to make. They also corroborated Mrs. Snyder's statement that in explaining this occurrence at the next night's meetings Mrs. Snyder's foster-father said the young man wanted to go to foreign lands.

These witnesses were August F. Salmon, Mrs. Leonard Bradford, Mrs. Harry L. Streib and Mrs. Margaret Porter Coleman, formerly organist at the church.

Today will be the 25th of the trial. For Mr. Snyder 34 witnesses testified directly and 45 in rebuttal. Mrs. Snyder had 23 direct witnesses and 24 in rebuttal.

DRILLING OIL IN MARYLAND.

Seepages of oil and gas have been observed for some time in Wicomico county, Md., and about 25 years ago the accidental discovery of natural gas in the village of Parsonsburg, in this state, seven miles east of Salisbury, on the B. & A. Railroad, raised the question as to the existence of oil in that vicinity. As a result of recent tests and analyses, extensive leases of land adjacent to Parsonsburg were secured.

In July of this year the St. Martin's Oil and Gas Company was organized under the laws of Maryland with a capital of $1,000,000. The company announces that drilling is now in operation on one of the company's leases. No. 22.—Hochschild, Kohn & Co., v. Mary D. Cecil; judgment affirmed, with costs to the appellee. Opinion by Judge Patterson, No. 22 of the Board of Review.

AWARDED $15,000 VERDICT

Mrs. Cecil Injured By A Revolving Door At Hochschild, Kohn & Co.'s.

A verdict for $15,000 damages was awarded to Mrs. Mary D. Cecil by a jury in the Superior Court yesterday in her suit against Hochschild, Kohn & Co. for personal injuries she claimed to have received when she was caught in a revolving door at the store of the plaintiffs on December 3, 1915.

Mrs. Cecil, who is 68 years old, testified that the door threw her to the ground, fracturing the bone in her left hip, which resulted in her left limb becoming several inches shorter than the right. She also testified that she is permanently injured. In her suit, brought through Attorneys Barroll & Gill, she claimed $50,000 damages.

Mary D. Cecil v. Hochschild, Kohn & Co., alleged personal injuries claim $50,000. Barroll & Gill for plaintiff.

Woman Gets $15,000 Damages.

A verdict for $15,000 damages against Hochschild, Kohn & Co. was obtained by Mrs. Mary D. Cecil in Part 3 of the Superior Court yesterday in her suit to recover $50,000 for injuries she received when she was caught in a revolving door at the store of the plaintiffs on December 3, 1915.

The case was tried by Attorneys Barroll & Gill for the plaintiff and Attorneys Marbury, Connell & Williams for the defendants.

DETECTIVE AGENCY SUES BALTIMORE COUNTY OFFICIALS.

The William J. Burns International Detective Agency, through its counsel, Barroll & Gill, yesterday in the Circuit Court at Towson, filed suit for $1,200 against State's Attorney George Hartman and the County Commissioners.

It is claimed that on June 12, 1913, Mr. Hartman entered into an agreement with the Burns Agency with instructions that evidence be secured against gambling and violations of the liquor law in the county. At this time $100 was paid to the Agency as a retainer fee.

In compliance with the agreement evidence against over 100 places in the county was secured and turned over to the State's Attorney. Then the Agency, for its services, submitted a bill amounting to $341.87. Hartman then claimed that the evidence given him was already known to him and instructed the County Commissioners that the bill not be paid, which resulted in the suit. This was under the former Board of Commissioners.

"This is just an ordinary bill for detective services rendered to the defendants," stated Robert J. Gill, one of the counsel for the plaintiff, yesterday. "Why they did not use the evidence obtained is no business of ours."

Under the agreement, which was signed by the State's Attorney, it was provided that the expenses incurred by the plaintiff in securing the evidence be paid by the defendant. Conclusive evidence, it is said, was secured against over 100 places and given in the hands of the State's Attorney, who when the bill was rendered him, claimed that the evidence against the places named by the Agency was already known to him. And he instructed the County Commissioners not to make payment on the bill.

It is rumored that this case is only a forerunner of some sensational developments which may be expected at any time.

DIARY IN DIVORCE CASE

Little Book Tells of Gay Parties and Men Who Attended.

A little red diary filled with a chronology of notes on "parties" and the impressions of them, as well as of the men who took part in them, figured in the divorce suit of John W. Thomas, a traveling man, against his wife, Mrs. Grace D. Thomas, now said to be with a burlesque chorus, which went on trial in Circuit Court No. 2 before Judge Duffy this afternoon.

The diary which was alleged by Thomas to have been kept by his wife was not the only exciting development in the case. Thomas told about how his wife had attempted to asphyxiate him by turning on illuminating gas while he Postoffice; how she had broken a piece of crockery over his head in a downtown hotel; and how she had attacked him with a club in the back yard of their home.

Thomas weighs about 150 pounds, he says. His wife weighs less than 100 pounds. But he admitted that he was afraid of her, and that he left her on December 26 last because he was afraid she would kill him. He testified that he brought the divorce action against her when he heard rumors to the effect that she was entertaining men in her room and was frequenting burlesque houses.

Mrs. Thomas was not in court. Her interests were being defended by Attorney Richard Stevenson, and Attorney Weathered Barroll, Jr., Thomas' counsel. The case has not yet been concluded.

TIPTON CANDIDATE FOR PIVOT BERTH

Baltimore Boy Will Enter Hopkins Engineering School In The Fall.

HE IS SOME AUTO DRIVER

Martindale Will Be Shifted To End
On Black And Blue Eleven.
Bowers Will Aid Brennick.

By CHANDLER SPRAGUE.
From plotting a racing car at 100 miles an hour to steering a football team that is advancing at the rate of 10 yards in three minutes (perhaps) is not such a far-fetched feat as it appears. William D. Tipton, a Baltimore boy, who will enter Hopkins in the fall and who is expected to prove one of the most promising candidates for the quarterback job on the Black and Blue eleven, may demonstrate that the same qualities, in a measure, make for success in both sports.

Tipton graduated from Western Maryland several years ago, playing on the scrubs at the up-State institution for four years. His size was all that prevented him from making the Western Maryland varsity, as he knew football from the inside out. At that time he was not much bigger than a minute with 15 seconds gone, but since his graduation he has attained a very respectable weight.

Entering the automobile business, he soon established a reputation for fearlessness and skill at the wheel and his services frequently have been required to test out new racing cars whose owners were afraid to "open her up" for them. He has been running away with the car running away with the engine of the racing classes of the automobile game and it is rumored recently that he was to pilot a Maryland-built car this year in the Indianapolis event.

Instead, however, he will abandon the mechanical end of the automobile business temporarily for the theoretical and will enter the Hopkins Engineering School in the fall. He has an ideal build for a quarterback, carrying around 150 pounds of short, chunky sinews.

He is accustomed to using his head under stress and can write "sand" between his first and last names. Brennick says he will make all the other candidates hush for the privilege of barking out the signals at Homewood next fall.

Bowers To Assist Brennick.
Frankie Bowers will not play, but will be out there to assist Brennick in schooling the quarterbacks. The rest of the team is beginning to loom up in a nebulous way. Brennick wants heavy men who cannot be swept off their feet by a snappy interference and it is probable that Martindale, the speedy guard of last season, will be found on one extreme of the line. The other is in doubt, but Halligan, a veteran from Westover, who played on the medical school, may fill the job.

Ormond probably will play the right tackle position, but the job on the outside of the line is going to cause a great deal of discussion. It will be difficult to fill.

Receiver For Carpenter Company.
Appointed George M. Brady was appointed by consent yesterday, in Circuit Court No. 2, receiver for the Carpenter Company, a race contractors, a firm in the City of Baltimore, which is in the Fidelity Building, the bond being $20,000. The receiver is a partner in William M. Austin and Zachariah R. Lewis, who have claims for $1,062 and $850, respectively, for salaries. It is alleged in the bill of complaint that the appointment of a receiver was necessary for the protection of the creditors. The company stated that it was unable to realize from pending contracts, with its valuable plant and machinery, more than sufficient to pay its

Broker Disappears; Bride Left At Home

Robert I. Brown Took Out $3000
Life Insurance Policy—Police
Conducting Search.

After taking out a $3000 policy on his life, Robert I. Brown, a magazine broker, with offices in the Equitable Building and living at 210 Maryland avenue, disappeared. It was rumored that he had been in financial straits, but this was denied by his cousin, Rev. Francis C. Downs of 621 North Kenwood avenue, this morning.

His bride of eight months said he did not return home last Friday. Although willing to give what little information she could, her nervous condition would not permit further talk.

At the offices in the Equitable Building, a man told the reporter that it was "none of his business."

Police Commissioner Ammidon asked Marshal Carter to institute a wide search for the man.

WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF

BALTIMORE CITY.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Gill, for the last six years pastor of First Methodist Protestant Church, Seattle, Wash., and a member of the Maryland Conference of that denomination, has tendered his resignation and will likely come East to receive an appointment at the next session of the Conference.

SUES TO RECOVER SON

Mrs. L. H. Eichelberger Brings Action Against Her Father.

George H. Campbell, 214 Ridgewood road, Roland Park, assistant to President Willard of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was made the defendant in a bill in equity filed in the Circuit Court of Baltimore County yesterday by his daughter, Mrs. L. H. Eichelberger, of Plainfield, N. J., in which she seeks to recover the custody of her 4-year-old son, George Campbell Eichelberger.

Attorney Robert J. Gill, who represents Mrs. Eichelberger, states that when her husband, who is a contracting engineer, went abroad at the beginning of the war she made her home with her parents, and that on his return they did not want her to rejoin him and said if she did they would not allow her to take her child with her.

Mr. Gill asserts that, despite repeated efforts on the part of Mrs. Eichelberger, her parents have refused to surrender the boy and that she has no other recourse than to ask the law to compel them to do so. Her action is in the form of a bill praying for a mandatory injunction compelling Mr. Campbell and his wife, Mrs. Lillian T. L. Campbell, to place the child in her custody.

Parents Given Custody of Child.

A contest for the custody of George Campbell Eichelberger, 5 years old, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eichelberger of Plainfield, N. J., took place in Circuit Court at Towson, and resulted in an order being signed by Judge McNeil, taking the child from the custody and turning it over to the parents.

The testimony showed that the 2½-year-old, recently the parents wished the child to live with them and the grandparents refused to part with him. The mother, Mrs. Anna May Eichelberger, filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and the hearing was set for yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Eichelberger were represented by William P. Purdon Wright appeared for the grandparents.

Hill Pastor Who Has Tendered Resignation.

Rev. J. M. Gill.

THERE were few dry eyes in the congregation two weeks ago when Rev. J. M. Gill, of the First Methodist Protestant church, Sixteenth avenue and East John street, announced his resignation from the pulpit. He has been in charge for six years and the church has shown a wonderful material and spiritual growth in that time. A membership meeting was called and the following Sunday Rev. Gill was presented with a beautiful resolution urging him to reconsider his decision and remain. Although he believes that his original mission to Seattle has been accomplished and his home and family called in Washington, D. C., are calling him strongly, yet Dr. Gill is finding him undecided. His resignation was to take effect on April 1.

TAXICAB RUNS AWAY

And Driver William O. France Has
To Pay Fine For Leaving
Car Unattended.

Because he left his taxicab unattended, with the engine running, the result being that the vehicle made a wild dash down Cathedral hill, from Mulberry street to Saratoga, William O. France, a driver in the employ of the Auto Service Company, was fined $2.45 by Justice Golden in the Central Police Court this morning.

According to the statements of witnesses of the cab's dash, it was a wonder that no one was injured. As it was, the driverless car turned its course to the pavement at the side entrance to the Old Fellow's Temple, Cathedral and Saratoga streets. One front wheel touched the curb, and with a bounce the vehicle dashed across the pavement and fairly into the side door of the Temple. The front of the motor vehicle was smashed, but the building was not damaged. France admitted that he had taken passengers to the Wentworth Apartments but had left the engine running and the car unattended while he went to a telephone. He paid the fine.

Sues For Blasting Damages.

For alleged damage done his dwelling, 321 East Middle street, by blasting operations near by, Richard T. Franck sued Jason Fisher and Antonio Carozza, trading as Fisher & Carozza, for $1,500 in the Superior Court yesterday through Barroll & Gill, attorneys. It is alleged that the blasting caused constant vibrations of the house in 1913 and 1914 and that on June 1 last year damage was done by a large stone thrown upon the premises.

Mr. Gill was for three years a student of the Law School of the University of Virginia and was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Laws in June, 1912. His work as a student was of the highest order, indicating a marked aptitude for faithful and intelligent application and unusual powers of comprehending legal principles.

Mr. Gill is a young gentleman of the highest character and ideals, and of most agreeable personality. His capacity for work, combined with his general culture and exceptional professional equipment warrant me predicting for him an honorable and successful career at the bar. I commend him unreservedly to the confidence of the Baltimore bar.

Humphreys, who will go to the Rhode Island Avenue Church, in Washington, D. C. The Rev. Mr. Gill was pastor of the Rhode Island Avenue Church several years ago, but he comes to Baltimore from First Church, of Seattle, Wash. The Rev. Mr. Humphreys will replace the Rev. Louis Rausch, who goes to Taylor Memorial Church, Philadelphia.

FOUR IN TRAP FOR SPEEDERS

Fined For Exceeding The Limit
Near Catonsville.

Four drivers of motor cars were fined last night by Justice William S. Hoffmann, of Catonsville, for speeding through the village on Sunday, the arrests having been made by W. G. Roppert, of the motor vehicle force, who timed the automobilists in a trap which he established in the half-mile stretch between Smithwood and Wyndcrest avenues. Those fined were:

Robert Gill, who has an office in the Keyser Building, $10 and costs.
Stanley Parks, who was driving a car belonging to the Zell Motor Car Company, $5 and costs.

Robert L. Verrill, 213 West Madison street, $5 and costs.
John Scott, colored, driver for Miss A. M. Hall, of Catonsville, $5 and costs.

Roppert testified that they were going at a rate of from 20 to 25 miles an hour, while the speed limit at that point is 15 miles.

Form Association and Incorporate Protective Association.

The Jitney Protective Association, an organization composed of about 100 owners of jitney buses, has been formed and incorporation papers were filed yesterday afternoon. That the owners of the jitneys had decided to combine for their mutual benefit as well as to benefit the public and to generally improve the service was related yesterday by Attorney L. W. Whetther Barroll, of the law firm of Barroll & Gill, who has been engaged as counsel by the new association.

The principal reason for incorporating is contained in the following paragraphs that are included in the pattern:

To promote, protect and devise the interest and welfare of the jitney automobile business in the State of Maryland from the standpoint of the owner, operator and patron of the jitney bus.

To regulate the operating of the said business within the limit allowed by the law, to secure higher efficiency, better service, greater safety for the general public.

To make contract to buy, sell, hold, dispose of or otherwise deal with property, real, personal or mixed; and to conduct and carry on any business subject to the laws of the State of Maryland, or do any other acts which in the opinion of the executive committee of this corporation shall tend further and carry out any of the objects or purposes above mentioned.

No capital stock is provided in the corporation, and the conditions provide for both active and associate members of the association. An executive committee, composed of three members, which committee may be increased from time to time, will handle the affairs of the association.

Mr. Barroll, in speaking of the new association, said the main object of the owners in getting together is to give the public better service and to provide means of dealing with those driving jitney buses who have not the welfare of the public at heart. The association, according to their counsel, will aid in the prosecution of the reckless driver and do everything within its power to improve the service of the jitney bus for the benefit of the traveling public.

William N. Fowler, 37 years old, 29 in Freshbury street, a bookkeeper in the local office of the William J. Burns International Detective Agency, 722 Munsey Building, held yesterday for the District of Columbia Grand Jury on the charge of embezzling $500 from the District Police Court, on the charge of embezzling $500 from the detective agency. A warrant for his arrest was obtained by William D. Dickson, manager of the New York office. At the hearing he was refused to make a statement. According to N. O. O'Leary, manager of the New York office, Fowler has been bookkeeper at the agency for about 11 months.

Upon the complaint of the Mar Ice-Cream Company and the filing of a bond for $1,000, a temporary injunction was granted yesterday by Judge in Circuit Court No. 2, enjoining publication in the program of the Mum & Bailey Circus of the state that the ice-cream sold at the show was made by the complainant.

Lanky Halfback Tears Western Maryland To Pieces.

GUREVICH SHARES SPOTLIGHT

GUREVICH SHARES SPOTLIGHT

Makes All Three Touchdowns And Kicks Goal In Championship Game At Homewood.

With a new star, a brand new one, the Marylanders, State not only defended their football championship yesterday by defeating Western Maryland College, 35 to 0, but proved to all who assembled at Homewood to see the last half of the first double-header staged on a local gridiron, that it will be a real task for any aggregation to lift the laurels from the College Park school.

The new luminary is Wesley Bosley, the shining light of the Technical High School eleven of last season, and Washingtonians might have tipped off the Westminster Methodists what to expect from this lanky young halfback. Indeed, Bosley is exceptionally brilliant. Only twice did Western Maryland manage to stop him during the afternoon, so it should be quite clear to everyone

He didn't score a touchdown, all of the glory in that direction going to Gurevich, the chunky lad who played opposite. The big punch of the State eleven. Three times Gurevich crossed the goal line and he also kicked the goal, thus making all of the 19 points. But it was Rodley, with his end runs, his line plunges, his off-tackle stabs that gained the ground for two of those scores. But, to Gurevich goes the credit of the other touchdown, for he intercepted a forward pass in the third period and carried 80 yards to take much of the heart out of his opponents.

But Western Maryland, after the first period, during which two of the State packdowns were made, became beautifully and might have done something worth while had it not been for the interception of that pass by Gurevich. The Methodists did not make a first down until the third session, but then they are off five in succession, working the ball to their rivals' 15-yard mark. Then the aerial attack, which went wrong, was attempted.

Against Wills of L. J. Bothe, A. A.
Howard and Mrs. Schroedl.

Three caveats were filed yesterday in the Orphans' Court. The wills which will be contested are those of the late Louis J. Bothe, the late Allan A. Howard and the late Mrs. Anna T. Schroedl.

The contest against the will of Mr. Bothe was instituted by his widow, Mrs. Bothe, and her two children, who were represented by Attorneys Barrell and Gill. Mrs. Bothe sets forth that her husband died on December 24, 1914, as a result of an act of suicide on his part on December 25, 1914, leaving no issue. She claims that her husband, Miller, an aunt of the deceased, and Mrs. Bothe claimed to be the sole heir-at-law of the deceased, and that the will of her husband the will, dated December 24, 1914, was offered for probate and without objection was admitted to probate. She was admitted to Probate and Letters Testamentary were granted to Wilson J. Carroll and John G. Schweinsberg, who were named as executors. Mrs. Bothe in her petition asks that the probate of the will be set aside and that the estate be administered as intestate.

A suit for $30,000 was filed in United States District Court, eastern United States District Court yesterday by Albert Gill, trustee in bankruptcy for the Carpenter Company, against Booker Clark, of Ellicott City, and the Clark-Haywood Company, of Baltimore, contractors. The plaintiffs allege that the Clark-Haywood Company was practically a partner with the Carpenter Company in contracts to build State roads and that the bankruptcy of the latter was due to the control exerted over its affairs by the defendants.

The Carpenter Company was incorporated under the laws of Virginia about a year and a half ago and secured several road-building contracts in Cecil county from the State Roads Commission. It is alleged that the Carpenter Company did not have sufficient funds to meet the requirements of the commission and that the Clark-Haywood Company agreed to go upon its bond and to transfer certain machinery which was to be used in the work.

Mrs. Schwatka Sues For Divorce.

A limited divorce from William H. Schwatka, a well-to-do resident of Rock Hall, Kent county, with the custody of the three youngest of their five children and alimony, was applied for by Mrs. Rose T. Schwatka in the Circuit Court yesterday through Barroll & Gill, attorneys. They were married October 23, 1880, and have had seven sons, aged 15, 17 and 12 years, and two are daughters, aged 3 and 2 years. Mrs. Schwatka charges her husband with ill treating her for some years, at times striking and beating her.

A young man whose future will be watched with a great deal of interest by his neighbors in Kent county is Mr. Edward O. Thomas, the son of Otho Thomas of Sudlersville. Mr. Thomas has opened offices in Baltimore for the practice of law associated with Barroll & Gill in the Keyser building. His education and training as well as his natural capacity give great promise for his success in his profession and we unite with many others in wishing him good luck and congratulating him on the connection that he has made in Baltimore.

Dr. Gill has for years pastored of Rhode Island Avenue Church, in Washington, and is regarded as one of the most efficient ministers in the conference and well known in Baltimore.

Six years ago he was loaned by the Synod Mission Board of the Maryland Conference to the Seattle church, and during his pastorate there has been instrumental in insouling new life into the church and largely increasing the church membership. At a recent meeting of the church an earnest appeal was made to have him remain as their pastor, but it is believed he will carry out his original plans and come East with his wife, whom he married while pastor of the Washington church. In a recent communication Dr. Gill said he did not hesitate to say that the Seattle church was the most spiritual he had ever served or had ever seen. The Seattle church is classed as an independent one, and for years has applied to the Maryland Conference for a supply. Dr. Gill succeeded Rev. A. Norman Ward, also of the Maryland Conference, and who is now vice president of Western Maryland College at Westminster, Md.

Special to The Washington Post.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 18.—By defeating Randolph-Macon College tonight, 55 to 12, Virginia's basketball team incidentally equaled the largest score ever made on the floor of the Fayerweather gymnasium. The men exhibited a decided reversal of form after their poor showing against Hamden-Sidney last night. Displeased

The visitors presented a fast, well-drilled quint, and played well during the initial half, holding the locals to 21 points and scoring 5. The Orange and Blue opened the second period with a whirlwind attack, which fairly swept the Methodists off their feet. Goals were thrown from all angles. Virginia's systematic team play in this half proving the pleasing feature of the contest.

Stickle and Gill, forwards, were ever nimble in their advancing the ball in the direction of the nets, and their fellow guards, Churchman and Campbell, backed them up beautifully. Gill's work was especially brilliant, five goals being tossed by the tall manager.

Stickey, the little athlete from Virginia Christian College, also scored 10 points. He was in the thick of the fray at all times. Rixey, at center, was the main spring of many bits of attack, which the Methodists could not follow with essential force. He was far from his usual form in the opening period, but gave a clever exhibition at the start of the second half, bagging the ball five times in rapid succession.

Campbell covered wide territory, and was credited with 16 points. The only goal made by Randolph-Macon in the first twenty minutes of play was tossed by Walker on a cross-cut play, and won much applause. Virginia's remarkable spurt in the second half netted a total of eleven goals before Coach Langford's men had a string of substitutes. Of the new men, Strickland, who succeeded Rixey, landed three goals, while the other two were credited to Lyman. In other words, the football squad showed much promise toward the end of a gridiron season.

PLAN 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Alumni Of Western Maryland Discuss Celebration At Banquet.

PRESIDENT LEWIS SPEAKS

Tells Of Campaign To Make 1917
A Banner Year In History Of College.

Preparedness was the issue which was made most prominent at the annual banquet of the Alumni Association of Western Maryland College last evening at the Hotel Emerson. It was, however, not preparedness for national defense,
but for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college, which will take place in 1917.

Dr. Thomas Hamilton Lewis, president of the college, hinted in his address at the plans which are under way for commemoration of the event. Many of the features have not been decided upon, but the student body has already launched a campaign to make 1917 the banner year in enrollment since the founding of the college. Committees have been formed to canvass every county of the State, and during the coming summer systematic plans are to be launched for the acquiring of more new students than have entered any pre-

Discussed Economy And Efficiency.

"Economy and Efficiency" in the Legislature also received its share of comment in the address of several speakers.
This hinged on the question of the State appropriation for the college, and the relievements of many graduates of Western Maryland who have been sent to an education by State scholarships were cited as instances of the good that the State of Maryland was doing in disbursing this aid, and of the repayment that the college was making in turning out worthy citizens.

The occasion was commemorative,
especially of the thirtieth anniversary of
Dr. Lewis' accession to the presidency of the college. Many of the speakers paid a tribute to President Lewis and to the growth of the institution under his leadership.

Secretary of State Thomas W. Simmons spoke of the prominence of the graduates of Western Maryland in the activities of the State, and State Senator L. Atwood Bennett and Delegate Arthur P. Smith, both of whom are in the State government at the banquet, also strongly plan for the furtherance of the educational interests of the college, and voiced in the address of Robert J. Gill, a Baltimore attorney, and Harry S.
Beall, member of the faculty and athletic director of the college.

Among The Other Speakers.

Among the other speakers were Dr.
Charles H. Billingsley, president of the board of trustees; J. W. Smith, president of the Alumni Association; Henry

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

(April Term, 1915—Filed June 22nd, 1915.)

ANNIE SCHEFFLER

VS.

LILY M. LEE,

Guardian ad Litem of Howard Lee.

Appeal from the Superior Court of Baltimore City.

L. Wethered Barroll (Barroll and Gill on the brief) for appellant.

Albert C. Ritchie and Henry W.
Williams for appellee.

Argued before BOYD, C. J.; BRIS-COE, TATTON, CRER, STOCK-
BRIDGE AND CONSTABLE, JJ.

Personal Injuries—Assault—Trial Court
Has the Right to Order a Physical Examination by a Physician of Its Own
Selection of a Party Suing to Recover Damages for Personal Injuries Alleged to Have Been Inflicted by the Defendant —Judgment of Non Pro—Such an Examination Cannot Be Demanded as a Matter of Right by a Defendant, But Should Be Left to the Sound Discretion of the Court and It Will Not Interfere With by the Appellate Court Unless Such Discretion Is Manifestly Abused.

CONSTABLE, J.—

The only question involved in this appeal is the right of the trial court to order a physical examination, by a physician of its own selection, to be made of a party suing to recover damages for personal injuries alleged to have been inflicted by the defendant to the action.

The appellant brought an action to recover damages for personal injuries, the result of an alleged assault by the appellee, a minor. The appellee filed a petition alleging that although he had requested the appellant to submit himself to an examination so that the nature, extent and permanency of the injuries for which she sought recovery might be ascertained, yet the appellee had refused to comply; and prayed the Court to order such an examination made under its control and direction. The Court passed an order in this behalf, and, after the objections of the appellant were heard, passed an order directing the appellant to submit herself to the examination of a physician selected by the Court, and providing therein that the defendant should file a statement setting out the grounds of her objection.

have been followed, and, as there was no abuse of the discretion, we will affirm the judgment of the trial court.
Judgment affirmed, with costs to the appellee.

The illness in Baltimore, of Rev. Dr.
J. M. Gill, has caused much sorrow among his many old friends in Northumberland recently. He was one of the great number of pneumonia sufferers in that city the past month, or two, but unlike many Dr. Gill has been able to weather the storm, and come out conqueror in this, as in other attacks. We are all hoping that he will be well enough to make his usual visit to his friends and people here this spring, and fill the Methodist Protestant pulpits here once again, as none other than he can fill them.

Bannon Suit Begins.

Trial begun yesterday before Judge
Druffy and a jury in the Superior Court of the suit of James J. Bannon against John Felt and the William J. Burns National Detective Agency to recover $10, 000 damages for alleged malicious prosecution.

When Court adjourned for the day the testimony of Bannon had not been finished. Bannon is a lawyer and not been finished. Bannon is a well-known politician in Annapolis county. Attorney George W.
Camden appears for Bannon and Attorneys Barroll & Gill for the defendants.

The Stallings tract adjoins the Chappell property near Hawkins Point and was originally included in the Newton purchase. The Garrett interests have also formed a corporation and have purchased outright a large acreage in the same vicinity. Whether these purchases are connected with the Baltimore and Ohio and Newton transactions is not known, although Col. Robert Garrett was a director of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

ALLEGED SWINDLER SUSPECTED HERE

Government Also Wants Him On "White Slavery" Charge

Nabbed by the local police on the charge of swindling, Frank Shirman, said to be a hyphenated American, is locked up at the police station under detention of United States authorities who will take him into custody on "white slavery" charge.

Government men have been "trailing" Shirman for several days and although he was under surveillance here, they did not anticipate arresting him at this stage of their work. Shirman, alias Fisher, is held by the authorities for transporting Martha Favorite, a woman about 24 years old, from Stamford, Conn., to Hemp, N. C. The authorities believe the woman under cover and she will probably be brought here as a witness. Shirman is a man of small stature, about 62 years old, and devoid of any impressive features.

Captain Warren arrested the man yesterday afternoon when he was making arrangements to have a large number of Red Cross tickets printed for sale. He had, according to the officer, been to a local music house and rented there a phonograph and was going about in country towns giving entertainments and advertising them for the benefit of the Red Cross war fund. Several towns, it is understood, have been victimized by the man in his scheme. Agents at the department of Justice have learned of his arrest and immediately put him through a stiff examination, resulting in his confession of guilt upon the "white slavery" charge.

At first, however, he stoutly maintained that his name was Fisher and not Shirman. Officers ordered him sent back to jail, unless he would talk under the name of Shirman, did they entertain him. Then he admitted that he was the man they wanted and was sent back to jail.

The case against Shirman, Federal agents say, is more than a "mere personal escapade," and will develop into a strong case against him.

POLICE AFTER AUTO SALESMAN

L. R. Uhlir Is Accused of Obtaining $1,200 By Fraud.

Alleged to have obtained $1,200 by means of false representation, Lee R. Uhlir, 28 years old, an automobile salesman for the Capital Service Company, with offices in the Munsey Building, was presented yesterday by the grand jury and is now being sought by Headquarters Detective Vable.

Several days ago Clyde C. Rohr, manager of the Capital Service Company, swore out a warrant before Justice Packard at the Central Police Station. Yesterday he appeared before the grand jury and gave testimony which resulted in the present arrest. It is stated that Uhlir sold an automobile for cash, returned promissory notes to his employer and then absconded. Uhlir lived for several years on Carrollton avenue, near Edmondson avenue, and later he moved to a West Lexington street house. It is said that members of his family have offered to make good the money if he is not arrested.

FINANCIAL NEWS

Baltimore Cold Storage Co. Organized With $320,000 Capital.

PLANT TO BE READY IN SUMMER

New Yorkers Interested In Reorganization of Davison Chemical Co. Here To Complete Deal.

The Baltimore Cold Storage Company has been organized with a capital stock of $320,000. This is divided into 32,000 shares of common stock and $10,000 of 7 per cent. cumulative preferred. Of the common stock the company has issued $137,000, the remainder being held in the treasury for future needs. The par of both classes of stock is $10.

Arrangements have been made with the local banking firm of Bate, Watts & Co. to place the preferred stock and this firm has acquired the entire issue. It is thought will be soon brought on the market. The common may not be offered for public sale, as the promoters have subscribed for it and will hold it as an investment.

The officers of the new company are: J. C. Leih, president; R. Nelson Stevens, vice-president; and Lewis W. Davis, secretary-treasurer. These officers, with John H. Wimmer, Rosario Di Giorgio, John H. Hays, William G. Baker, J. H. Sewell, Jr., J. J. Hollingsworth and R. W. Parker, will be the directors for the first year. The company has acquired the old Adams street factory at 41 and 19 East Pratt street and also the warehouse adjoining, used for the building of the new plant. The new house, which will have an ultimate capacity of 30,000 cases of cold storage space.

Nicholas Van B. Greene, an expert cold storage engineer from New York, is making the preliminary testing. He will at once prepare the plans for the operation of the company and expects it to be ready for business by the early summer. A large six-story addition will be built in the use of the present main warehouse to give it an extra plant.

Most of those who are promoting the enterprise are in the commission business and handle a great deal of miscellaneous merchandise. They now have left the seed of banking in the facilities this company will offer.

Barnes International Detective Company vs. James C. Bannon; Judgment affirmed with costs to the appellee. Opinion by Judge Constable.

AFRAID WIFE MIGHT SEEK TO KILL HIM

J. W. Thomas Tells of Assaults
in His Suit for Absolute Divorce.

HER DIARY IS PRESENTED

To bear out the allegations in his bill for an absolute divorce, John W. Thomas, a traveling salesman, introduced as evidence a diary alleged to have been kept by Mrs. Grace D. Thomas, in which she entered notes on "parties" and her impressions of them. In his testimony yesterday afternoon before Judge Duffy, in the Circuit Court, No. 2, Mr. Thomas alleged he was afraid of his wife and that she had beat him on numerous occasions.

Mrs. Thomas is an actress and is playing with a stock company in New York, according to the testimony of the plaintiff. She was not present yesterday at the hearing, but is expected to be in court on Monday morning, when the case will be continued. Mr. Thomas admitted that his wife weighed about 30 pounds, and that he tipped the beam at 170.

"I left my wife on December 26 last," said Thomas, "because I was afraid she would kill me. While I was asleep she attempted to asphyxiate me by turning on the gas, and was only the fact that I was awakened by a noise down stairs that I am here in court today."

Thomas also told how his wife had attacked him in the Postoffice Building, and how she had broken a piece of crockery over his head in a downtown hotel, and related the circumstances of an attack upon him with a club in the hands of his wife.

The most amusing feature of the trial, however, was the introduction of the diary, in which there were inscribed a number of names of men. Alongside of each of the names is written what is alleged to be Mrs. Thomas' opinion of them. After several of the names are introduced "dead ones," and after others "live wires," Thomas said he got possession of the book shortly before he left his wife. It was after the separation, according to Thomas, that his wife joined a stock company in New York.

Attorney Richard Stevenson, representing the interests of the wife, said yesterday afternoon that Mrs. Thomas would be in court on Monday morning to give her side of the case. Attorney L. Weathered Barron, Jr., is representing the husband.

Declares Five Per Cent. Dividend.

Shareholders were also informed that the company had purchased the property it now occupied on the Calverton road. In this connection the president stated that plans for additional buildings were being prepared, to cost in the neighborhood of $30,000. The officers and directors of the corporation, all of whom were re-elected, are as follows:

Robert Gindfeker, president; C. McVey Dorsey, vice-president; and Charles J. Dorsey, secretary and treasurer. Directors—John J. Gaylor, Turner W. Isaacs, Robert J. Gill, Edward S. Evans, James E. O'Donovan and William C. Barron. The International Wood and Paper Products Company, which is owned by Baltimoreans, has an authorized capital of $250,000, and there is now outstanding stock amounting to $120,000.

LOYOLA AND JOSEPHITES WILL PLAY THIS EVENING

The first local basketball contest for the intercollegiate championship of Maryland will be staged this evening, when the Loyola College and the University of Mount St. Joseph's will meet in the gymnasium at the city.

Both institutions are represented by good and speedy players and a corking game should result. The Blue and Gold basketballists have been practicing regularly since their clash with the George Washington University five last Saturday at Washington, and view today's contest as one of the most important and hardest on their schedule. The Josephites are in fine condition, and their easy victory over the Temple University team Tuesday shows that Loyola will have to play at top form to conquer the Irvingtonites.

The game this evening is the first between these schools for three years. At their last meeting the Loyola team defeated the Josephites by a 41-to-3 score, not allowing them a field goal. The last season by Wilbur Gooden, the Chicago National's outsider and forward, Clark from guard to center, and the place-holding more formidable, and should count as a victory over them.

Gill, the University of Virginia star, and unanimous choice for center, and others interested in the team of two seasons ago, will handle the contest.

Robert J. Gill of the local law firm, whose office is in the Keyser Building, is named as resident agent of the Company. He said he had not been made acquainted with the plans of the new concern.

A creditor's bill for the appointment of a receiver for the Storage Battery Service Company, Incorporated, 2 West Preston street, was filed in Circuit Court No. 2 yesterday by William F. Sutton, Sr., et al., through Robert J. Gill and Samuel Want, attorneys. It is alleged that the company owes about $1,500 and is insolvent.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Cantwell on Thursday evening gave a dinner in honor of Lieut. Col. Gill, who was the speaker at the N. E. H. S. Commencement. Among the guests who were present were Lieut. Col. H. A. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sturgeon, Mrs. Willett Ewing and Lieut. Raynor Garey.

REV. JOHN M. GILL, of the Maryland Conference of the M. P. church, who is now stationed at Seattle on the Pacific coast, preached three good sermons yesterday to three full houses in Old Northumberland, his native county. Beginning with his old home church, he preached in the morning, coming on to the fields, in the afternoon, and finishing up with a beautiful sermon at Bethesda. He must have enjoyed a assurance of a day's work well done, when the hour of rest well earned arrived. Rev. Mr. Gill, after attending to his duties in the M. P. Conference recently held in Old Northumberland, is now in Lynchburg, for a few days. No man has been longer in N. U. than he. No man has more people here. No man has more affection of his home people than he, and to none do we extend a more heartfelt welcome. His presence brings always a blessing.

Among those whose names are being mentioned in connection with the office are: Rev. George W. Hadaway pastor of Starr Methodist Protestant Church, Garrison and Mont Alto avenues; Rev. Walter R. Graham, pastor of the Metropolitan Protestant Church in Chestertown, Md., and Rev. J. M. Gill, of Seattle, Washington State. Rev. Dr. Gill formerly was pastor of the Rhodie Island Avenue Church in a fashionable part of Washington, but for the past few years has been pastor of the Metropolitan Protestant Church in Seattle, having been loaned to that charge by the Home Mission Board of the church, as the church is an independent one. In view of the fact that the Rev. Mr. Hadaway has been pastor of the Starr church for the last 15 years and is on the eve of building a new $40,000 church in Walbrook, it is hardly likely that he will be called to leave his present position this time. He is one of the leading ministers of the denomination and very popular with the ministers, especially in the South. Dr. B. B. Bowers was elected president of the Conference the presidential term had been five years, but before J. M. Gill, of Seattle, was elected president three years ago, thinking that a five-year term was hardly justice to the other ministers, the Conference voted to change the term to three years. Dr. Sheridan the term should be only three years. The next session of the Annual Conference will be held in the city of Washington, D. C., on the next April—American.

The principal office in Maryland will be located at Havre de Grace, and the resident agent will be Rudolph Reinicke, of Baltimore. Work will be started within the next two weeks so that the opening of the hotel may take place next summer. The hotel will cost about $100,000; it will be of English design, built of brick and stucco, with the upper stories half timber. The dimensions will be 63 by 128 feet.

The new company will make arrangements to begin business as soon as the necessary details are completed.

The Susquehanna Inn Company, Hart de Grace, Md.; capital stock $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares; to carry on a general hotel, apartment house, restaurant and cafe business, etc.; incorporators, Rudolph Rehner, Charles T. LeViness, Jr. and Clarence W. Wharton.

PLAN BIG WAREHOUSES

Company Incorporated Here Is Capitalized At $750,000.

Several large warehouses for storage purposes and long piers for use by steamship lines will soon be erected in Baltimore by the Baltimore Wharfage and Warehouse Company, which has just been incorporated by Robert J. Gill, Clarence W. Wheaton and John S. Gittings, Jr. The charter of the company was filed yesterday with the State Tax Commission, and the firm is to be capitalized at $750,000. All of the parties back of the enterprise are Baltimoreans, said Mr. Gill.

"At this time we do not care to go into details about our plans," he said, "as we have not acquired all the property needed. However, we have options on much of the land required and we intend to push the proposition. We propose to build piers and warehouses, which we will offer for rent to steamship lines. While our charter gives us the privileges of building grain elevators, we have not decided to construct any such buildings at this time. That may come later."

The fact that the export trade at this port is growing by leaps and bounds and that several new companies recently have been organized for coastwise trade has influenced the officials to organize the company, as they feel that the demand for wharfage and warehouses at this port will increase. Baltimore will confine its activities to Baltimore, Mr. Gill explained.

SEEKS GARAGE PERMIT

Smallwood Street Concern Goes To Court To Fight Byrne.

Judge Doherty signed an order in the Superior Court today requiring Building Inspector James J. Byrne to show cause by March 26 why a permit to erect a garage in the 1800 block of North Smallwood street should not be granted to the Smallwood Garage Company. His action was on a petition for mandamus filed by Robert J. Gill, attorney for the garage company.

Mr. Byrne, acting under an ordinance adopted in 1911, had refused to grant the permit on the ground that permits would not be granted for the erection of garages in purely residential neighborhoods. Mr. Gill says that his clients had built several small garages on their property in the rear of 1821 to 1818, before this ordinance went into effect. It is proposed to tear these small buildings down and erect one large building.

RESPASS CITY LOTOWNERS WIN

Government to Take Their Land for Substantial Considerations.

The 635 holders of titles to lots in Respass City have won out at last. For substantial considerations the government will take over their land as a part of the great army training camp. Respass wins, too. His holdings today are worth a considerable sum. Three years or more from now they probably will be worth much more.

The life of Respass City has been eventful. Its founder was involved in several criminal and several criminal prosecutions. He came out of these unscathed, however, and now appears to be a considerable distance up Easy street and walking rapidly toward a place in the sun. Several propositions for outright purchase, lease or eventual purchase, of the land are under consideration. In any event the owners of Respass land will make money.

The Seattle Minister's Federation met Monday morning at 11 o'clock in the First Methodist Church, under the leadership of devotion led by Dr. Ralph Adams. The installation of the new officers and the inauguration of the new pastor, Rev. J. M. Gill. The retiring cabinet consisted of J. M. Gill, president; C. A. McLaughlin, first vice president; William Adams, second vice president; E. M. Hill, secretary; George M. Lee, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott W. Benjamin announce the engagement of their daughter, Jessie Clare, to Mr. Philip Milo M. McLaughlin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin. The wedding will take place during the Christmas holidays.
