Faculty Changes

President Ensor has announced the appointment of four new faculty members and the return of Mrs. Wenner to the English department.

Dr. H. P. Sturdivant comes from Millsaps College in Mississippi to head the department of biology. He was educated at Emory University and holds a Ph.D. degree from Columbia University.

The new head of the department of economics is Mr. Horace Townsend, Jr. who comes from the University of Tennessee and was trained at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia and Wharton School of the University of Penna., where he has nearly completed work for his Ph.D. degree.

Miss Virginia Lee Speer has been added to the department of biology and Miss Natalie Disbrow to the department of history, as assistant professors. Miss Speer received her master's degree at Emory University and Miss Disbrow her master's degree at the University of Virginia.

Eight hundred ten students began this academic year at W. M. C. This is a slight reduction from the number last year and resulted from a deliberate policy of holding the enrollment to the limit of the college facilities. There are 346 women and 454 men with several students pursuing a master's degree program in education. Foreign students include young people from China, Greece, Korea, Poland, and Sweden.

Enrollment of students for admission in 1949 has begun and President Ensor is anxious to have the names of prospective students submitted as early as possible.

Report on the Living Endowment Fund

The Living Endowment Fund has been in operation for three years and a total of $11,179 has been paid by the Alumni and friends of the College. This is the approximate income a fixed endowment of $130,000 would have produced at present rates of return. While this is short of our goal it is an indication of the value this type of giving can have for the College.

As more of the Alumni come to understand the purpose and possibilities of this Fund we can count on greater participation in the years that lie ahead. A quick glance at the percentage of living alumni who have contributed reveals the need for seeking one hundred per cent participation in each class. The amount each one gives is not as important as the fact that a gift has been made. Any gift is an indication of your interest in your Alma Mater and your willingness to support it.

An analysis of the giving this year reveals that the largest participation was by the class of 1912, with 56 percent of its living members contributing. Mr. Charles H. Murray, class representative. The largest number of givers was in the class of 1936, with Mr. Harold White, representative. The largest amount contributed was by the class of 1923 who gave $312 on their twenty-fifth anniversary.

Thirty-three class representatives wrote to their classmates in the interest of this cause and the response to these appeals was most encouraging. We are hoping the response this year will be even greater as they will be contacting you again in the near future. Why not send your contribution now to—John Bayley Jones, Director.

The Outlook For Fall Sports

The arrival of autumn finds Western Maryland's gridders and soccerites in the midst of vigorous preparations for 1948 campaigns.

Approximately forty Terror football aspirants have been drilling daily since the second week in September with eyes focused on the opener in Washington against Catholic University on October 9. Once again the Green Terrors are under the tutelage of Charlie Havens and his assistants, Bruce Ferguson and Tom Tereshinski.

Back from the 1947 squad, which won four while losing three and tying one, are eighteen lettermen who are expected to serve as a nucleus for the current Green and Gold gridiron machine. With nine of last year's first stringers back in uniform, the Terrors have high hopes of fielding a formidable starting eleven.

The Terrors face a seven-game schedule which includes four repeaters from 1947 in Catholic University, Washington College, Gettysburg, and Johns Hopkins. Two others, Randolph-Macon and Mt. St. Mary's, were met in 1946. The contest with Lebanon Valley will be the first since 1914 when the "Flying Dutchmen" won 21-3.

The Green and Gold aggregation will operate from the familiar single wing formation, but look out for modifications which will present a wide-open brand of football.

An ambitious twelve-game schedule has been arranged for the Green Terror soccer team. Coach Johnny Jones lost several standouts from last year's eleven via graduation. The 1948 squad will bank on youth, speed, and spirit as it makes its bid for recognition in the Mason-Dixon Conference race.

Mt. St. Mary's Football Game

News has just reached us that the Mount St. Mary's football game will be played on McCurdy Field in Frederick at 8:00 p. m., Friday, November 5. Therefore, we have arranged to have alumni and friends meet informally in the Coffee Room or the Blue and Gray Room of the Francis Scott Key Hotel during the supper hour that evening. No reservations are necessary.

Endowment Fund

The question is often asked by interested persons, "How much Endowment does Western Maryland have?" This is a good question, and something with which every Western Marylander should be concerned. The following summary is a part of the October first report of the Finance Committee. An analysis of this summary will indicate the unusual stability of the Fund. Securities have been purchased in accordance with sound investment principles which will protect it against almost any eventuality and, at the same time, yield a good rate of income.

The Fund should be larger—and can be larger if our loyal alumni and constituency will keep the College in mind not only as they plan their current giving, but as they plan for the future. HAVE YOU INCLUDED YOUR ALMA MATER IN YOUR WILL?

Vol. XXX No. 2

November, 1948

Western Maryland College Bulletin, Westminster, Maryland, published monthly during the school year from October to May, inclusive, and July–August, by the College.

Entered as second-class matter May 19, 1921, at the Post Office at Westminster, Md., under the act of August 24, 1912. Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917.

Placement Service

Western Maryland College has initiated a placement Bureau which began last spring under the direction of Dean Forrest L. Free, who is also in charge of the Freshmen Advisory Program. This Placement Bureau fits into the total program of guidance and counseling at the college. When a student enters the freshman class he or she is assigned to a freshman advisor who helps plan the student's academic schedule for the year. This advisor also acts as a counselor whenever the student seeks help in personal or social problems as well as academic questions. A specific guidance service is rendered by Mrs. Sanford who administers and evaluates Aptitude Tests.

Complete records are kept as they are filed by counselors and the total information is eventually recorded on the Placement Bureau Registration Forms. These forms give a complete personal and college history both from an academic and social standpoint, and give a record of the practical employment experience of the students in both part-time college work and vacation jobs, and of previous employment experience. In addition to this, personality ratings are given by members of the faculty and the student's academic standing in his class is indicated. A follow-up service is planned to keep in touch with the progress of our graduates.

For several years the Education Department has been placing students in teaching positions and is still continuing this function under Dean Stover. Heads of other departments of the college still continue to place graduates wherever possible and capable students are being encouraged to attend Graduate Schools.

It is hoped that the alumni will suggest openings for employment of our graduates and will make use of the information available to them in this Placement Bureau.

WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE is a liberal arts institution, accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the University Senate of the Methodist Church. It is the first coeducational college established below the Mason-Dixon Line. The enrollment this year is approximately eight hundred men and women, with a faculty of sixty-five teachers.

The campus, located on a hill, about one thousand feet in elevation, covers one hundred acres of land, and provides a view to the foothills of the Blue Ridge mountains. The college is on the edge of Westminster, the county seat of Carroll County, Maryland, located less than thirty miles from Baltimore, fifty-five miles from the Nation's Capital, and twenty-five miles from historic Gettysburg, Pa.

Courses of study are offered, leading to the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Science degrees and a graduate program, leading to the Master of Education degree. The college is a member of the National Association of the Schools of Music, thus providing an opportunity to major in music while earning a bachelor's degree and special training for the teaching of Public School Music.

Total charges for all necessary college expenses vary from $825 to $925 for the regular college year. Scholarships are provided by the State of Maryland, the Methodist Church, and the College, for capable students. There is a Student Loan Fund to help worthy and needy students. Applications for such help should be made to the President of the College.

Further information is available from the Registrar, Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md.

Extension Courses

Dean G. Franklin Stover has announced an extension course to be offered by Dr. Joseph W. Hendren of the department of English. Dr. Hendren is a graduate of Princeton University and has made a specialty of gathering American Folk Ballads, hearing many of them in their local setting. He has published a book on the subject entitled, A Study of Ballad Rhythm, among the Princeton Studies in English. The course will be a study of American folk ballads and will cover a five-week period beginning registration and the first class February 3. One hour credit towards a Bachelor Degree will be given for this course, and it will be open for the general public to audit for a nominal fee. The class will meet in room No. 302, Science Building on successive Thursday evenings.

A course in the Master of Education program will be offered over a fifteen-week period beginning February 3 at 6:30 p. m. under the direction of Doctor Stover and Professor John D. Makosky. This is a special course seeking to analyze the problems in four different areas: self, society, the political-economic system of the United States, and international relations. Different staff members of the departments specializing in these fields will conduct the sessions during the period of study. They will include the following professors: Bradley, Earp, Holthaus, Hurt, MacDonald, Makosky, Sturdivant, Sanford, Summers, and Townsend.

Banquet To Honor President Ensor

The Baltimore Area Alumni are planning a banquet at the Emerson Hotel on the evening of Wednesday, February 23, 1949 in honor of President Lowell S. Ensor. The speaker for the occasion will be Senator Tydings and the program calls for a brief address by Dr. Ensor, special musical selections from the college, and dancing.

Tables for groups up to ten may be reserved in advance. The cost will be $3.50 per plate which will include tax and tip. Dress—optional.

Reservations should be made through Mrs. Charlotte Coppage Young, Bergner Mansion, Gwynns Falls Park, Baltimore, Maryland. Checks to cover tickets should reach her not later than February 18. Carroll County tickets may be obtained from T. K. Harrison at the College.

The Living Endowment Fund

Contributions to this fund for the present year have been coming in at an encouraging rate which is an indication of the interest our alumni have in this project. One of the enthusiastic supporters of the fund, who has been contributing liberally each year, has given permission to quote a statement from his letter on the subject.

"In my contacts with the heads of institutions of higher learning throughout the country I have become convinced that the living endowment idea is a good one. The plan provides a means whereby the alumni and friends of an institution who may never be able to give large amounts to a permanent endowment are enabled by their cumulative efforts to be of very substantial assistance not only in promoting the development of their alma mater but meeting a grave need for increasing the facilities to provide higher education for the young people of our time. For these reasons I hope to see the living endowment movement meet with the greatest possible success."

Your class representatives will be contacting you again this year so why not send your check in early and swell your class fund. Send your contribution today to John Bayley Jones, Director of The Living Endowment Fund, Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland.

Music
at
Western Maryland College

The Department of Music

The Department of Music has been able to grow and to build and maintain high standards because of the interest the college has taken in music and because of a music faculty of outstanding attainments. These standards were recognized this year when the college was received into full membership in the National Association of the Schools of Music. This membership carries with it the approval by the Association of courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in applied music.

The minimum requirements for a major in a division of applied music consist of sixteen semester hours in that division in addition to appreciation, ear-training, sight-singing, form, harmony and composition, and the history of music.

Levine Hall of Music

erected 1891, and used at that time for a preparatory school. Later it became the senior men's dormitory and in 1939 was completely remodeled to house the department of music. The building contains seven studios and classrooms, ten practice rooms, a recital hall, and a listening room for recordings.

Miss Gesner's studio has the warmth of home-like surroundings and she is always glad to welcome former students as well as those who are hoping to become music students at Western Maryland College.

Maude Gesner

Professor of Music and Head of Department, received her undergraduate and graduate training at the New England Conservatory of Music and was later a student with Elizabeth Quaile, Angela Diller, and Harold Bauer.

Voice

Alfred de Long

Associate Professor of Music, received his Diploma from the Curtis Institute of Music. Mr. de Long has sung in opera, radio, and concerts. He gives instruction in voice and directs the College Choir.

Fernanda Doria

who is also a vocal instructor, studied in Boston, New York, Edinburgh, Paris and Milan. She has had a career in opera, concert, and radio in Europe, Mexico, Canada and the United States.

Violin

Philip S. Royer

Assistant Professor of Music, received his graduate training at Columbia University. Mr. Royer teaches violin, public school music methods and conducting. He directs the college orchestra and college band.

Organ

Grace Murray

Assistant Professor of Music, received her Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees at the Eastman School of Music, and later studied organ with Gunther Ramin, Leipzig, Germany. She instructs in organ and piano and teaches music appreciation. The Glee Club of the college is also under her direction.

GLEE CLUB

Piano

Oliver Kingsley Spangler

Associate Professor of Music, received his Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Music degrees at Otterbein College, and the Master of Music degree at the Peabody Conservatory of Music. He gives instruction in piano and is the chapel organist.

Helen Brainard

Assistant Professor of Music, received the Bachelor of Music degree at Oberlin College, Julliard Graduate School of Music Diploma, and is now a student with Carl Friedberg. She also gives instruction in piano.

Theory

Dika Newlin

Assistant Professor of Music, and teacher of theory and composition, holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree in music from Columbia University. Dr. Newlin studied piano with Rudolf Serkin and Arthur Schnabel, and composition with Roger Sessions and Arnold Schoenberg. She is author of the book, "Bruckner, Mahler and Schoenberg."

Public School Music

A minimum of sixteen hours credit in applied music—at least eight of which must be in piano and four in voice—is required of a public school music major. Also appreciation, ear-training, sight-singing, harmony and composition, the history of music, school music methods and conducting.

Faculty Recitals

Each year, a fine series of concerts is given by members of the faculty for the college community. These artists are available for concert engagements. The programs of last year are indicated on the opposite page.

Student Recitals

Each student who majors in applied music gives a public recital in the senior year before the faculty and guests. Informal student recitals are given bi-monthly, and recital classes are held every month. One of the two annual college orchestra concerts is directed by senior public school music majors.

The WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE BULLETIN

An Authoritative History of the College

Graduation Day has an added significance this year! At that time, the first installment of Emeritus Professor George S. Wills' History of Western Maryland College will be released by the Carroll County Historical Society. Copies will be available at $1.25.

This section of the History will include only the beginnings, and the administration of James T. Ward until his resignation in 1885. But, Professor Wills, in his extensive searches in many out-of-the-way places, has uncovered so much of interest to present day readers that a separate publication of the events of these years was decided upon. Many conceptions regarding these early days will have to be revised in the light of the new information which has been obtained.

The author points out that he and the college were born in the same year, and that he had personally known all five presidents. The nineties marked his first official connection with the Hill, but his knowledge of it goes beyond that. Those who have sat in his classes will know that an interesting and authoritative account awaits them. Copies may be secured through the Historical Society, Westminster, Maryland, or through the College Bookstore.

A SONG

written November 29th, 1895
by Benjamin Alfred Dumm, '86 (North Weare, N. H.)

(Tune—Maryland, My Maryland)

Thy glorious front the orb of day
Greets proudly, Western Maryland,
While at thy back the mountains stay
To echo Western Maryland.

The Rhine may boast her castles old,
Britannia's towers may all be told,
Yet leaps supreme in hearts ne'er cold
Thy name, O Western Maryland.

Refrain—

Then call again across the years,
Ye sons of Western Maryland,
And daughters proud—all hopes, no fears,
For dear old Western Maryland.

The halls where learning's valor stands
Are thine, O Western Maryland;
And wisdom's font for heart and hands
Springs deep from Western Maryland.

Here manhood's forged to bear the shock,
Here woman's virtues grace the rock
Where feet have climbed of those who knock
On gates of Western Maryland.

Refrain—Then call again—

While memory holds the years in view,
Their queen is Western Maryland;
They rolling on distill the dew
Of faith in Western Maryland.

Our hearts are thine—true every chord,
Thine every steel stroke of the sword—
Thine every brave deed, noble word—
Our Mother, Western Maryland!

Refrain—Then call again—

The Living Endowment Fund

If your Alma Mater should request each of its four thousand alumni to contribute $250.00 in order to create a million dollar endowment fund at Western Maryland College, it would cause quite a disturbance. This money would then be placed in invested funds that would bring three to four per cent interest. Then at best the college would receive between thirty and forty thousand dollars per year to use in its current operating budget.

However, the equivalent interest would come to the college if only twenty-five per cent of our living alumni would give $30.00 each to the college or if all our living alumni each gave only $10.00 per year. Surely, you can see the way in which small contributions which are within the financial means of all of us can amount to a worthwhile contribution annually to the college.

Why not send your contributions immediately, without waiting for word from your class representative, in order to make a million dollar living endowment a reality among the alumni.

Send contributions to The Living Endowment Fund, John Bayley Jones, Director, Westminster, Maryland.

The Alumni Association President's Letter

Dear Sisters, Brothers, Cousins, Aunts and Uncles.

June 15, 1949

I think you will be interested in the enclosed report.

Medical Report

Name of Patient	Alumni Association
Place of Birth	Western Maryland College
Age	60
Next of Kin	Kenny Harrison—"T.K."
General Appearance	Excellent
External Condition	Good
Internal Condition
Heart	Weak
Teeth	Falling out from lack of use
Blood Count
Red Corpuscles	350
White Corpuscles	4250
Blood Pressure	Low
Financial Condition	(Confidentially)—disgraceful
General Condition	ANEMIC!!

Treatment

For Heart—More actual work and not so much moral support.

For Teeth—Each W.M.C. Alumni Chapter to bite off a little more than it can chew and work each member harder.

For Blood—A pat on the back for red corpuscles.

A shot in the arm of each white corpuscle of the vitamins I, W, A, M.

Note

I, INTEREST in helping make the Alumni Association a vital and active factor in working and supporting the college.

W, WORK for a larger and stronger membership in the Association.

A, ATTEND meetings and speak your mind at the meetings rather than outside where no good will come of it.

M, MONEY! Help carry your share. After all $1.00 is a small amount and you are only as big as the smallest thing you do.

Become a RED CORPUSCLE to help this poor patient. After all Anemia is not hard to cure. A Committee of five has been appointed to review the Constitution of the "Invalid" and to try to inject some life into the body that will, in turn, bring about the wished for improvements.

Also a quarterly bulletin will be issued to keep you posted on the improvement in the State of Health.—Be sure to read the next thrilling Chapter!!!

If you are just dying to know more, your examiner will be glad to give you a verbal account at any of your banquets. It took her two years to learn to talk, but it will probably take the rest of her life to learn to keep her mouth shut.

CAROLINE WANTZ TAYLOR
(Examiner)

P.S. With your support the patient will live.

Western Maryland College Bulletin, Westminster, Maryland, published monthly during the school year from October to May, inclusive, and July--August, by the College.

Entered as second-class matter May 19, 1921, at the Post Office at Westminster, Md., under the act of August 24, 1912. Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917.

President Ensor's Message

"T. K. is retiring." This brief statement was heard perhaps more than any other during the Alumni Week-end this spring. Whenever it was spoken it carried an accent of distress, and those who heard it for the first time could scarcely believe it possible. T. K. Harrison is a name almost synonymous with the Western Maryland College Alumni Association. But yet it is true that T. K. brings to an end this summer a long period of active service to the College. He concludes twenty-five years as Alumni Secretary and nineteen years as a full-time member of the college staff. These years have been rich in associations established, first, with students in college and later expanded as these students scattered to the far corners of the earth as representative alumni.

T. K. entered Western Maryland as a sophomore in 1898, graduating with the class of 1901. For a year he taught school in St. Mary's County, spent another year in business in Charlotte Hall, and then followed Horace Greeley's advice to go West, and spent three years in the oil fields of Texas. Maryland, however, held such a warm place in his heart that he returned to his native state in 1906, and after a year, working with steel at Sparrows Point, entered the steamboat service on the Chesapeake Bay. He became associated with the United Railways, of Baltimore, in 1916, and, except for two and one-half years with Uncle Sam during World War I, remained with the United Railways until 1929. Once more he felt the lure of distant places and went to Rio de Janeiro until he was invited in 1930 to enter full-time activities at the College with the title of Business Manager. During these nineteen years, at some time or other, he has performed almost every duty imaginable. If no one could be found for a particular job, it was usually turned over to T. K., and he has accepted his responsibilities with the same loyalty and gracious spirit for which he is known by so many alumni. I am sure there is no Western Marylander who can call so many other Western Marylanders by name. This is because he has literally lived Western Maryland during all these years. It is a part of him and he will always be a part of it.

In this same spirit of willingness, T. K. has consented to serve one more year as Alumni Secretary. This will give his successor an opportunity to become acquainted with his responsibilities and will also give T. K. something to do. None of us who know him can believe he would be happy in complete inactivity. Yes, T. K. has retired, but for one more year you can expect to hear from him and see him at all alumni gatherings. The College unites in paying tribute to a devoted and loyal alumnus.

LOWELL S. ENSOR, President.

AFTER FIFTY YEARS

The Class of 1899 held its Golden Jubilee on Saturday, May 28. Beginning with a luncheon at Hoffman's, at which fourteen members were present, they took a prominent part in every exercise until the last degree had been conferred. A. G. "Grandpa" Dixon, President of the Class, reports that Holmes D. Baker, Hazleton A. Joyce, James H. Straughn, Test Buckingham Kimmey, Mary Elizabeth Hobbs, Iona Jewell Simpson, Emma Smith Morris, Alice Tredway Stevenson, Virgie Williams Duncan, J. B. Thomas Merrick, J. Pearre Wantz, Mary Weaver Wilson and Ada Zepp Pickett were in attendance and that letters were received from others who could not attend. The Class took part in the Alumni Banquet Program—sang its song, yelled its "Yell", which was good. Emma Morris nominated the '49 Class for membership in the Alumni Association, Jim Straughn introduced each member of the Class while "Grandpa" Dixon beamed as they responded. It was Jim who took the final bow when the degree of Dr. of Laws was bestowed upon him on Monday. No class has ever had a better time than this—may they return often to their Alma Mater.

AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

The Class of 1924 had a glorious celebration of its 25th Anniversary Saturday, May 28th. Starting with a luncheon at the Charles Carroll Hotel at 1:00, they attended the afternoon functions, responded to their roll call at the Banquet, slept at the Seminary or at Blanche Ward Hall, had their pictures "taken" and really lived again the life of '24.

They have filed, with Alumni office, a picture taken outside of McDaniel Lounge. This will be placed in their Class folder to be reviewed from time to time as Reunions come about.

The twenty-two members shown do not, by any means, represent the sum total of the loyalty and devotion of this class to their Alma Mater.

HERE AND THERE

John E. Yingling, '24, has been appointed Superintendent of Schools of Howard County to succeed Herbert C. Brown, who has retired after fifteen years service in that position. The appointment becomes effective August first.

According to the Brown Alumni Monthly, "Rip" Engle (C. A. Engle, '30), got out of Madison, Wis., just in time. Brown says it wants to keep "Rip" there. Other Universities are reaching out their hands for him. Good Luck, "Rip".

Went in the offices of the American Express Co. to see about my "vacation". Before any one had a chance to say "what can I do for you", TWO Western Marylanders greeted me; Betty Armiger, Claramae Garlock, Patricia Chatterton and Adelaide Crow, all '48-ers, are planning a two weeks tour of Canada. As you read this, they will be back—they left July 4th. I'll just be starting on mine to the Pacific Coast via Anchorage, Alaska, where daughter Jane Harrison, ex-'42, has a position with the Civil Service. I leave on the 22nd; on the 19th, daughter Elizabeth ('37), Lt. (j.g.) U.S.N., leaves for the same destination. Jane will have her hands full. I hope to see several Alumni as I return through California, etc. ("T.K." talking.)

Carl S. Jones, ex-'32, Capt. A.U.S., who has been with the Eighth Army in Japan, has received orders to report for duty in the States. He will first report to Boston, and will later be assigned as an instructor for the Organized Reserves. He is accompanied by his wife and two children.

All the way from California came Lloyd M. Bertholf, whom you all know spent many years on College Hill. With him came Mrs. Bertholf, '36. No, not just to see us, but Max, ex-'49, was married.

Earl P. Schubert, '43, Director of Athletics at the Principia, St. Louis, Mo., was elected chairman of the Private Schools division of Physical Education of the National Health, Physical Education and Recreation Association, at the Boston convention in April. He is now working for his Master's degree on the Hill.

Another Baker Chapel wedding took place on Saturday, June 25th, when Erma Young, '46, and Nelson W. Gebb were married by the Reverend Jacob F. Replogle. They will reside at 3708 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Look out for them, members of the Philadelphia Chapter.

Andrew "Andy" Gorski, '35, Major, U.S.A., has just dropped in. He has recently returned from duty in Korea and has been assigned as Asst. P.M.S. & T. at Arkansas State College, Jonesboro, Ark. Married; two sons, Rickey, 4 and Tom, 7 months. Welcome home.

DEATHS

Miss Thelma Shreiner ('28), (and former Assistant Dean of Women at W. M. C.), died on April 30, 1949.

Miss Bettie S. Brittingham ('30), died on April 29, 1949.

Mrs. John Blanche Noble Stovell ('94), died on June 5, 1949.

Harry B. Caton ('99), who died on April 26, 1949, was planning to attend the 50th Anniversary of his class at this past Commencement. Public Offices both State and Federal have come his way and he has always maintained a close touch with Civic affairs. He was one of the Founders of the Little Theatre in Alexandria, an enthusiastic student of historical data of his State and City; a past President of the Alexandria Kiwanis Club; a member of the George Washington Birthday Association; the American Philatelic Society; a Mason and a member of the Methodist Church.

His wife, Adele Ogden Caton, '99, with a son and daughter, survives him.

Word has just been received that Miss Sallie Wilmer, '87, passed away last January. Sorry we do not have the exact date.

THE COLLEGE HISTORY

Dr. Wills has done a remarkable work. Nothing can be said to convey to you the difficulties and disappointments surrounding the birth of our Alma Mater. Dipping into notes, letters and memoranda, heretofore not available, Dr. Wills tells the story in a manner that makes you wish the second volume were ready now. The volume is not large, but make it a MUST on your reading list, and get a copy while it may be had. $1.25 will bring it to your door.

Then, too, the new plates have arrived and there are a few available. The Library—Alumni Hall—McDaniel Hall—Old Main Tower—The Arch. Sold out the Chapel—but a new order has been placed. Will advise when they arrive. See May Bulletin for shipping rates. Plates, $2.00 each. Get a "Kiddie" T shirt. They are cute. $1.00 delivered.

The Colts Are Coming

The presence of some sixty or more stalwart young college graduates on our campus does not mean our graduate program has been augmented to that extent, at this time. These men are members of the Baltimore "Colts", representing Baltimore in their third season in the American Professional Football League.

Early in the spring an agreement was reached between Dr. Lowell S. Ensor and Mr. J. Walter Driscoll, President and General Manager of the Baltimore Professional team whereby the "Colts" would spend six weeks of preliminary training at Western Maryland College, making their headquarters in Albert Norman Ward Hall and Gill Gymnasium, and using the practice field along with Hoffa Field for their workouts.

Western Maryland College is happy to be in a position of helping this growing organization sponsored and owned by Baltimoreans train near home and wish their stay is a pleasant one and productive of good results in the league which embraces teams from coast to coast. Cecil Isbell, Head Coach, former Purdue University and Green Bay Packer luminary and his staff are holding workouts twice a day and friends and alumni of the college are invited to drop in and watch a top flight professional eleven work out besides meet some of the outstanding college athletes in the country that make up the Colt squad.

NOTICE

All Alumni in the vicinity of either San Francisco or Los Angeles, please take note: I am coming to your center in August. I will advise you when, and where I will be. I hope to hold a meeting at some central place in each city. Will you meet me? I'll get word to you in some way. No banquet—just a sociable chat about "Dear Western Maryland."
Signed "T. K."
