BIOGRAPHY/HISTORY

McDaniel College was founded in 1868 as Western Maryland College. During the first years administration and teaching was taken up by the College's professors. Even after the position of vice president was added this was a dual position of administration and teaching. Though other administrative positions were added over the years the position of Dean of Faculty was not added until 1938. In 1973 a dean of academic affairs was added and the Office of Academic Affairs is listed in the catalog. As of 1995 the Dean of Faculty is also the Provost.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Record Group RG311 contains records (correspondence, curriculum vitae, contract agreement letters, salaries) relating to the faculty of the College, including adjuncts and summer session faculty. In processing these papers they were kept in the original order placed on them by the Provost's office with the following exceptions - duplicates were removed. Arrangement is mostly alphabetical, however in earlier years not all faculty had individual files and records were filed chronologically by year of appointment. Many faculty members had less than three items in their file. These files were grouped alphabetically and placed in a folder for year appointed. All faculty files that included more than three items were placed in separate folders and filed behind year of appointment. Lists of salaries are chronological.

Folder 678: Samuel Biggs Schofield was removed from its original order and placed with his personal papers in the 1970s. This folder was discovered as his personal papers were being processed in 2007 and was placed back into RG311.
