DR. WILLIAM ALLAN MACDONALD
A.B., A.M., Ph.D.

Associate Professor of the History of Art

Dr. MacDonald . . . Connoisseur of fine peanut butter . . . Characterized by tweeds, suspenders, and perpetual grin . . . Unshakeably convinced that overcoats breed colds . . . "I wish somebody would go downtown and get a haircut for me. I'm too busy" . . .

"Who was the janitor of the temple at Karnak in 1082 B. C.?"

He understands the principles of modern education: he utilizes audio-visual materials, field trips, and pupil-teacher planning. He gives objective tests. He is an active participant in school and community affairs. He establishes worthwhile aims and objectives; he fosters democratic attitudes. He avoids the use of sarcasm. He is trustworthy, loyal, cheerful, courteous, friendly, helpful, obedient, kind, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent.

His teaching, however, transcends these superficial standards for evaluation: this man knows what he's talking about. He belongs to a class of Vanishing Americans—the teachers who still have faith in subject matter.

RARE OLD PHOTO of Dr. MacDonald wearing a belt, brought to you at great trouble and expense by the staff of the 1954 ALOHA.

His field is art. He realizes the great importance of art education to the college man and woman of today. Art is a graphic representation of anthropology, sociology, history, psychology and economics from the beginning of recorded time to the present. Art is the key to the innermost thoughts of any people—fifth century Greeks or twentieth century Americans. And most important to the people of today is an understanding of the art of today—their own art.

As head of the Art Department here, he has taken the initiative in bringing about such an understanding through the regular presentation of exhibits of contemporary art.

It is with great pride that we of the Class of 1954 dedicate this book to Dr. William Allan MacDonald—a scholar and a teacher.

permanent fixtures...

A college is comprised of its campus and its people. The campus is slow to change—its landmarks carry their years well.

The people are always changing. They enter and leave. They grow. Some grow wise, and some grow foolish. Some grow richer, some poorer; some grow mellow, some cynical. All of them grow old. But to each the campus and the people always remain exactly as they were in undergraduate days.

This is Western Maryland to the Class of 1954...

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the Class of '54! At this time of your graduation from college, you are successfully passing one of the major milestones of life. After Commencement your paths will lead you in many divergent directions—the Army will claim some for awhile, others will go to graduate and professional schools, others into business and industry, and most of you will embark upon the sea of matrimony before very long.

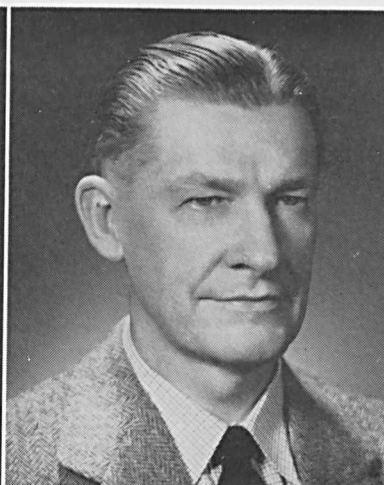

Whatever may be the various pathways followed by the members of the class, I sincerely wish for all of you success. I would define such success not only or primarily as the accumulation of material possessions (may you have your share), but rather as the satisfactory achievement of the goals you have set for yourselves. May you be successful in using effectively the knowledge and skills Western Maryland has helped you acquire during the years spent on "The Hill!"

IN RETROSPECT . . .

Sure has been a long, hard four years.

1950-51 . . . Ike was just another college president. The nation raised its collective eyebrow over the Ingrid Bergman Caper. Mr. Roberts was on Broadway. And the Class of '54 was the Freshman Class. Those were the Good Old Days, when our towels were new and our hopes were high and we still got letters from home.

1951-52 . . . Ridgeway was in Korea. The guy across the hall got his draft notice. Everybody was talking about the Rosenbergs. Who're the Rosenbergs? We were sophomores and we knew that you don't have to go to assemblies. So we didn't. We joined fraternities and sororities and we heckled the Freshmen and griped about the food and changed our majors and said we were going to transfer.

1952-53 . . . MacArthur had just waded ashore at Chicago. Pogo Possum was running for President. King George VI died. We were Juniors and coffee was up to ten cents in the Grille and we were changing our majors again and sweating over the Junior Follies and griping about the food and the cockroaches and the missing panes in the windows and saying we were going to transfer.

1953-54 . . . Truce in Korea. Eugene O'Neill dead. McCarthy still making an ass of himself. We were Seniors and we weren't taking anything that met on Saturday and we changed our majors and played another hand of pinochle and griped about the food and the cockroaches and the missing panes in the windows and the Administration and the Graduate Record Exams and the snow and the nasal jelly and raising the flag every morning and said why didn't we transfer when we had the chance and how many more days is it till graduation.

And then suddenly it was our last spring on the Hill and iced tea reappeared on the menu and Dean Howerly was speaking in McDaniel Lounge on the Art of Public Courtship. We took sun baths and played golf and started humming A Mighty Fortress. And then we realized that we had just had the Time of Our Lives and that it was going to be pretty dull just standing around the water cooler nostalgically swapping yarns for the next forty years. . . . Say, when is Homecoming, anyway?

CLASS OF '55 LOST

Prologue

This poem mayn't be the best ever written,
But it's the most we can do at one lousy sittin.
Our rimes don't rime, and the meter only fits after a merciless pounding; in short and in fact this ode is pure doggerel.
And if you want someone to vouch for it, why,
Ensor'll, Margaret and Earl'll, not to mention the surety that Old Man Baugher'll.
So if you like corn,
Read orn.

Canto I

Three years ago, 1951, that is, if you're a non-subtractor, (September, 1951, if you prefer us to be a trifle exactor).
Well, anyway, back then, after the administration had administrated us and the committees had thoroughly committed us,
The odds were about 500 to 1 that we'd ever get through old WM and this fact extremely frustrated and giddied us.
So we stepped into the dining hall for refreshment and a few minutes later exited horribly finished;
After being mounds-of-joyed, soggy-carroted,
lumpy-potatoed, and seaweed-like spinished.
*We knew one and all that if the studies didn't fail us,
That dining hall crowd would deal up a bowlful of malice.*

And we were right! For while some dropped out 'cause of troubles scholastic,
Many kids just gave up and went home where the food doesn't taste like polastic.

Canto II

They say that no year is able to offer more Than when you step from a frosh to being a soffermore.
But as sophs we still staggered, joined the frats and sororities
Flunked some tests here and there, made the rounds of wild porities.
With a gasp and a moan we realized that our junior year would be even horridier,
So for mental relief we basked the summer away at Ocean City, various jails, and Miami Beach, Florridier.

Canto III

Our junior year
Was no soonyer here.
Than we proceeded to be bled with numerous tasks, such as writing term papers, and playing football, and putting on the Junior Follies, and sponsoring the Junior-Senior prom, and Homecoming, and May Day, and Thanksgiving, and Christmas, and Easter, and the Junior Plays, and art expositions, and term, and quizzes and lots and lots of exams, and finally in the Spring going on field trips to study Botany.
Oh, how could a year come out so rotteny?

About mid-way between the last lingering mosquito and spring thaws, one slightly tarnished "measuring worm" inched from behind a Greek Dictionary—and stared distractedly past his bifocaled limit.

He had dared—and discovered. That revelation now squatted against the back of the yellow pages, and quivered with a literary laugh as it once more caused an animal to stop—and think.

Our battered, cylindrical friend looked again; "Soph o more—from the Greek, sophos, wise; and moros, fool."

Ah, great sounds the thud of the least worm. But, hark, and hold on! If convention allows, the worm turns, and speaks:

"Remember how I burrowed through the Fall campus with the preconception that either reputation or a one-term knowledge of the ropes would guide me through? Or, how I glibly accepted that bid—only to realize that this year it was I whose blushing frame was bent and smothered with paint-stirring paddles and discarded feed sacks?

"Fool? If so, I suppose we've all been sophomores."

Then, he smiled more meaningfully:

"But, this is hardly pertinent to what we've gained this year. Doors of clubrooms, newspaper offices, religious groups, Home Ec. labs, ROTC maneuvers, and musical organizations have opened—and challenged us to contribute with more than a passive attendance. Small fears concerning Western Maryland have vanished, and we're discussing constructively, with the freshmen, their problems (surprisingly identical to those we faced a year ago). We've begun to dig toward individual, yet common, ideals concerning the future, and are finding union therein.

"Yes, if wisdom presupposes trials, slumps, and replacing of a self-satisfied pride with one which serves self and the other six-hundred and fifty selves—then, we dare to say—'Wise we have been.'

"Sophomores—wise fools—Amen."

And, a much more learned worm closed the dictionary—to resume his work: Measuring, in a straight line, forward—with a laundry tag pinned to his post-marked body: "Assured—Class of '56."

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

FRESHMAN CLASS

Armed with college handbooks, letters from our big brothers and big sisters, bags, boxes, blankets and all the little things the handbooks stated we'd need, we embarked, a little hesitantly for Western Maryland College in September.

Unfamiliar buildings and a host of unfamiliar names awaited us, but in the process of orientation we tackled the problem of becoming acquainted, and succeeded.

With the arrival of the upperclassmen we were introduced to a new phase of collegiate life—the freshman “rat” rules. We wore beanies, endured “air raids,” made speeches and entertained the whims of the upperclasses, until the victory over the sophomores in the tug-of-war ended it all.

During the first year on the “Hill”, the grille, the rec hall, bull sessions, collateral, cuts and chapel became significant words for us. We made new friends. We learned to live, play, and work together as members of the college community.

Our beauties graced the Homecoming and May Courts. Some of us starred in athletics, others academically. Talented members of our class were in constant demand.

Now as we look back upon a year full of new experiences, we have learned much, scholastically, socially, and spiritually. Our goal is yet to be reached. Our individual dreams and personal ambitions are yet to be realized. Through the remaining years of our collegiate career, let's look forward with confidence, class of “57.”

BASKETBALL

Western Maryland's Green Terror basketball forces showed a 1953-54 court record of four victories against seventeen reversals in the twenty-one games scheduled. Despite this poor record, Coach Ferguson's charges weren't as bad as the tally shows. On very few occasions were they soundly trounced, and the majority of opponents knew that they had been in a ball game. Indicative of this were such thrillers as the 68-67 loss to Baltimore University, which had one of the country's highest scoring quintets, and a pair of setbacks issued by Loyola, 68-62 and 68-61. Loyola advanced to the finals in Mason-Dixon Conference Tourney play.

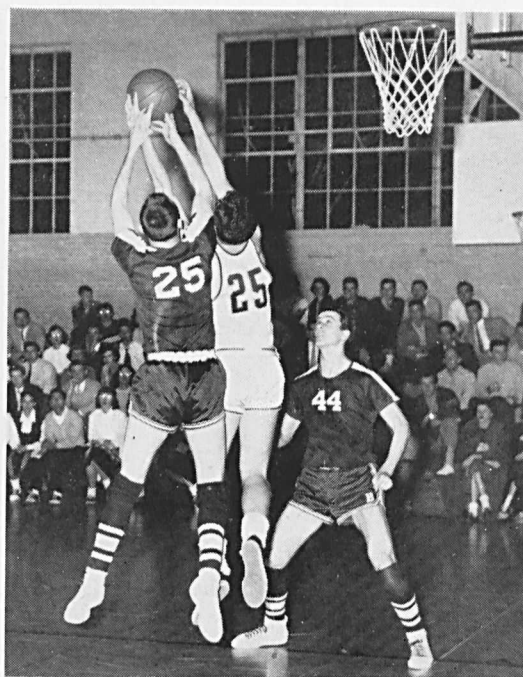

Victories were recorded against the Alumni, Gallaudet (a reversal of a previous defeat), Washington College, and Catholic University.

Al Bopst was the team's leading scorer with 307 markers for a 14.8 average, while Co-Captain Needleman tallied 272 points for a 12.9 average. Other high scorers were Charlie White with 157, Co-Captain "Soup" Campbell with 143, and Charlie Phipps with 143.

The squad was handicapped by the injuries to Harry Tull and George Sipe, both 1952-53 regulars, who saw only limited action.

Team statistics for the entire season included 474 field goals and 392 foul shots made for a total of 1323 points. The average was an even 63 points for the twenty-one games.

Lettermen were Bopst, Needleman, White, Campbell, Phipps, Chuck Bohan, John Kauffman, "Whitey" Schofield, and Jim Whitehurst.

Bopst snares rebound.

SUCCESS!!

Coach Phil Uhrig's booters enjoyed their finest season in years, climaxed by the appointment of Senior fullback and co-captain Dick Linton to All-American honors. Linton, Senior co-captain Nick Gwynn, and Freshman Denny Harmon were All-Conference choices.

This year's team indicated through all its games a tremendous desire to win. Those connected with the squad were thrilled by the boys' spirit of "do or die". W.M.C. was well represented in every contest.

The Green team started the season off on the right foot by journeying to Baltimore and defeating Loyola 2-1. Coming from behind, the Terrors pulled the game out of the fire in the last half. The head and foot work of Denny Harmon accounted for both goals.

In Philadelphia, the confident Green and Gold faced a fine Drexel Tech club and went down to defeat 6-4. The backfield of goalie Bob Crush, fullbacks Roy Etzler and Dick Linton, and halfbacks Ray Davis, Nick Gwynn and Al Hagenbuch played a great game. All-American "Red" Schmitz of Drexel found it unbelievable that W.M.C. refused to give up.

Returning home, the booters dropped a tough game to Baltimore U., 4-3. Line play was excellent. A couple of fluke goals won for B.U.

Next the Terrors opposed Georgetown and won handily, 3-1. Two wins, two to go.

At Franklin & Marshall, W.M.C. ran into fierce, driving rain and a fairly good Diplomat team. Rain, mud and some tough luck proved a disadvantage to the visitors who lost 4-0.

On Homecoming Day the Varsity had its hands full, defeating a tough group of Alumni 3-1. A well-conditioned Alumni team might have beaten Coach Uhrig's men.

At Delaware, the head work of Harmon and the foot work of Tankersley and Seibel proved too much for the Mud Hens, who went down to defeat 3-1.

Seven inches of snow called a halt to the Bucknell game. Cancelled.

The last three games of the season were heartbreakers for the Green and Gold. At Gettysburg the game was undecided until the final period. The anticipated slaughter never came about. The contest was more or less mild in comparison to last year's. Johns Hopkins set the Terrors back in an exciting game—the Blue Jays coming up with the clincher in the last few minutes of play. Al Hagenbuch suffered a broken arm in the contest. Failure in attempting a penalty kick with the score 2-all kept the Uhrig squad from taking the lead. Final score 4-2. Henry Taitt scored his first goal in a Western Maryland uniform.

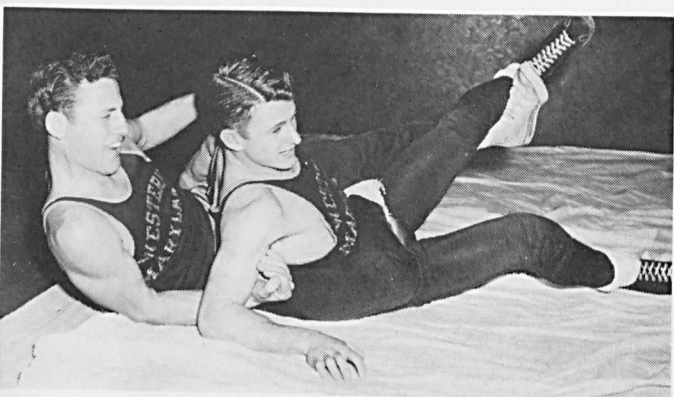

Overall record:

4 wins, 6 losses.

Terrors outscored, 25-21. Denny Harmon led scorers with 12 goals.

2 graduating Seniors—Gwynn and Linton, who played consistent ball all season.

Orchids: to Dick Linton for making All-American honors; to Nick Gwynn and Denny Harmon for All-Conference honors; to the Terror team itself, and to Coach Phil Uhrig for a high-spirited season.

WRESTLING

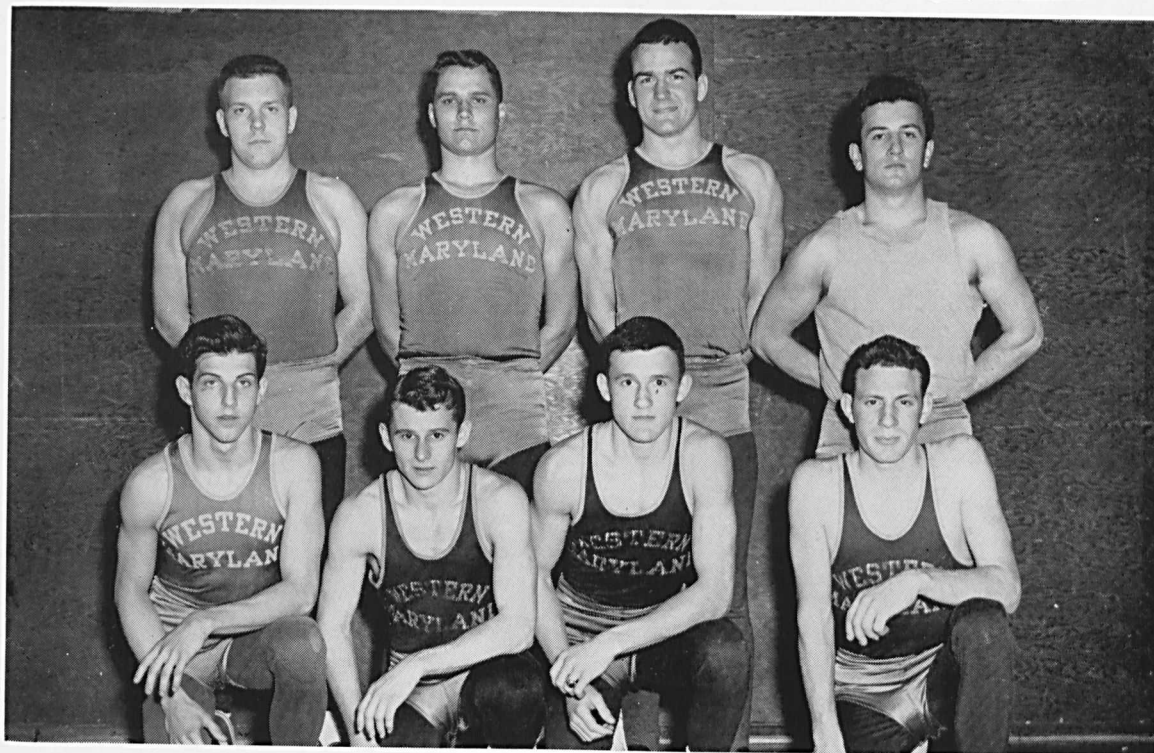

Despite an overall record of one victory, four defeats and a single tie, Western Maryland's wrestling team had what can be considered a successful season. The team, consisting of four Sophomores, four Freshmen, and a single Senior, showed the Terror mat fans that, as experience is gained and ability developed, the W.M.C. squad will grow into one of the Mason-Dixon Conference powers.

Highlight of the season was an 18-16 triumph over Loyola of Baltimore, in which several of the Terror matmen came from behind to pin or decision their opponents.

Andy Tafuri, 130-pounder, 137-pound Brant Vitek, and Heavyweight Ed Heflin each posted three victories during the season, and each captured third place in the Conference grappling. Other team members were Earl Findley, 137 pounds; Dick Carvel, 147 pounds; Harry Kacandes, 157; 167-pound Tom Englar; and Daryl Martin at 175.

Ed Heflin coached and Dick Carvel, the team's only Senior, captained the squad for the season.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purposes of this organization are: to promote women's athletics, to create a love of sports, and to foster the ideal of good sportsmanship. Sponsors are Miss Todd and Miss Parker.

The 1953-54 fall season began with the intramural hockey program, and ended with the annual hockey party. Intramural and extramural basketball games were conducted under the W.A.A. A badminton tournament was sponsored with participants from each class.

The W.A.A. Board selects honorary hockey, volleyball, and basketball teams on the basis of skill, participation and responsibility. In badminton, a school champion is determined—the champion being the girl who has defeated her own class winners and winners from the three other classes.

This year the W.A.A. plans to send two representatives to New York to attend the National Physical Education Conference to be held on April 22-23. Money is being raised for the trip by the sale of sandwiches in the women's dormitories.

At the close of the volleyball and softball seasons, a cup will be awarded the class having the highest number of points to its credit—points being determined by the number of wins, losses and ties, and by the percentage of participation.

HOCKEY

The hockey season opened the girls' sports program. Participation and enthusiasm were great at the start, but slacked off as the season progressed.

Games were scheduled with Goucher, Mount Saint Joseph's, Gettysburg, and Towson State Teachers' College, but due to several difficulties we were unable to play off these games.

Although the Terror team showed disappointment concerning the varsity games, there was spirit and fight in the intramural games. At the close of the season, intramural honors went to the Freshmen and Mixed "A" teams.

"Rags" Baum, Bobbie Summers, Mary Ellen Weber, Peggy Artigiani.

BADMINTON

"Rags" Baum emerged for the third successive year as W.M.C.'s badminton champion. Class titles were won by Bobbie Summers, Senior; Peggy Artigiani, Sophomore; and Mary Ellen Weber, Freshman. In a tournament held here, W.M.C.'s badminton team triumphed over Gettys-

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

For the third straight year Alpha Gamma Tau copped the Intramural Football Championship. The Bachelors showed a record of nine wins, one loss. In second place was Delta Pi Alpha with eight triumphs against a pair of setbacks.

Highlights of the Bachelor season were three games with the Preachers. In the opening contest Alpha Gamma Tau scored a hard-fought 13-2 victory, but was turned back by a single point, 7-6, in the return game. This necessitated a play-off in which the Blue and White showed its class and scored an impressive 19-0 triumph over the Purple and Gold.

The first Senior Unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps was established in 1919 at Western Maryland College. Since then, Western Maryland has trained young men to take their places as officers in the U. S. Army in times of national emergency. The Professor of Military Science and Tactics is Lt. Colonel Robert J. Speaks. He is assisted by his staff including Captain Charles L. Crouch Jr.; Master Sergeants Joseph M. Brouillard and James V. Murray; Sergeants First Class Raymond W. McRoberts and Francis Lang.

The course of study is prescribed by the Department of the Army. The full course in Military Science takes four years, the first two of which are required for graduation. Students who desire to take the last two years' advanced courses are selected by the P. M. S. & T. When this course is completed, the graduate is eligible to receive a reserve commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Infantry.

Company A

Those students designated as Distinguished Military Students may apply for a commission in the Regular Army. This year Arnold Hayward applied for and received an appointment to the Regular Army by the Department of the Army.

During the first two years the cadet studies map reading, rifle marksmanship, first aid, organization of units, and assembly-disassembly of the various Army weapons. If the cadet is selected to continue into the advanced course, he studies tactics, transportation, communications, gunnery, supply, teaching methods, and troop movements.

The practical experience of the cadet is gained at summer camp which he attends between his junior and senior years. This year the cadets had six weeks of intensified training at Fort George G. Meade. Infantry Airborne troops trained the men and the hustle of the Paratroopers kept them going at a steady rate at all times.

The cadets from W.M.C. made up the fourth platoon of "A" Company at camp and compiled a record of which any unit would be proud.

There have been numerous extra-curricular activities in the Cadet Corps this year. At the Homecoming celebration, the Homecoming Queen and her court were escorted by the Battalion Staff and Company Commanders of the Cadet Corps. In the spring, the Military Ball was sponsored by the cadets, who put tireless effort into the preparation necessary for a successful dance.

The value of the Reserve Officer Training Corps to the individual student, to his college, and to his country cannot be too strongly emphasized in times such as these. In the past, Western Maryland has provided the Army with fine officers and in the future will continue to teach her men not only the necessary knowledge but the qualities of good leadership which are essential to the national security.

RIFLE TEAM

This year's team was composed of 18 men under the coaching of Sergeant McRoberts and direction of our captain, Fred Hubach.

In shoulder matches we had a record of three wins and five losses. "Goose" Lambertson was high scorer with a 273 average.

In the second army match we placed tenth out of 65 competing teams, shooting 7141 out of a possible 8000. Fred Hubach was high man with a 734 out of 800.

We have qualified for the national match and are looking forward to making a successful record. The present range is to be renovated and should help the team's showing considerably.

THE CONCERT SERIES

Western Maryland's 1953-54 Concert Series included appearances by Ruth Draper, Howard Mitchell and the National Symphony Orchestra, and the National Operatic Sextet.

Miss Draper's performance in November was a delightful introduction to the possibilities of mono-theater. It is almost incredible that one woman could create and sustain entire stagefuls of characters so convincingly, not to mention having to compete with a fire siren for the attention of the audience as she was forced to do.

Early in February the National Symphony presented its annual concert at Western Maryland. The program was comprised of Dvorak's Carnival overture, Beethoven's Symphony No. 4, and the Scheherezade Suite of Rimsky-Korsakov.

The National Operatic Sextet concluded the season with a program of Mozart, Verdi, Donizetti, Puccini and others.

Students are admitted free to the events included in the Concert Series, the cost of which is covered by the student activities fee.

Some of the subsequent exhibits have featured examples of native African art from the collection of Mr. Albert Blum of Baltimore, and paintings and sculpture by Karl Metzler, also of Baltimore.

WINTER

WINTER is ushered in by the Christmas season with a sudden frenzied outbreak of activity. You have all your Christmas shopping to do and you want to get a job in the post office and you have all these tests to study for and parties to go to and your term paper is due pretty soon and who are you going to the Christmas Dance with.

WINTER means icy sidewalks and stalled cars and writing home for your galoshes and another blanket and gargling three times a day for Miss Stoner.

WINTER changes the most sophisticated college student into a shrieking six-year-old at recess time. Suddenly you're not nearly as grown up as you thought you were.

WINTER never fails to lure at least one would-be sculptor out of hiding. What's Dartmouth got that we couldn't have fixed?

WINTER has an aesthetic side too. It's when they take the pictures to put on the Christmas cards. Who but an old grad could get all choked up with emotion over a picture of The Hill, much less a picture of The Hill with a lot of snow on it.

“HARVEY”

Harvey was produced in Alumni Hall on November 20, 1954, by the College Players. It was directed by Miss Esther Smith, with settings by Donald Bailey. The title role was played by a six-foot white rabbit, star of the original Broadway production, who was imported at great trouble and expense through the courtesy of Actors' Equity.

The supporting cast was as follows:

Myrtle Mae Simmons	Carol Bauer
Veta Louise Simmons	Jane Hutchison
Elwood P. Dowd	Charles Wheatley
Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet	Betty Parsons
Ruth Kelly, R.N.	Ann Spears

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Executives of the Student Government Association for 1953-54 were: president, Arnold Hayward; vice-president, Patricia Herman; secretary, Harriett Cooley, and treasurer, Robert Dennie.

During Orientation Week, the S.G.A. worked with the Freshman Advisory Council and the Student Christian Association to introduce the Class of '57 to the college. The W.M.C. desk blotters and freshman handbooks were distributed at this time.

The formation of the Freshman Advisory Committee to help freshmen with the orientation activities and with their first semester's work, the organization of the Booster Committee to promote school spirit, and the reorganization of the Student-Faculty Committee to cement relations between students and administration were all Student Government projects.

Students were made aware of the work of the Cabinet by the minutes of meetings posted on the main bulletin board, a column in the Gold Bug, and general assemblies.

Homecoming found the S.G.A. hard at work behind the scenes, making this show-day bigger and better than ever.

In December the Rec Room was decorated and a Christmas tree set up in front of Old Main.

During second semester many projects were undertaken, among them an evaluation of the present chapel arrangement and the restoration of Carpe Diem. May Day arrived, and S.G.A. again readied the campus for the reigning queen and her court, and for the many guests.

The S.G.A. Cabinet feels that it has done much for the college and its students by spotlighting the "students" in Student Government.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

The College Players is comprised largely of Junior and Senior dramatic art students, working under the direction of Miss Esther Smith. The group presents three major productions a year—two three-act plays and a series of three one-act plays. Stage settings are designed by Donald Bailey and constructed under his supervision by the Juniors.

The work of the College Players, however, extends far beyond the few hours spent in front of the footlights. People come to the College Players to borrow everything from a Baby Herc spotlight for use at a dance to ersatz grass for a Homecoming float. Even the Players are lent on occasion—as make-up artists and drama critics for the theatrical productions of other campus groups. But most borrowed of all is Miss Smith herself. Her extra-curricular activities include stage direction for productions given in conjunction with the music department, putting the final polish on the Junior Follies, and teaching the education students how to be heard above the dull roar of the average classroom.

“College Players” is an old Latin term connoting endless hours of rehearsal, sleepless nights and dog-tired mornings, cold water to wash in when you get back to the dorm, greasepaint on your shirt collar, powder in your hair, the smell of new canvas and horse-foot glue eternally in your nostrils, and a genuine love of the theater in your heart.

THE COLLEGE CHOIR

The College Choir is one of the oldest musical organizations on campus. Year after year it has grown stronger and its singing more beautiful. This year it has reached new heights, under the direction of Professor Alfred DeLong and accompanied by Professor Oliver K. Spangler and Patricia Hammersley.

In conjunction with the Dramatic Art Department the Choir took part in the Christmas Vesper Service by presenting a portion of Handel's Messiah, ending with the familiar Hallelujah Chorus.

Wilde's opera, The Lowland Sea, was presented in April by the Choir and accompanied by the College Little Symphony Orchestra, and the Choir's culminating performance of the academic year was that of Gaul's oratorio, The Holy City.

THE COLLEGE LITTLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The College Little Symphony Orchestra is under the direction of Professor Philip S. Royer. This year on January 18, the orchestra presented a recital conducted by the student conductors of the twentieth conducting class. These students were: Lee Gongloff, Carol Herdman, Carol Bauer, Betty Niemann, Shirley Woodruff, and Betty Parsons.

To culminate the year's work, the orchestra, for the spring concert, presented Mozart's Violin Concerto in G Major, with Betty Parsons as soloist, and offered orchestral accompaniment for Wilder's opera, The Lowland Sea, which were presented first at the College, and then, at the request of the Alumni Association, at Eastern High School in Baltimore.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Women's Glee Club, composed of sixty members, is under the direction of Miss Evelyn Smith, with Miss Irma Lee Hohman as accompanist. The first presentation of the season was a program given in McDaniel Lounge for the American Association of University Women, which was repeated later for the entire student body in Alumni Hall. The program consisted of groups of various carols ending with a requested repeat performance of Benjamin Britten's "Ceremony of Carols." The soloists were Meta Justice, Carol Bauer, and Barbetha Goeb.

In the spring the Glee Club gave a concert for the college consisting of the Leibeslieder Waltzes by Brahms, Blessed Mademoiselle by DeBussy, and many others.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Men's Glee Club is an organization composed of about twenty men. We are under the direction of Mr. Oliver K. Spangler and accompanied by William Bevan. Membership is voluntary and purely for the enjoyment of group singing.

We entertain any clubs or groups which may request our services. This year we gave performances at the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church and joined with the Women's Glee Club in serenading the women's dormitories at Christmastime with the best-loved carols.

Concerts were also given in Pennsylvania and cities in the surrounding areas.

OCTETTE

The Girls' Octette is a group originally organized in 1950 for the T.V. Talent Tussle in which they took first place. This year the Octette has been called upon to perform at many events. The group travels with the Choir, performs at teas, sings in chapel and entertains at many other on-and-off-campus functions.

Student director of the Octette this year was Carol Herdman.

CAMPUS CAPERS

Campus Capers, a new addition to the Hill, has become an integral part of the college social life. It provides the musical entertainment at many of the school parties and dances.

Bill Ashburn, doubling on clarinet and sax, is a veteran dance band man. Charlie Bruno brings from New Jersey his superior accordion talent and musical knowledge. Dynamic rhythm is provided by Kirk Griffith on the drums, and the keyboard is superbly handled by Arnold Hayward, widely known for his piano interpretations. Dick Titlow, leader, gives balance to the band with his inimitable style on the bass.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Alpha is a national fraternity in philosophy. Its purpose is to recognize excellence in the study of philosophy and to foster further interest in philosophical study and discussion.

The chapter at Western Maryland is the Iota Chapter. Its officers are: Bob Steelman, president; Ellsworth Schabert, vice-president; and Bill Harvey, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. Reuben S. Holthaus, head of Western Maryland's department of Philosophy and Religion is the national president of Alpha Kappa Alpha and our advisor.

ARGONAUTS

The Argonaut Society is Western Maryland's honorary scholastic fraternity. Those Juniors and Seniors having a cumulative index of 2.1 or better are eligible for membership as Associates. At the end of seven semesters, Associates are inducted as Fellows if a cumulative index of 2.2 or better has been attained. The induction takes place at the society's formal spring banquet. All members of the faculty are invited to become honorary members. The sponsors are Dr. Isabel T. Isanogle and Dr. William Ridington.

BETA BETA BETA

The Alpha Mu Chapter of Beta Beta Beta, a national honor society for students interested in the biological sciences, was chartered in 1932. Membership in the society is reserved for those students excelling in subjects related to biology and having an overall superior academic record.

The purposes of Tri-Beta include promoting interest in and encouraging scholarly attainment in the field of biology. A contributing factor in this is the Milton Hendrickson Memorial Scholarship Fund which is awarded to a deserving member for use in summer study. Another project this year was the renovation of the spring house and pond here on campus for use by the faculty and students of the Biology Department.

The officers for the present year are: President, Larry Taylor; Vice President, Phil Lawyer; Secretary, Nancy McWilliams; Historian, Irene Pope; Treasurer and Faculty Advisor, Dr. H. P. Sturdivant, Head of the Biology Department. Meeting bi-monthly, the forty members hear special speakers, see interesting films, and engage in informal discussions on items of current interest. This year five members attended the National Biennial Convention in Boston where the Alpha Mu Chapter was the official host.

FRESHMAN ADVISORY COUNCIL

A new organization on the Hill this year, the Freshman Advisory Council was formed to assist freshmen in becoming oriented to college life. Working from the original suggestion of Charles Calary, the program was planned by the Student Government Association, Dean Howery, and Dean David.

The group consisted of thirty-one sophomores and juniors, chosen on the basis of scholastic and extra-curricular achievements. Under the co-chairmanship of Jim Whitehurst and Harriett Cooley, the upperclassmen were on hand to greet their individual groups of advisees. It was their task to help the freshmen through the "ordeals" of Orientation Week and their first semester.

Having been successful during this experimental period, it is hoped that the F.A.C. will continue as an important organization on campus.

THE CLASSICS CLUB

The Classics Club is under the sponsorship of Dr. William Ridington. Its purpose is to develop a friendly interest in the classics in general, and to study classical cultures and their influence on modern life.

There are two classes of members: full members are those who are studying Latin or Greek, or who have had two years of these languages, while associates are those who are interested in the classics but who have not had Latin or Greek.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais meets on the second Monday evening of each month in McDaniel Lounge. The purpose of this club is to enable students to enjoy and take part in social activities conducted in the French language. The club's executives are: Miss Margaret Snader, sponsor; Betty Norwood, president; Larry Crist, vice-president; Anne Marie Summers, secretary; and Douglas Shreve, treasurer.

Activities this year began in October with a presentation of Le Petit Malade of George Courteline and of 8 Chevaux, 4 cylindres et pas de truites of Jean Jacques Bernard. December brought the traditional Christmas program, Chansons de Noel, a chorus of 80 voices and an impressive highlight of the year.

Second semester's activities included the annual Bingo party, and a visit by Dr. Albert Bachman of the Language Department at Gettysburg College, with the spring play in May as a climax to the year.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

President of the Future Teachers of America for 1953-54 was William Pfeiffer, and delegate to the Maryland State Teachers Meeting was Bob Leather.

FTA took second place in the Homecoming Parade with a float entitled Western Maryland Measures Up.

The workshop was redecorated by a group of students from the Basic Methods class, under the capable direction of Joan (Simon Legree) Burrier. Other activities for the year included joint meetings with chapters from neighboring counties. Daily gripe sessions were held in the college grille, as always, by those members in the throes of their education semester.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The first meeting of the year was a "welcome" party for the freshmen. Either the delicious refreshments or the ultra-modern stove proved an attraction for a large and enthusiastic group of girls. Our Homecoming banner had the slogan "Football Woven Into the Fabric of the Nation". To those of us who worked on it, the banner looked beautiful. One of our goals this year has been the upholstering of a Victorian sofa for our use in the management house. Our "Parcel Post Party", along with a benefit movie, contributed toward the cause. In January, tailored dresses, suits, and coats from the Simplicity College Wardrobe were modeled at a fashion show, thus ending our work of first semester.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association is the governing body for the religious groups and activities on campus, this year under the leadership of its advisor, Dr. Crain, and its President, Betty Parsons.

The new participation requirement gave the students the choice of becoming active or associate members. Active members received recognition and cards when they met the attendance requirements and joined a commission.

The Christian Faith and Heritage Commission presented the annual vesper service during Orientation Week, and planned the weekly programs throughout the year, including the Christmas Candlelight Communion.

The World Relatedness Commission sponsored the Student-Faculty basketball game, the WUS Bazaar, and the WUS Fund drive; the receipts of these going toward a scholarship and for a TB sanatorium in India.

The Shipwreck dance, the varied Firesides, and programs relating to student problems were the contributions of the Personal and Campus Affairs Commission.

Programs of racial relations, religious faiths, and community service projects were planned by the Social Responsibility Commission.

The annual Religious Emphasis Week was led this year by the Rev. Gordon Lowden, assisted by Wally Wiser and Marjean Linn.

SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP

The Fellowship welcomes men and women of all denominations to its number. This year its presidency has been filled by Richard Brennehan. Betty Parsons has served as choir director and Dr. Charles Crain as faculty advisor.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

Throughout the school year, the M.S.M. works closely with the Methodist Church of Westminster. Freshman Methodist students were entertained at a square dance given in the fall by the church. Rev. Hodgson of the Westminster Church and Dr. Hazzard of the Seminary spoke at two of our monthly meetings.

Other activities for the year included the annual banquet at the church in February, and the presentation of a pageant in the church's Lenten program. The annual Chesapeake Regional M.S.M. Conference, held this year at Western Maryland, was the culmination of the year's work.

Officers of M.S.M. for the current academic year were: Paul Galvin, president; Nancy McWilliams, vice-president; Howard Shores, treasurer; and Irma Lee Hohmann, organist.

WESLEYANETTES

The Wesleyanettes are an active inter-denominational group of college women. Our friend and advisor, Mrs. Chandler, welcomed us into her home and was always ready to offer help to our group and its officers: Dorothy Krug, President; Millie Eckhardt, Vice-President; Barbara Hoot, Secretary; and Mary Warner, Treasurer.

Betty Niemann was chairman of our worship services while Martha Nicholson led in planning the programs of stimulating speakers and group fellowships.

Our year was begun with the traditional candlelight service. We joined with the Wesleyans for our annual Christmas party and toured the Church World Service Center in New Windsor. Making baby layettes to be sent overseas for needy children offered an opportunity of worthwhile fun for all.

Our vesper service and the farewell banquet marked the close of another year on the Hill.

WESLEYANS

The Wesleyans are a group of college men, many of whom are looking forward to entering the pastorate. Over the past year, the Wesleyans have looked forward to those activities which they have traditionally shared with the Wesleyanettes. The meetings are held in the Seminary chapel on Friday evenings.

The president of the organization is Ellsworth Schabert with Alan Hagenbuch as vice-president and Michael Leftwich as secretary-treasurer.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club began this, its sixth year on the Hill, with a picnic at Harvey Stone Park. Communion on special days in the Chapel and Communion Breakfasts on several Sundays brought the members together in worship. Outside speakers from surrounding localities provided the group with interesting talks and discussions. Activities for the year included the annual spaghetti dinner, a trip to the convent at Catonsville, an Intercollegiate Conference sponsored here on campus, and representation at the Tri-Diocesan Conference in Washington. The club also joined the Methodist and Lutheran students in preparing a Homecoming display.

The Reverend Austin Schildwacter and Mr. deLong helped the group plan their activities. The officers for the year were: Laura Leigh Kine, President; Doreen McNeil, Vice-President; and Betty Shepherd, Secretary-Treasurer.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association began a successful year by sponsoring a booth in the W.U.S. Bazaar.

Meetings were held in McDaniel Lounge or down at the parsonage. In the fall we met with several social leaders who helped in planning activities for the club.

The annual spaghetti dinner was a big success, thanks to Pastor Falkenstein's famous spaghetti sauce.

The final event of the year was a picnic at the Logan Cottage at Pine Grove Furnace.

During the entire year, the Reverend Elwood Falkenstein of the Grace Lutheran Church was our capable advisor in religious and social activities. Student officers were: Dorothy Rach, President; and Joan Luckabaugh, Secretary-Treasurer.

D. Palmer (President). Left to right: C. Mueller, M. Thorney, J. Luckabaugh, D. Rach, R. Rydinger.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club, under the sponsorship of Dr. Theodore M. Whitfield, held some extremely interesting discussions pertaining to world affairs.

With a membership of twenty-nine members, the group has had excellent attendance at its bi-monthly meetings.

Officers for the current year were: William Holland, president; Bill Adams, vice-president; and Gale Kerr, secretary-treasurer.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The B.S.U. is a new organization on the Hill. It consists of a group of Baptists who have organized at Western Maryland for Christian fellowship with other members of their faith.

The first meeting was held on November 11, 1953. Previous to this gathering letters were sent out to all Baptist students in which aims and purposes for this proposed organization were stated. Included also in the letter was an invitation to all those interested in attending.

After the organization of the B.S.U. was completed, an excellent speaker was invited from the Southern Baptist Convention. The speaker, Mr. Newton, came and brought many ideas to the group. Literature was given out and is now being used for the furthering of its activities.

TRUMPETERS

"For if the Trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for battle?"

The Western Maryland Trumpeters claim this quotation as their motto. This organization is an honorary society whose members are chosen on a point basis according to leadership in extra-curricular activities. They are rated on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and citizenship.

Perk Parsons and Pasty Herman, Trumpeters of the Class of '54, were selected last Spring by the graduating members. Under the guidance of their sponsor, Dr. Isabelle Isanogle, they began their senior year by assisting with Freshmen Orientation.

When Christmas time rolled around, the Trumpeters prepared for the Christmas banquet with the aid of a group of undergraduate women.

These girls met with the freshmen women to explain their organization and encouraged participation in extra-curricular activities.

NEW TRUMPETERS are chosen from among the women of the Junior Class at traditional spring Tapping Ceremony.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council represents the four fraternities here on the Hill. The membership consists of the four fraternity presidents and a senior and junior representative from each club. Offices in the Council are filled by a rotation system among the four fraternities.

During the first semester the officers were: President, Lou Jordan; Vice-President, John Thomas; Secretary, Fred Hubach; Treasurer, Bill Pfeifer. Starting with the academic year 1953-54, the President of the Council represents the fraternities in the Social Activities Committee. Through this office it was possible for the Interfraternity Council to change the deadline for having Gill Gymnasium cleaned after a dance—from Sunday noon to Monday morning. The Council also regulated such activities as the intramural sports program, smokers, and bidding.

The Council passed a resolution to do away with Pan Hellenic Council sponsorship of the annual May Day Dance, starting the new system in 1955. This new system would be the addition of the May Day Dance to the rotational dance calendar of the fraternities. The Council re-ratified the old set of rules governing the eligibility of fraternity members in intramural sports.

INTERSORORITY COUNCIL

The Intersorority Council is composed of representatives from each of the four sororities on the Hill. These representatives include the four sorority presidents and a junior representative from each group. The officers are delegated by means of an annual rotation system.

The Council established a new method of accepting sorority bids, to be effective in the fall of 1954. As in preceding years, they sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins dance in Blanche Ward Gym. The scholastic cup was presented at a tea in November to the Delts, and the second tea sponsored by the Council was held in December for all transfer students. In order to prepare the Seniors for their early a.m. carolling at Christmas time the Junior members served refreshments at four in the morning. Second semester brought the traditional basketball and bridge tournaments, and the customary meeting with the Freshman women in McDaniel Lounge at which representatives of each of the four sororities answer any questions the Freshmen may have regarding club dues, initiation fees, and other phases of sorority life. The year's activities were brought to a close with the annual Intersorority Picnic in Harvey Stone Park.

First semester officers were: Laura Leigh Kline, President; Nancy Bayliss, Vice-President; Lois Cermak, Secretary; Betty Parsons, Treasurer.

DELTA SIGMA KAPPA

This year may well be termed unique for Delta Sigma Kappa. With only six remaining members, the clubroom seemed all too empty. Things looked dark for a while, but they brightened when we welcomed Miss Sleeper as our sponsor and received ten pledges. (They were a worried group for a while on "Hell Night", when the law threatened disaster. Weren't we a mean Six?!) Then with sixteen members, we launched into the events of the year with Nan Bayliss leading the way as prexy. In spite of our size we were still strong and proved it by making second place on our Homecoming Day display.

Our ego was boosted again when we were awarded the S.G.A. Scholastic Cup for the year 1952-53.

The Baby Delts, after surviving "Hell Week", found among their first contributions to the club, collecting toys for underprivileged children, helping with our holiday baskets (including two trips to the market for the lost turkey!), playing basketball, even though some doubted what it was all about, playing "Goo, Goo, Guess Who" at the W.U.S. bazaar, and "pouring" at teas. They proved to be a talented ten, too, at our Christmas party along with being artistic. The decorations were beautiful.

There was mid-semester bidding, the tea, a sorority project, the rush party, and commencement (just for two this year), and all the other happenings which make a college year exciting. It was a good year and next year will be too!

THE DIRTY DELTS provide Hell Week entertainment.

IOTA GAMMA CHI

New germs, new projects and new songs, plus the same old spirit briefly tell the story of another successful year for the Iotes.

Eight germs survived "Hell Week" and made us proud of them by aiding their sisters in our many endeavors.

"Dragnet" provided the theme for our Homecoming display—"Only the Score Has Been Changed to Beat P.M.C." We greeted many friends, alumnae and parents at the "Open house."

A Thanksgiving basket was sent to a needy family which we adopted, and we saw to it that Santa didn't forget the children in the family at Christmas.

Several Iotes went to Montrose School for Girls each Sunday to help with the Sunday School Work, and we all sent Christmas cards to the girls there.

This year, as before, the sorority sponsored a scholarship for a foreign student by selling stationery and greeting cards.

The Iotes were in charge of one of the pep rallies, something new this year. Also new was our side show at the WUS bazaar.

Again this year the Iotes played in the basketball tournament and nursed stiff muscles and joints afterwards.

Seated: J. Nicodemus, B. Myers, L. Kline, D. Krug. Standing: J. Boller, J. Mister, S. Jeffreys.

Social functions had their place on our calendar, as usual. The Alumnae Banquet was held at Hochschild, Kohn's in Baltimore in the fall, and the annual sorority banquet at Hoffman's was enjoyed by all.

The Rush Tea was fun and our annual Alumnae Tea in the spring brought back many of the grads; it was grand to see them once again.

The Rush Party at Big Pipe Creek Park brought freshmen and Iotes together for a gay time of roller skating, refreshments and entertainment.

The arrival of May and our Iote yearbooks reminded us that another year was drawing to a close. We said goodbye to the seven departing seniors and to all of the underclassmen until next fall, with the feeling that the past year had been a good one for the Iotes and that the coming years would be even better.

NEW GERMS SOUND OFF. Leading the singing (back to camera) is Gwen Blohm, second semester president.

PHI ALPHA MU

The 1953 school year started off big with the entrance of twenty-seven new "calves" and a new sponsor, Mrs. Charles Crouch. What a party we had that night!

Under the leadership of our first semester officers: president, Lois Cermak; vice-president, Marjorie Cherry; secretary, Adeline Allen; treasurer, Carol Herdman; chaplain, Barbara Almony; sergeant-at-arms, Barbara Harding; and alumnae secretary, Mimi Whitfield, we kept up the Phi Alph traditions.

With so many helpers, our Homecoming project were finished in no time, and who will ever forget our float with the real cow? (Purple, of course.) Three Phi Alphas graced the Homecoming Court, one reigning as Queen!

We outdid ourselves on the Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, and enjoyed our annual Christmas party given by our Gamma Bete brothers. Also adding to the Christmas spirit was our own party in the clubroom which was festively decorated by the sophomores.

"Sandwiches on second" is still a familiar Phi Alph cry, but with the new year we adopted a new war orphan, a little Korean girl.

Second semester's officers were installed at our formal January banquet at Schottie's, and second semester's activities included intersorority basketball and bridge, our annual freshman tea and "hobo" rush party, the senior theater party, and the senior banquet in May which closed another never-to-be-forgotten year in the memories of the "sisters of Phi Alpha Mu."

THE PHI ALPH CALVES moo loudly in tribute to the aesthetic ideals of Phi Alpha Mu.

SIGMA SIGMA TAU

Dear Sigmas:

At the beginning of the year we Seniors thought Graduation would never come—it seemed so far away. But now that we are on the threshold of a new phase of life, we realize how short this year has been—and how successful.

We recall with pleasure the happy hours spent with you in the clubroom—the new “skunks” during initiation week — Homecoming — the Christmas party, tea, rush party, and May Day.

We remember the spirit of cooperation and loyalty that was present, and it is our hope that these good qualities will remain a vital part of your campus and sorority life.

It has been our privilege to have you as our sorority sisters, and we wish for you happiness, success and good fortune in all your future endeavors.

Fide et amore,

ALPHA GAMMA TAU

Alpha Gamma Tau fraternity began its twenty-ninth year of active participation in the college community with the return of twenty-two members to school last September. Officers for the first semester included John Thomas, president; Jack Urion, vice-president; Harry Grander, secretary; Bert Springstead, treasurer; Larry Lockhart, chaplain; and George Antonas, sergeant-at-arms.

The semester's pledging activities began with the annual smoker, featuring Judge Charles Moylan as speaker, held in the clubroom October 19. Later in the month twenty-four bids were accepted, and on November 10, the pledges were welcomed into full fraternity membership.

The annual Bachelor Alumni Banquet was held Homecoming evening at Frocks and was attended by many. Another highly successful event, The Christmas Dance, was held in Gill Gym on December 12. The policy of giving food for a needy family was begun at Thanksgiving and continued at Christmas and also at Easter.

On January 12, the fraternity held its traditional banquet at Grandview Inn near Reisters-town at which officers for 2nd semester were elected.

"Drink to the girl who will never be mine . . .
 Drink to the road that I roam . . .
 Drink to . . ."

With the coming of spring, the club members enjoyed several outdoor picnics and had the pleasure of entertaining their sister sorority, Delta Sigma Kappa.

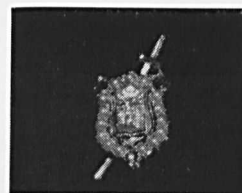

SOME GUY WITH AN ANIMAL ACT crashed our Xmas dance.

DELTA PI ALPHA

The Preacher Fraternity held its initial meeting of the college year on Tuesday, September 29. Officers for the first semester were: Bill Pfeifer, president; Bill Campbell, vice president; Pat Rogan, secretary; Larry Taylor, treasurer; Larry Crist, chaplain; Jim Tone, sergeant-at-arms and Al Wahlers, corresponding secretary.

Dr. Charles D. Phillips, head of the Economics Department, consented to fill the sponsorship left vacant by Dr. Thomas F. Marshall, who has taken a year's leave of absence to teach in Greece.

During football season the Preachers took charge of the refreshment concession on Hoffa Field, and placed second in the intramural games.

At Christmas the club sent Christmas cards, donated several baskets of food to needy families in town, and sponsored a booth at the W.U.S. Bazaar.

ΔΠΑ held its first semester banquet at Frock's Farm, at which time the second semester's officers were formally installed. Honored guests were Captain Thornton, Dr. Holthaus, Professor Adkins, honorary member Jim Boyer, and our sponsor, Dr. Phillips.

Seated: J. Tone, W. Pfeifer, W. Campbell. Standing: L. Crist, L. Taylor, P. Rogan, A. Wahlers.

Getting into the social swim, the Preachers gave a tea dance in March for the brothers and their dates. The dance was held in the clubroom.

Later in the year Delta Pi Alpha annexed the mechanical drawing lab next door, which had been vacated by Mrs. Marshall, and, with the addition of a new piano and a ping-pong table, turned it into a rumpus room. This convenient arrangement makes life a lot easier for the television viewers in the clubroom proper.

As in the past, Delta Pi Alpha provided leadership in varsity sports. This season the Purple and Gold claimed the captains of football, basketball, baseball, wrestling and track.

Delta Pi Alpha extends sincere best wishes to its graduating seniors.

Murphy always did like to do things in a big way.

GAMMA BETA CHI

Gamma Beta Chi started off the new school year in rousing fashion with an "informal meeting" last September at the American Legion post in Westminster. Stories of Ft. Meade and other summer experiences were exchanged. During this first business meeting of 1953-54, Capt. Crouch, of WMC's Military Department, was chosen to be Gamma Beta Chi's new faculty advisor.

First project of the year was a re-decorating of the Alumni Hall clubroom. The floor was refinished, new venetian blinds procured for the windows, and the furniture was re-arranged in a new seating pattern.

GBX sponsored and put on a pep rally and bonfire before the Lafayette game. The annual Homecoming banquet at Frock's brought back many Gamma Betes of former days on the Hill.

Everyone had a good time at the annual smoker in the clubroom, and the next week nine pledges were added to the fraternity roster. They became full-fledged Gamma Betes after living thru Pledge Week and "Hell Night" . . .

GBX's welfare chairman promoted a full Thanksgiving dinner with "all the trimmings" for a needy Westminster family during the holiday. The club also sponsored a booth in the W.U.S. bazaar, and helped out with entertainment for the March of Dimes benefit.

Seated: Dennie, Wheatley, Downes, Gernand, Levay, Chambers, Lambertson, Gwynn, Haut, Hubach, Ruehl. 2nd row: Capt. Crouch, Pickus, Lamar, Tribby, Bruno, Clark, Palmer, Etzler, Harrison, Gipe, Wallace, Hagenbuch, Davis, Monninger. 3rd row: Eckhardt, Bliss, Herzog, Broadhurst, Howell, Whitehurst, Crush, Marshall, Bettars, Schmall, Smith, Taitt, Posey.

All the Gamma Betes entered into the spirit of the holiday season by promoting the sale of Christmas cards on campus, and by giving a big Christmas dinner to a needy family (and even toys for the kids!).

Just before the Big Vacation, GBX's Phi Alpha sisters were feted at a Christmas party in the clubroom. In honor of the arrival of Santa Claus, some of the more energetic brothers re-arranged the furniture again. Capt. Crouch's present was gratefully received; it has seen constant use since . . .

With exams pending in January, the brothers pitched in to prepare for the "mid-year Hop." Rivers Chambers orchestra and an "Evening in Hades" theme provided a good time for all, and brought the first semester to an eventful close. . .

Club projects don't take up all the club's time, for the brothers are frequent visitors to lobbies in McDaniel and Blanche Ward. Red and blue teams have provided strong competition in all intramural sports; a lot of fun was had, even though "you can't win 'em all."

THE BROTHERS take five from crêpe-hanging to jazz it up.

First semester officers:

Fred Hubach—president
Spike Dennie—vice-president
Don Chambers—secretary
Don Haut—treasurer
Carville Downes—Beta Pi
Ken Ruehl—chaplain
Nick Gwynn—sergeant-at-arms

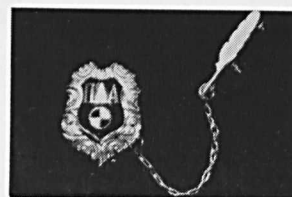

Seated: D. Haut, F. Hubach, D. Chambers. Standing: N. Gwynn, K. Ruehl, R. Dennie, C. Downes.

PI ALPHA ALPHA

Pi Alpha Alpha got off to a fresh start for the school year of 1953-54. A fresh coat of paint on the clubroom that is.

We also knew we needed good leaders because we were in charge of the Homecoming dance, the biggest social event of the year at W.M.C. And believe me, we had them — president, Lou Jordan; vice-president, Chick Silberstein, corresponding secretary, Ellis Shabert; recording secretary, Bob Leather; treasurer, Don Hensler; Delta, Al Barnes; and chaplain, Paul Galvin.

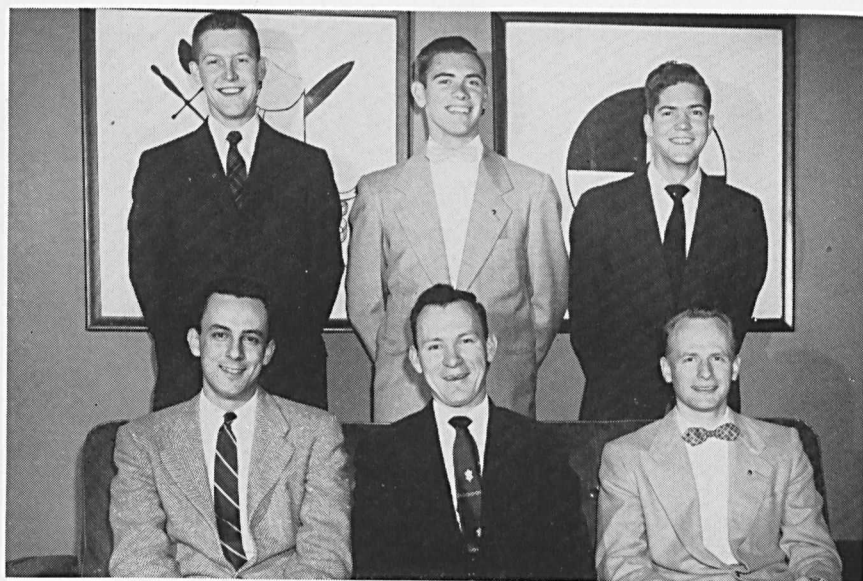

Having a small group to start off with, we know we needed a large number of recruits to help with Homecoming. So after an excellent smoker with Dr. Makosky quoting a litter of rollicking limericks, we gained 19 new pledges.

After suffering through a week of sorely felt inferiority, these pledges were accepted formally into the fraternity.

The Christmas tradition was upheld by a party with the Sigmas. Santa Claus in person came to distribute the gifts.

Leadership was definitely Pi Alpha Alpha's distinguishing characteristic this year. Arnold Hayward was S.G.A. President, and we were well represented in all other campus activities and organizations.

Seated: C. Silbertein, L. Jordan, E. Schabert. Standing: P. Galvin, A. Barnes, R. Leather.

DR. MAKOSKY does the honors for IIAA.

Since 1890— A Maryland Tradition

Maryland's heritage is one of fine homes, gracious living, and generations of great citizens, many of whom have and are contributing materially to the growth and welfare of the nation.

Since 1890, it has been our proud and happy privilege to be accepted into the finest of Maryland homes. This acceptance has grown with the State and with the generations we have helped nurture into gracious womanhood and stalwart manhood.

BLUFF KING HAL never had it so good. Tripping the light fantastic are a dozen of shortest (for security reasons) girls on campus.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS lead a hard life, don't they? Look what ours has been roped into doing this time.

DOWN THE AISLE come Miss Barbara Spangler, flower girl, and Master Russ DeCourcy clutching the Queen's crown.

SOMETHING NEW in the way of May Day festivity was the parade through downtown Westminster. Against a backdrop of about a million carnations made out of Kleenex and any number of innocent bystanders we see the pulchritude of Western Maryland . . .

FOUR FORMER QUEENS and two heralds . . .

1954 MAY COURT throwing blossoms to the spectators, and . . .

THESE LOVELIES who just came along for the ride.

It must be nice to be YOUNG AT HEART

AH, YOUTH . . .

Sweet young things and best beaux waltz about, oblivious to everything but each other, while . . .

WEIGHTY PROBLEMS OF THE WORLD are being settled in the faculty corner.

HER HIGHNESS, QUEEN NANCY-ANN and friend cut royal rug.

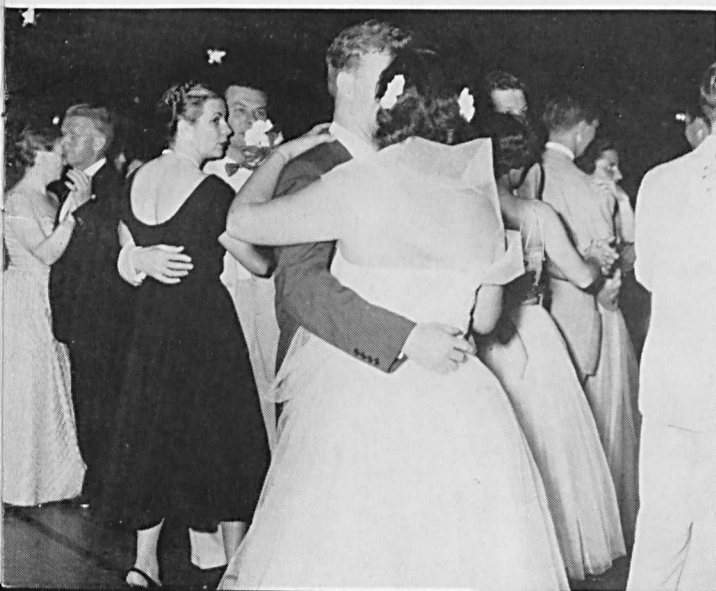

MEXICAN HAT DANCE, a campus favorite among those who are still sound in wind and limb, calls for . . .

A HORSE'S NECK at one of the conveniently located ringside tables, or . . .

A BREATH OF FRESH AIR for those who are too fagged to haggle over seats.

GOODNIGHT SWEETHEART finds everybody feeling considerably less youthful than when the evening began, but wasn't it a swell dance?

ALOHA'S VOTE for best single performance of 1953-54 College Players goes to Pete Posey for his very sensitive interpretation of title role in Cantillon's Pierrot Before the Seven Doors.

DRINKING SCENE between Harlequin (Daniel Yeoman), Pierrot and Punch (David Balcom) was one of the play's high spots.

SHOW-STOPPER in all-girl cast of Uplifting Sadie was sophomore Nancy Pennypacker as indignant colored cook.

THE POT BOILER, by Alice Gerstenberg, featured Bill Harvey as irascible, leather-lunged author and director Thomas Pinikles Sud, Don Horowitz as awe-struck novice Harold Wouldby.

HELL HATH NO FURY LIKE A WOMAN SCORNE . . . as villain Charlie Fessenden learns to his chagrin. Deep-dyed villainess Bunting lets him have it with both barrels.

IN LIEU OF CURTAIN CALL the hero, the father, the heroine, the villain and the vampire mutiny and fire on the author.

THE LOWLAND SEA

Presented by the Department of Music on April 22-23.

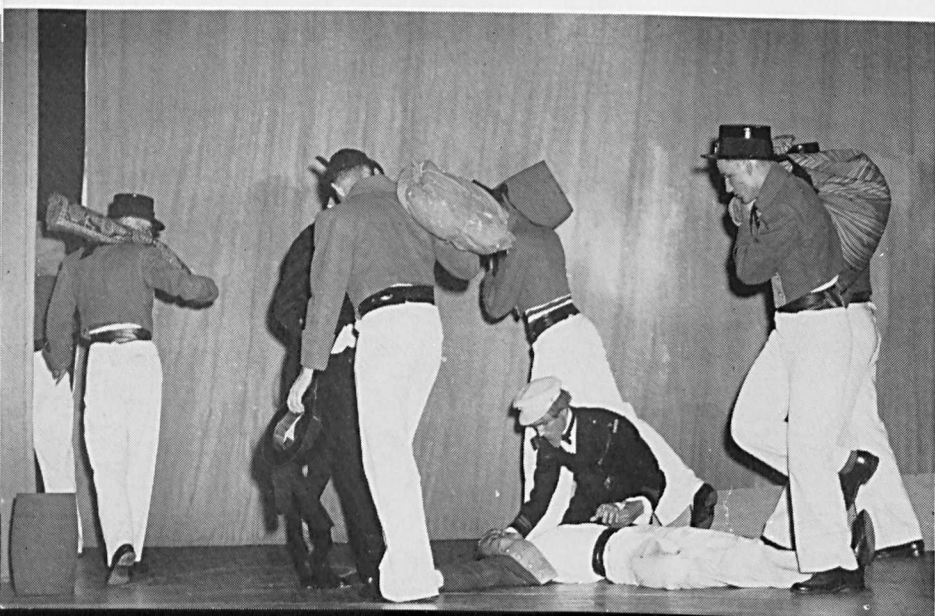

Music Alec Wilder

Libretto Arnold Sundgaard

IN SCARLETTOWN, tenor Johnny Dee has come to say goodbye to his sweetheart, soprano Dorie Davis, prior to embarking on two-year voyage to Singapore. In $\frac{3}{4}$ time he expresses foregone conclusion that she will wait for him.

AT DOCKSIDE, sailors bid fond farewells to mothers, wives, sisters, sweethearts and so on. Practically the entire male population of Scarlettown seems to be shipping over.

LATER, IN SINGAPORE, after bellowing out two lusty choruses of "Leavin' This Shore Tonight", Johnny clutches stomach and slumps dramatically to the floor. Ship's doctor diagnoses case as malaria, forbids his sailing home to Scarlettown with ship-mates.

Above: ON VOYAGE HOME the ship is lost with all hands aboard. Dorie Davis, hearing the news, naturally assumes Johnny to have perished with the rest (little knowing that in reality he has missed the boat), marries wealthy (baritone) widower with three children.

Left: JOHNNY DEE, coming home at last after an absence of three years to find sweetheart married to wealthy widower, picks up duffle bag and gallantly ships over again. Everybody lives unhappily ever after (see cut) until . . .

SPRING SPORTS

BASEBALL

Banner year:

Displaying an outstanding young team, Coach Jim Boyer's diamondmen finished second in the Mason-Dixon Conference with a 9-3 record—17-5 overall. The turning point to a really successful championship came in a rained-out game against Washington College—this game probably decided the title.

Freshman first baseman Al Miller was one of the finest long hitters to play for WMC in years. He and Charlie White were observed by major league scouts. At Catholic U. Miller hit two tremendous four-baggers—one close to 400 feet. Miller (.439) and White (.435) led the team in runs batted in, with 26 and 24 respectively. Pitchers Bill Clem (6-1) and Walt Sanders (4-2) posted especially fine records.

The only player lost through graduation was Dick Linton. Coach Boyer will find his young team returning intact: Miller at first, Moylan at second, Jackson at third, Harmon short stopping, Rausch, Savarese and Jones in the outfield, White behind the plate and Clem and Sanders on the mound.

(Not Photographed)

Coach Dick Harlow's track squad enjoyed a winning season with three wins and two losses. Senior co-captain Pat Rogan won every high hurdle match except Bridgewater. Junior co-captain Jack Duhl, shotput and discus mainstay, collected a total of 49 points, placing second in overall point collection (Tom Englar was high man.)

Outstanding individual performance of the season was Freshman Bob Butler's winning the Mt. St. Mary's 880 relay with a beautiful sprint as anchor man, picking up a ten to fifteen yard deficit to win by five yards. However, Stan Entwistle's 2-minute, 7-second half mile at Catholic U. is considered pretty good time.

Despite a season in which no wins were scored, Coach Bruce Ferguson's men showed a great deal of spirit. It was disappointing to note that fewer than twenty-five responded to the call and not many showed up for practices. Continual injuries to Carville Downes and "Wink" Winkleman may have been determining factors in the team's lack of success.

Scoring 16 goals in all, the Ferguson men were led by Downes with 4 goals, 1 assist; Don Radcliffe 4 goals; Bob Radcliffe 3 goals; Skip Berends 2 goals, 1 assist; Frank Robie 2, and Ed Kane 1 goal. Goalie Winkleman averaged 25 saves a game.

GOLF

Coach "Jolly Cholly" Havens' linksters, undefeated in Conference play (4-0), ended the season with an overall 6-3 record. Seniors Bob Steelman (Captain) and Dick Carvel were undefeated. Featuring its most balanced team in years, the Havensmen captured second prize in the Mason-Dixon Tournament at Baltimore's tough Mt. Pleasant, finishing after Loyola. Hill and Carvel were low medalists for WMC. In the Western Maryland Invitation Tourney the WM divot-diggers finished second to Juniata, with Steelman as low man—Steelman, incidentally, was low medalist for the year.

TENNIS

(Not Photographed)

Western Maryland's tennis team closed the current season with a 6-3 conference record and 6-6 overall, having lost last two matches 5-4. Coach Frank Hurt's netmen finished third in the northern division of the Mason-Dixon League. Captain Chick Silberstein was number one man. Ray Davis, the team's most successful player with a 9-3 record, climaxed a fine season by defeating Delaware's smooth-stroking number one man in a long 2½ hour match. Senior Merrill Trader ended his college career showing a 7-5 record. Henry Taitt (8-4) displayed great tennis on two occasions by defeating previously unbeaten Steve Yost of Hopkins.

SENIOR INVESTITURE

LIKE COD FISH CAKES and chapel, Senior Investiture is a fine old Western Maryland tradition. For eighty-four senior classes it has marked the beginning of the end . . .

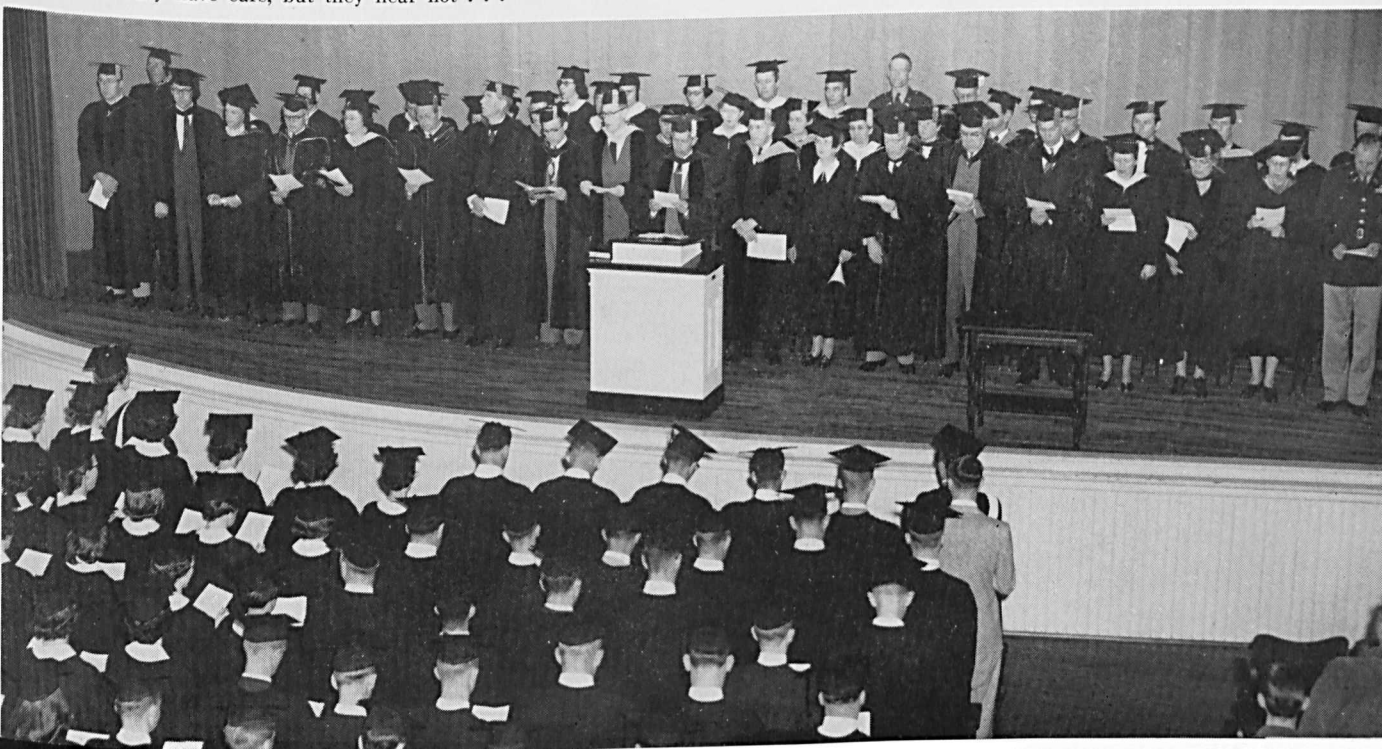

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT Charles Wheatley is invested by Dr. Ensor with the academic costume.

DR. HARWELL P. STURDIVANT, head of Western Maryland's biology department, delivers the address to the Class of 1954. Investiture speaker's identity is traditionally kept secret until the moment of his introduction from the platform.

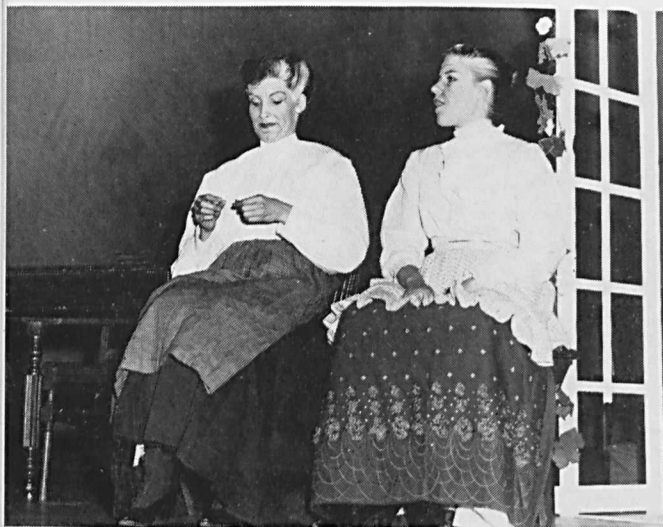

ORDER OF SERVICE itself is traditionally the same as used in 1871 by President James Thomas Ward. Scripture reading (Psalm CXV) was as appropriate for college seniors then as now . . . " . . . Eyes have they, but they see not. They have ears, but they hear not . . . "

THORNTON WILDER

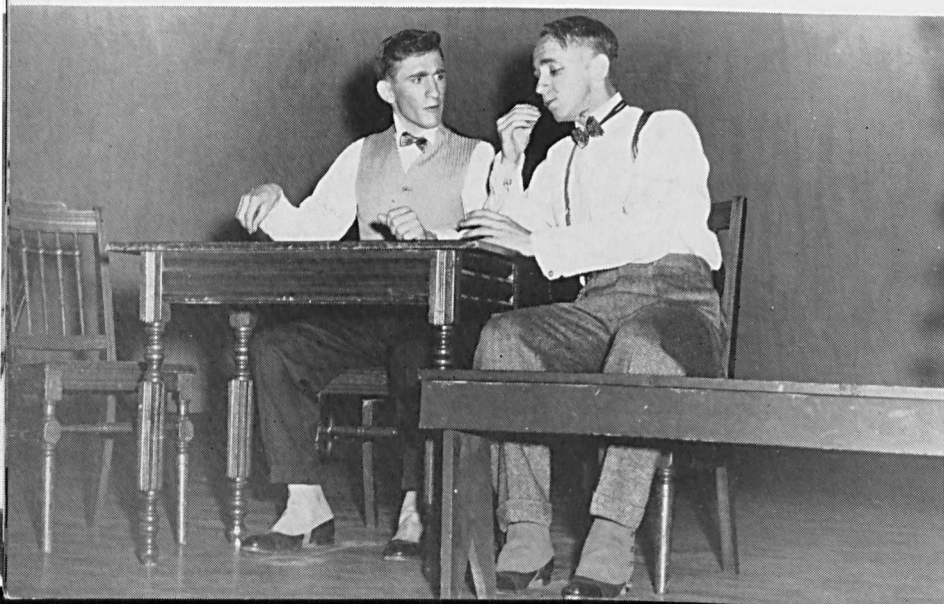

BONA FIDE NEW-ENGLANDER Ken Ruehl played leading role in this production as Wilder's homespun Stage Manager, gave by far the best performance of his college career.

GIBBS AND WEBB FAMILIES, their lives and hard times, provided theme of play. Here Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Webb get together for bean-stringing and small talk.

BOY DISCOVERS GIRL, and vice versa, over a couple of imaginary strawberry sodas—Emily played by Jane Collins and George by Pete Posey.

MAN-TO-MAN TALK between father of bride (Charles Wheatley) and groom-to-be provided some of play's best moments. Absence of hand props proved a real challenge to the actors here, as elsewhere.

PRE-NUPTIAL THOUGHTS of bride and groom on the way to the altar added note of poignancy to wedding ceremony, which was by no means lost on those members of the audience planning to take the fatal step in the near future.

RELIEVED AND RADIANT, George and Emily leave the church to accompaniment of Mendelssohn and Mrs. Soames (left, played by Carol Bauer), to establish a new household in Grovers' Corners, N. H.

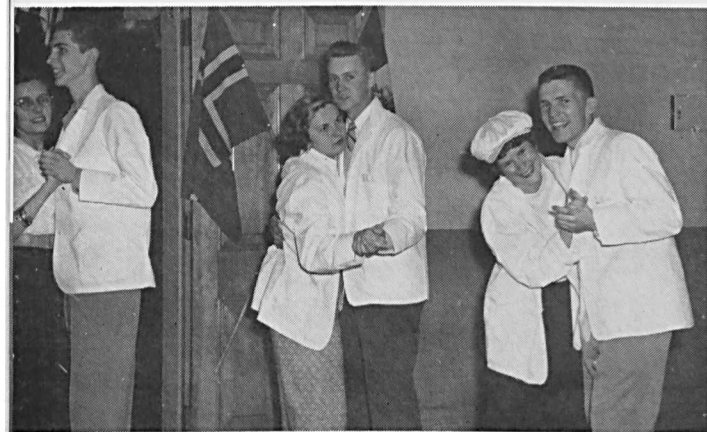

NINE YEARS LATER Emily dies in childbirth. She takes her place among the dead on Cemetery Hill as mourners sing her favorite hymn, Blessed Be the Tie That Binds.

EMILY LIVES AGAIN one day of her life, play's most moving scene, and comes to realize that life is wasted on those who are living it. In desperation she pleads "Take me back — up the hill — to my grave."

say!... remember the time...

... it rained for 40 days and 40 nights and there wasn't a dry pair of socks left on the whole campus?

... at the Military Ball when the waiters got to jazzing it up with the waitresses? They had more fun than anybody except ...

... the Ensors doing the Hokey-Poke.

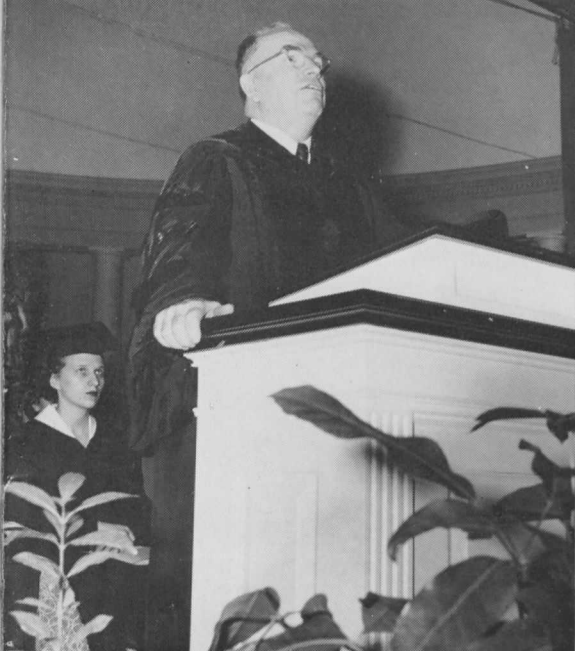

... of the Great Flag-Raising Incident? We had a real Jefferson Davis-type rhubarb. But where did it get us? Just about as far as it got Jefferson Davis.

... in the interlude between supper and quarter-to-seven when the movies opened? We'd always sit around on Old Main steps and sing, ogle, or just socialize generally.

And last, but by no means least, remember the day the yearbooks came out? Here's an exclusive of the staff wading ashore at Eastview (our little boat having just sunk slowly in the west). ALOHA!!

BISHOP G. BROMLEY OXNAM, D.D., LL.D., Litt.D. of the Washington Area of the Methodist Church delivers the Commencement Address. (Say, he must be pretty important, Bill . . . Yeah? . . . Yeah. He's been investigated, hasn't he?)

WESTERN MARYLAND'S EIGHTY-FOURTH COMMENCEMENT—MAY 31, 1954

THIS IS IT. No more term papers, no more collateral, no more morning coffee and doughnuts in the Grille. No more lacrosse practice or chapel cuts or ping pong in the clubroom. No more empty coke bottles under your bed or wet socks hanging on the radiator. . . . Well, why is everybody getting misty-eyed? Isn't this what you've been waiting for?

HERE WE ARE, PRACTICALLY COLLEGE GRADUATES and trying our best to look very wise and very dignified as we walk The Last Mile.

Below: WELL, CONGRATULATIONS, SON. You're a college graduate. Now let's see if we can find your mother and sister and get some of that gear of yours loaded into the car before lunch . . .
