juniors
we have landed for just a moment.
we have come to rest like an autumn leaf on a windy day.
we were people thrown together
to teach each other and ourselves.
we grew together,
some well, some stunted.
we worked together,
some bled, and some cared not to.
we laughed together,
some carefree and loud, some with eyes that watched too hard.
we were the leaf, not dead but teeming.
we sought,
and cried,
and loved,
and fought,
together.
the wind has risen again and we are off into it.
leaves now,
but not together.

yet in our departure
we are born again
to begin again.

... Some must be more responsible than others by virtue of their public or their private position, their role in the family or the community, their prospects for the future or their legacy from the past. Increased responsibility goes with increased ability, for of those to whom much is given, much is required."
