epitaph 1971

we have landed for just a moment.
we have come to rest like an autumn leaf on a windy day.
we were people thrown together
to teach each other and ourselves.
we grew together,
some well, some stunted.
we worked together,
some bled, and some cared not to.
we laughed together,
some carefree and loud, some with eyes that watched too hard.
we were the leaf, not dead but teeming.
we sought,
and cried,
and loved,
and fought,
together.
the wind has risen again and we are off into it.
leaves now,
but not together.

CBS

yet in our departure
we are born again
to begin again.
