mnemonic

western maryland college marsha thompson

editor

we pause mid the wonders of life and the magic of science, to bring forth on these pages the golden moments of time just past. it is our wish to walk again the paths of achievement, fun, beauty, and skill; to ski the winter slopes and enjoy the springtime sun.
we set them all before you-come walk with us!

a memory: an image, an impression of that which is remembered, yet not unlike an illusive bubble.

precise, incisive, sharp when first emerging its multi-colored, lucid hues covering

never in palid ambiguity diverging

but after a life of merely seconds this fragile sphere its reality loses as specks of vapor it diffuses leaving only a forgotten mist.

laura hayner

"it's very easy to criticize western maryland especially after three nebulous years here—so many times i've wondered, "what's going on at this place?", without ever arriving at an answer, one thing i see now that i couldn't have known three years ago is how painfully conscious you become of your "self" at wmc. you are solely responsible for all your actions and must be if your years here are to count for anything."

"the joy of life is to put out one's power in some natural and useful or harmless way. there is no other and the real misery is not to do this."

oliver wendall holmes, jr.

sandy owens

"no enjoyment however inconsiderable, is confined to the present moment. a man is the happier for life from having made once an agreeable tour, or lived for any length of time with pleasant people or enjoyed any considerable interval of innocent pleasure."

sidney smith

kurt herwig

"sometimes, not often enough we reflect upon the good things and those thoughts always center around those we love and i count the times i have forgotten to say thank you and just how much i love them."

"i came to love them wonder if they knew or know."

the glory of god is a fully human life which being interpreted, means

- valuing the interrelationship, the dignity of all organic life
- making oneself vulnerable, risking pain, joy, hope, failure
- being an accomplice in the empowerment, liberation, and healing of people
- resisting computer language—"gear up," "input," "feedback," "plug into," "program" that is not human talk!
- keeping the perspective, knowing the boundary between people and things, enlightenment and knowledge
- reaching out, listening, affirming, caring . . .

i think this is why we are here what is all about where the journey begins . . .

as you may or may not know, the yearbook lost its editor last february when she did not return to western maryland for the second semester. many people were ready to abandon the yearbook at this point. several students, however, felt the folding up the book would be a great injustice to the student body. so, after jan term some of the old staff returned and a number of concerned students joined together to compile those pictures that were left from first semester with those that were being taken. this yearbook may not be the best yearbook ever but it is one of many efforts. the staff worked hard to make up for what was not covered properly first semester and that which was not covered at all. i would at this time like to thank allison ondraskik, the associate editor, who put together the senior section and the directory with the help of laura lane. thanks to both of you.

thank-you also to linda augugliaro, patti otani, bob heer, and pete wagner who layed out the underclass section which was an addition to this yearbook. thank-you to the photographers who should be given the credit for the contents of this book for they were the ones who took the pictures the staff had to choose from. thanks to baron taylor, pete wagner, bill gilmore and bruce mc coughey for all their help.

thanks also to mary gemmil who helped in many ways. cooperation such as mary's is always a help. special thanks to nancy phoebe who did alot towards the introduction. thanks to terry smith who helped with the sports section. recognition to susan underwood who was always getting stuck doing something. and last, thank-you to all those who did small things throughout the year that were also significant but that i have carelessly omitted here. thanks to everyone who contributed.
