Amy, we find each day too short for all the thoughts of you... The day we brought you home from the hospital, our hearts were full... Your ear operation and we never said a word, only prayed... The first day you rode the bus to school... The long sad face when you confessed some childish wrong... The time you were lost at the beach... The basketball games in high school... The first day you drove the car... The day we drove away and left you at college... We awaken each morning with a smile on our face... You have been an inexhaustible treasure in our lives.

CONGRATULATIONS NICOLE

Today we look to you with pride.
Our faith in you was justified.
Diploma in hand, you're all aglow.
Our thanks to all who helped you grow.

May you look back upon these years,
"Daze" filled with laughter and with tears,
In which both knowledge and life you sought
And for freedom and academic standing fought.

We've done our best to fill your needs.
Now you will mold the life you please.
Continue keeping soul, body and mind fit.
Then your life will be blessed with harmony, health and wit.

Use your gentle hands as the world has much pain.
Fill the air with laughter - a rainbow in sun and rain.
Hold close true friends, for they're worth more than gold.
Through years to come, your special talents unfold.

Our love enfolds you as from college you depart.
Nicole - our beloved daughter - the pride of our heart.

Mommie, Papa
and Gammy

Cheryl,

From a town with horse & buggies...

Today, you may not know all that the world has to offer... but we know that the world will be a better place because of what you have to offer.

Today, you may not know which path you should follow... but we know that you will listen to your own heart, for it will never lie.

Today, you may question what you have already accomplished... but we know you will never doubt what you can do.

As all of your tomorrows open themselves to you, never forget how proud we are of you and how much we love you...yesterday, today, and always.

Love, Mom and Dad
