2 College Hill Westminster, Maryland 21157 Volume 90

William Roberts McDaniel

From our midst, the perfect name...

On January 11, 2002, the trustees announced their unanimous decision to change the name of Western Maryland College.

After an intense four-month-long effort to select a new name for the institution, on Friday May 10, 2002, President Joan Develin Coley, the Board of Trustees, and members of the College Committee on the Naming Initiative presented the name "McDaniel" to an enthusiastic College community gathered on Memorial Plaza for the much anticipated announcement.

The new name, came from William R. "Billy Mac" McDaniel, who in many ways personifies the College with which he was associated with for 65 years, from his student days in the late 1870s until his death in 1942.

As student, alumnus, professor, administrator, trustee, and parent, his legacy lives on in the men and women who occupy today's classrooms.

Presidents called him indispensable. Colleagues respected his dedication to teaching and appreciated the hand he invariably extended to faculty newcomers. His students spoke of his attention to detail, his demanding yet patient way of guiding them through algebra, geometry, astronomy—and in the early years, the exercise he invented: club swinging to music. "There is no royal road to learning," McDaniel once said, "yet the fact remains that the educational pilgrim must travel it, and needs a guide, a counselor and friend." William McDaniel was and will always be all that and more to the thousands of lives he touched and changed.

Six decades ago, the trustees seemed almost to foresee the destiny that would be McDaniel's. Saddened by his death, they ended their eulogy to their friend and colleague with these words:

"And somehow or other, one feels that the life of William R. McDaniel will be interwoven into the destiny of Western Maryland College, as his life has been into every decade of its history. For while William R. McDaniel, the mortal, is gone, William R. McDaniel, the spirit, lives and motivates the lives of others."

Fall Festival

Each year McDaniel College has a weekend that is devoted to helping the student body settle back into the school atmosphere. This year, students enjoyed music, palm readings, and various carnival activities. What a way to say "welcome back!"

The band plays a tune for the crowd after a good football game.

A fortune teller gives a student a glimpse of what her future might hold.

Going for a spin, some students take the dare and try one of the many activities of the day. Hang on, it's going to be a wild ride!

Mom what is he doing?

Who wants to get wet?

Dancing in the wind.

Prepare to defend yourself!

Homecoming

On Saturday, October 19th, 2002, students, alumni, faculty and staff took part in the annual College McDaniel Homecoming. There were plenty of things to do on campus. The main event of the day was the football game against Dickinson, which the Green Terror won 20 to 0. Overall, the students enjoyed the day with friends and family.

These students are just hanging out with family and friends while enjoying some barbecue food.

Plays

Each year, the Theatre Department, which consists of students and staff of the college, puts on various plays in Alumni Hall. The plays range from comedy to romance to tragedy. This year's plays included "Choices," "Voices," "Techies," "Children of a Lesser God," and "The Threepenny Opera."

Christina Allen and Jeff Goeller play chess in the play "Voices."

The trial scene from "Voices;" the true story of Joan of Arc.

What a great performance, maybe one day we'll see his name in lights.

Here, come with me so I can show you what I was talking about.

Maybe we should listen more carefully when they talk.

Winter Formal

On Friday, December 6th, 2002, students and friends took the opportunity to relax, dance and have a good time before finals started. This year's winter formal was held at the Links in Gettysburg, which was beautifully decorated for the holiday season.

Spring Fling

On Saturday, April 26th, 2003, McDaniel College held its first official Spring Fling. There was plenty of activities for students, faculty and staff to partake in. Some of the activities included rides, pie throwing, toilet racing, tie dying T-shirts and basketball shooting. There was also plenty of food and music for everyone to enjoy.

He shoots and he scores!

Since when do we race toilets?

The brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi sponsored a pie in the face booth. It was messy, but students had fun.

Fashion Show

The Black Student Union did it again this year with a spectacular Fashion Show. The theme entitled, "This is the Remix," showed, once again, that these models knew what they were doing. From attractive males to fine ladies each scene had a unique touch that captured the audience's approval. Hosted by Felicia Donelson, the show was a success.

Hostess Felicia Donelson kept the audience entertained with jokes while the models changed for their next scene. That girl has skills on the mic!

Good Girl, Bad Girl. The ladies show it off with stylish outfits.

The fashions showed a lot of muscle as senior Jemel Johnson displays.

The Jersey scene has the finale as the models show off those nice, funky jerseys.

Spring Formal

On Friday April 11th, 2003, students enjoyed an evening of music and dancing with friends and significant others aboard the Bay Lady. This year was chillier then it has been in the past, but that didn't seem to damper the fun. Also while aboard the boat, students enjoyed different types of food and the scenery of the Inner Harbor.

The ball is up in the air and ready to be hit by the Green Terror

The Green Terror Men's Soccer team began the season with a lot of new and returning talent. This year's team had high hopes of obtaining the Centennial Conference Championship, but as the season progressed, their hopes were dashed. However, they are looking to come back next year with a stronger team and hopes of obtaining the championship crown. The Green Terror finished off their season with 6 wins, 9 losses, and 2 ties.

Due to a disappointing season last year because of injuries, this year's Green Terror team had high ambition of making it to the ECAC Championship as well as becoming Centennial Conference Champions. The women's soccer team was knocked out of contention in the first round of the ECAC playoffs with a loss of 3 to 1 against Widener College. These women finished off their season with a remarkable record of 12 wins, 8 losses and 1

This year was a rebuilding year for the McDaniel College Volleyball team. This year's squad consisted of five freshmen, one sophomore, two juniors and two seniors. This season was a heart breaking one for these women. The record for this season was 13 wins and 19 losses. Next year's team has high hopes for improving their record, since most of the team will be returning for another year.

Field Hockey

The 2002 season was filled with hard work and aspirations to qualify for the Centennial Conference playoffs. We tied last year's record of best start to a season with eight wins and no losses. Our first fall came to Swarthmore, but there were only three more after that, including one in the second round of Centennial Playoffs. The team worked hard to acheive the success that they had. We hoped to make the Centennial playoffs, never realizing that we would host and win them. In the first round, we defeated Franklin and Marshall College, who only allowed us to score one goal. We then faced John Hopkins University, whom we had lost to in the regular season. This time we won with a 1-0 victory over the Blue Jays. With that win and the conference title, we went on to NCAAs and a home field advantage for the first round. We stayed undeafted on the home field, beating The College of Notre Dame 6-0. This sent us to New Jersey to face the number one team in the nation, Rowan University. McDaniel fought hard through field conditions and weather, but that day was just not ours. That was our last game of the season, but we walked off the field with pride. A 19-4 season and the schools first ever Conference Championship and NCAA bid.

Cross Country

Even though McDaniel Men's and Women's Cross County teams graduated several seniors in 2002, this year was an outstanding year for both squads. Jen Pullen for the women's team and Freshmen Paul Hugus for the men's team both contributed their efforts to a remarkable season.

Men's Basketball

The 2002-2003 season saw a team struggling to get on track. Ending the season 5-20 overall and 2-11 in the Conference the Green Terror played hard, but were again plagued by inconsistencies. However, the team did have a great game against rival Gettysburg, and a third place finish in the Legg Mason Winter Classic. With the Centennial Conference as strong as it is, the Green Terror do their best to give each opposing team a challenge.

And the shot is made! It's another basket for the McDaniel Green Terror.

Alan Hoyt dribbles the ball down the court to the basket.

Women's Basketball

The 2002-2003 women's basketball season did the job of meeting the high expectations set by last year's squad. Boasting a 20-9 overall record and 8-6 in the Conference, the team displayed another exciting and successful season. Though the team lost to Johns Hopkins in the Conference Championship, the women had a lot to be proud of even though they did not repeat as Conference Champs. It will be interesting to see who fills the void left by five seniors leaving. However, head coach Becky Martin is extremely optimistic and excited by next year's challenge.

By the look on her face, the game is going well for the Green Terror Womens basketball team.

This Green Terror is anxious to get into the game.

The McDaniel women rule the court, and this picture only goes to show that's it's the truth.

The 2002-03 season proved highly successful for Green Terror Swimming. The men were 6-5 and the women 7-5 in dual meet action. Records fell at the Centennial Conference Championships held at the conclusion of the season. The women established 4 new individual and 3 relay records and the men set new standards in 1 individual event and 2 relays.

The women were led by Junior Melanie Pulley who swam to 3 NCAA "B" standards and the men had Junior Dan Pickett finishing in the top 3 in two events. The final team scores placed McDaniel's Women 6th (328 points) and Men 5th (280 points). Swimming in the Centennial Conference is fast and furious and the Green Terror are constantly rising to the challenge and looking to the future.

Making his way down the pool, Matt Easterday has the strokes to win the meet.

Wrestling

Ending their 2002-2003 campaign with a winning 10-9 record proved bittersweet when all five McDaniel College representatives in the NCAA tournament were ousted in the first day. Though the tough ending to an otherwise successful season, McDaniel weresting looks forward to doing even better next year. Saying goodbye to eight great seniors, next year's outlook is still optimistic and greatly anticipated. Wrestling in the Centennial Conference is tough and extremely demanding, but the Green Terror are always prepared and ready to go with everything on the line.

Looks like this match is in the favour of McDaniel College.

The McDaniel wrestlers are always ready and waiting for an opponent.

This player hustles to end the innning.

Swing batter, batter swing.

After an up and down season, the Green Terror men's baseball team provided a stunning season. With expectations high because of the quality of seniors on this years team, the Terror certainly did not disappoint. Senior leadership and play will certainly be missed. However, coach Dave Seibert is very optimistic and believes fans should be, too. With such a great season, next year's team will have to work that much harder to keep the winning season streak alive!

What is going through his head?

George Dix, Head Coach Amanda Zentner, Assistant Coach

This year turned out to be a good and successful year for the Green Terror Softball Team. The team competed in the conference championships before falling just short of play in the next round to the Muhlenberg College Bears. Seniors Candice Kuligowski and Jen Geiman will be missed by their fellow teammates, but there are still high hopes for the next season. Best wishes to those who graduated and to the rest of the team on another successful and exciting season!

Heather prepares for whatever the pitcher can throw at her.

Men's Tennis

The McDaniel men's tennis team displayed more heart and character than their rank and record shows. Building upon last year's team, which did not win a match, this year's squad boasted a couple quality victories in some very competitive matches. The biggest highlight was starting the season with a victory over rival, Ursinus. Chad Lovett is the only senior on the team and his contribution to Green Terror tennis will be missed. First year coach Matt Bilger believes next year's squad should be highly competitive and looks forward to a winning season.

Ending on a winning note, the women's tennis team struggled most of the season but showed great character in their final match against Bryn Mawr. Coach Matt Bilger hopes the great ending will carry over to next year's campaign where expectations should be lifted. The Green Terror women played extremely hard all season and look forward to stepping up and turning some heads next year.

Track & Field The Team

With many new and returning athletes, this turned out to be an exciting year for the Green Terror Men's and Women's Track and Field Teams, Many records fell and personal bests in events were achieved by all. The seniors will be missed next year, but the team is looking forward to a more exciting season next vear.

Men's Lacrosse

In a season that started out so promising the Green Terror men's lacrosse team fell just short of going farther than last year's squad. Led by new coach Jim Townsend, the Green Terror finished the regular season a very successful 10-3 (8-3) in the conference). In an overtime thriller, the McDaniel men fell just short of winning the crown to Washington. Though the ending of the season was stough, players and coaches agree that the season was a success given the new system that had to be learned and incorporated. The team looses eight key seniors including All-American Joe Ellis. However, the leadership they gave throughout the season should provide enough to keep next year's team competitive and successful.

The opponent takes a hard check to the stomach from a Terror.

Women's Lacrosse

The McDaniel women lacrosse team had it's share of ups and downs, but in the end players responded well and never gave up. Bouncing back from an 0-5 start, the Green Terror women ended the season with a 6-9 record. With expectations and pressure at such a high level this year, the girls never gave up proving quality victories over Conference foes, Haverford and Swarthmore. Five crucial seniors will be missed; however, the rest of the squad is anxious to step up. Coach Mindy McCord expects that the leadership and perseverance displayed by the seniors will carry over to next year's team.

Commencement 2003

On Saturday, May 24th, the seniors took one last walk across campus as students as they made their way to Gill Center to receive their diplomas and become alumni. Afterwards, there was excitement and sorrow as they said good-bye to friends they have grown close to and a place they have called home for the past four years. Congratulations to the class of 2003.

A glance down one row of excited seniors as they prepare to receive their degrees.

Ifeanyi, we are very proud to be your parents. We thank you for your love and hard work, and all the academic and athletic achievements that have put our family name in the annals of the schools, colleges, and universities you have attended. We hope you will do the same in the medical school you will be attending.

The entire Ani Family loves you. Congratulations on your graduations!

To Allen Silfee a terrific son and brother & Erin Friday a wonderful daughter and sister

Time has passed so quickly...now you're graduating from college! You have worked so hard, and we are very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. It has been a joy and a blessing watching you grow into fine the individuals you are today. You will always have our love and support as you journey toward your dreams.

All our love and best wishes,

ALANA REYNOLDS-HICKS

Dear Alana,

A child gives us our own first times all over again. I have watched the marvel of a curtain rise, the hushing of a concert hall as the baton lifts, the first sight of the sea and now your graduation from College. I could, dream of wealth & success for you. I dream only, of a job you like, shills you can perfect, enthusiasms to lighten your heart, friends & love in abundance. I know your father would be proud of you also. Congratulations & May God Bless you and hold you in His loving arms. I love you! Mam

Alana, Enjoy the companionship others can give you, yet value your time alone. If you love those around you and love youvself too, your spirit will be eager and free. Then you will know what it means to live life to its fullest and be the best you can be. You will continue to go far with God's Blessings. Congratulations, Love always; Nana

In remembrance: Your father once sent a card: A daughter means a world of joy right from the start. A daughter means a world of pride to always warm the heart, and when a daughter is as sweet and wonderful as you...A daughter means a world of love to last a lifetime through. Love Daddy

Alana my love - This is another step in life you have achieved. Keep on stepping. Congrats! Aunt Vivie

Alana I wish you the beauty of silence, the glory of sunlight, the mystery of darkness, the force of flame, the power of water, the sweetness of air, the quiet strength of earth, the love that lies at the very root of things. I wish you the wonder of living. Congratulations on your achievement. God Bless you. Love Patsy Cousin Alana, My hope for you is that all your life you will go on being astonished and delighted by the world about you. Congratulations, Tanya!

"Education is one of the great joys and solaces of life. It gives us a framework for understanding the world around us and a way to reach across time and space to touch the thoughts and feelings of others. But education is more than schooling. It is a cast of mind, a willingness to see the world with an endless sense of curiosity and wonder. If you would be truly educated, you must adopt this cast of mind. You must open yourself to the richness of your reveyday experience—to your own emotions, the movements of the heavens and the language of birds, to the privations and successes of people in other lands and other times. Still, format education will not inform your spirit and make you full. So, along with knowledge, you must seek wisdom. Knowledge is multiple, wisdom is singular. Knowledge is words, wisdom is silent. Knowledge is tanding outside, understanding what is seen, wisdom is standing at the center, knowing what is not seen. No person can be whole without both dimensions of tearning." Kent Newtons.

"REMEMBER THE LORD IN EVERYTHING YOU DO, AND HE WILL SHOW YOU THE RIGHT WAY." PROVERBS 3:6

You are loved with boundless love!!

Jen

We are so proud of the young woman you have grown to be. These past four years have been amazing. Follow your dreams.

Dear Dave.

This is a message from the heart from both your Mom and Dad. We remember the day you were born as if it were yesterday. Now, you are all grown up to both our joy and feeling of a sense of loss (you really don't need us anymore. Yeah, we're whining ③.) You are sensitive and compassionate. You are humorous, a wonderfully caring sibling to Megan and Brandon, and loyally committed to your friends and family. While we have had our differences over the years, we now realize that they are all so inconsequential and distant now. We are sooop proud.

Congratulations!!! Please bask and savor the moment. You will look back years from now and remember your college days as the best years of your life. The friends you've made ... the experiences you've had (half of which you won't want to discuss in front of your kids) But today is about the pride and satisfaction that we feel about you and what you've accomplished. You've done so good and we hope that you comprehend and share the same sense of pride and accomplishment.

Now ... feel free to get a job ... and a good one at that too. Someone has to buy us beer and bibles in our 80s!!! 9

CONGRATULATIONS NEIL!

Dear Son,

It seems like only yesterday that you began each day with laughter and play. Now we stand in celebration of all you have accomplished and with a deep understanding and appreciation of all your efforts that have brought you to this day. We have cherished the moments with you as a little boy, and we continue to marvel about the man you have become. We are forever your biggest fans. We love you, we believe in you, and our wish for you is that may you continue to enjoy laughter and play each day as you embark on life's next journey. Love, Mom and Dad.

Ashley,

We have watched you grow, with love Now we'll watch you follow your dream, with pride. We are very proud of the woman you have become.

Congratulations!!

Brandi,

Where did the time go? It seems like yesterday that you were unpacking getting ready for life on the "hill" and now it's time for life in the real world. You have excelled in all your endeavors and we have no doubt that you will continue to do so in whatever the future holds for you. You may be all grown up, but you are still our pride and joy. No parents could be more proud of their child than we are of you. Our wish for you is that you have as much happiness in your life as you have brought to ours.

Love, Mom & Dad

It's wonderful realizing a dream and knowing the little girl who once filled our lives with joy and our hearts with love has grown into a fine young woman who still makes us feel that we are a very special part of her life. You have always had a mind of your own but we are happy to realize that you were actually listening to us when we have our "talks" about all the important stuff! We you to know how very proud we are of you and our wish is that you continue to reach the goals you have set for yourself as a new chapter of your life begins.

Your determination and focus will get you through new challenges. Continue to believe in yourself and know that you can do whatever you set your mind to. Remember you life is yours to build as you choose. Keep your faith in God and everything will fall into place.

Our hopes and dreams are surpassed only by our deep love for you. We thank God and you for bring so much happiness into our lives.

May your future with Paul always be filled with Love, Respect and Happiness!

With All Our Love and Sincere Congratulations - Mom & Dad

Do Good Anyway...

People are sometimes unreasonable and self-centered.

Love them anyway.

If you do good, people may accuse you of selfish motives, Do good anyway.

you are successful, you may win false friends and true enemies Succeed anyway.

The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow.

Do good anyway.
What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight.

Build anyway.

People who really want help may attack you if you help them.

Help them anyway.

Give the world the best you have and you may get hurt.

Give the world your best anyway.

The world is full of conflict and stress.

Choose peace of mind anyway.

The world will fight to be your priority.

Make God your priority anyway...

In a race, everyone runs but only one person gets the prize.. To win the contest you must deny yourself many things that would keep you from doing your best. 1 Corinth 9:24-25

JACOB HOPE

Jacob,

The word congratulation doesn't seem to be enough. Graduation Day has been long in the doing, but great in the achieving---Your greatness. You are someone who many can look up to and most should admire. I know I do. Your love of people and sincere concern for them is a lesson for all. You are amazing! You have succeeded where most would have not. Challenge is your middle name.

May you find happiness and fulfillment in all you do in life.

Love.

Your very proud Mother.

Jacob.

Congratulation on your graduation! As your big brother, I look up to you. Good luck in the future and I will be there with you every step of the way.

You really made it!!! Of course we knew that you would. From the beginning, we knew that WMC was the perfect fit for you. We hope that you enjoyed every minute of your college experience. And we know you will never forget WMC, the Cobras and Daffodils, Room 402, Gamma Sig and the Phi Kaps, your 21st birthday, spring break, New Year's eve in happening Hagerstown, the MPT telethons and all the great times that you shared.

You have done a great job as a pretend adult and we know you are ready for the real thing. Just remember that even though you are a real adult now, we will always be here if you should need anything along the way. As we watch you graduate and receive your degree, we are overwhelmed with pride and love. We pray that God will guide you on your path to everything you need to make your life truly wonderful.

We love you, Cole. Mom, Gil, Uncle Paul and Aunt Cheryl, Uncle Mike and Silky P.S. You are still the perfect daughter.

Hey Cole.

Congratulations. You are finally an adult in the real world. We remember the days when we were young, like the fun times at the apartment and the secret hiding place. The games that we played and the times we have spent with our family have touched our hearts. We will always remember these times no matter how old we get . We watched you achieve your goals through hard work. Enjoy your new life and your new car.

Love always, all your sisters, brothers and cousins.

A Letter from the Editors

Another year has come and gone, and we would like to take a moment to reflect on the events of the past year. This was the first school year that students, faculty and staff knew WMC as McDaniel College. For some, this will always be their home away from home, but for others they will move on with their lives and occasionally look back

Congratulations to the class of 2003 May all of your hopes and dreams come true. Although you are now alumni, remember that you are always welcome back to visit those of us who still remain on the Hill But in all that you do, don't forget to take time to say "thank you" to those who love you, cherish you and encourage you throughout your life

As for the classes of '04, '05, and '06, keep looking forward to your own graduation day' know that your time will come and will be here before you know it! In the mean time, keep working hard and shoot for the stars

We would like to thank those who put in many long hours to produced this books Nicole, Andrew, Cassie, Kim, Lydia, Crystal, Liz and Kaha Without your hard work, completing this book would not have been possible.

We would also like to thank Susan Cullison, our yearbook advisor. She put a lot of time, effort and many hours in helping make this year's book a success. Susan, what would we do without you?
