"We built a cabin in the woods in California entirely out of small trees and fallen logs (by hand) and lived there for a couple years. We built fires every day for cooking, caught rain in a tank for water for washing and went to the spring for drinking water, had a battery-operated radio and a gas lamp, raised goats and chickens...our car had broken down so we had no wheels. At night, it was best to avoid going to the outhouse because rattlesnakes liked to curl up in there."

Student Spotlight

Graduating Senior Elizabeth Layne has been drawing all her life but didn't take it seriously until she began at McDaniel. Starting her own webcomic in her Junior year has allowed her to teach herself new artistic concepts and to learn a new style of writing.

"I've made a ton of friends through fanwork and collaboration, and improved so much, both as an artist and a person."

Elizabeth wants to write and illustrate her own novels in the future, taking with her all the skills she's learned at McDaniel, both by herself and in class, but no matter where her journey takes her she wants to keep making comics.

Demon Street is a story about a curious boy who enters a new world filled with monstrous and wondrous creatures. It is a story about a quest and what that means, it is about finding things, sometimes fighting things and about what you choose to fight for.

Senior Memories

One of my favorite memories is of freshman year. My group of friends and I use to do these things we called Free Fridays. Every Friday we would sit outside whiteford on the hill and give away free stuff. Hugs, bubbles, watermelon, chalk, henna tattoos, and candy were a few of those things. The best part of all was just hanging out with friends and making people's day when they came by. It will always be one of those times I will never forget.

~ Jennifer Bland

Best friends since freshman year ~ Shelby Toler, Jack Dowd and Andrew Monger!

~ Shelby Toler

Freshman year, my main group of friends decided to start something called "Free Fridays." Every Friday, we would think of something--a high five or a henna tattoo--that we could give out for free. We would make a big sign each week, advertising as we sat outside of Whiteford. It all started when my friend, Kelsey Gondek, was having a bad day so she decided to give out free hugs in Red Square. My roommate, Jesi West, joined her. They made it into the school newspaper! A week after that, Jesi was given a large watermelon we didn't quite know what to do with. We decided to cut it up and give it out to the McDaniel community the next Friday. Then, bam! Free Friday was born. It caught on with the rest of our group and the tradition continued for the rest of the year.

I got pick pocketed in Budapest, but I got it back. It was crazy.

The Pathways Yearbook Staff would like to thank the following people for helping us complete the book successfully: John Brannigan from Jostens; Luke Stillson in the Office of Sports Information; the entire Communications and Marketing department; Lauren Avery, Megan McCargish, Allison Eader, Sarah Tate, Jennifer Bland, Lizzy Maxman, Shelby Toler, Garin Greenholt, Jose De La Cruz, Mariah Ligas, Joshua Peeling, Steve Dulany, Gu Rius, Josh Matukonis, Zachery Brown, and Hunter Thompson.

When it comes to "thank-you's", one particular person stands out: Cathy Gunther, our dedicated advisor and fearless leader. Without her guidance, encouragement, and support, this book would not have been possible. Thanks for everything Ms. Cathy; we couldn't have done it without you! You're the best!

Congratulations, Class of 2014!!!

I would like to send out a huge thanks to all of my professors and friends for their help and support these past four years! And a big thanks to my family, especially my parents! I love you Mom and Dad! A special thanks to the Math CS Department, my family away from home, and the Education Department. My parents would also like to take this opportunity to extend their thanks to the McDaniel community. WE ARE MCDANIEL!
-Vickie Koslak

We are so proud of you and every step of your journey. We are excited to see what life's next turns will bring. Walk with integrity, peace in your heart and resolve.

Your childhood inspirations offer encouragement:

"People seldom see the halting and painful steps by which the most insignificant success is achieved... Keep on beginning and failing. Each time you fail, start all over again, and you will grow stronger until you have accomplished a purpose - not the one you began with perhaps, but one you'll be glad to remember." - Anne Sullivan.

"Your success and happiness lies in you. Resolve to keep happy, and your joy and you shall form an invincible host against difficulties... The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or touched - they must be felt with the heart." - Helen Keller.

Stay true to yourself. Dig deep to the One within you.

Love Always,
- Mom and Dad

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make His face shine upon you
And be gracious to you.
The Lord lift up His countenance upon you
And give you peace.
(Numbers 6:24-26, NKJV)

Congratulations
Emily!

Evan,

We hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes,
to the windows of your opportunities

your heart has ever known.
